WM. NEWELL RETIRED.

Union Depot Company's Movement for Retirement.

William Newell, one of the oldest and most faithful employees of the Union Depot company in this city, having served during the past 15 years as depot policeman and was an efficient officer, was discharged from the service yesterday, for no other reason than because he was growing old and the company had younger man, C. H. Woodruff, to fill the position.

Mr. Newell has served the company long and well, was always at his post of duty and performed his duties in a most praiseworthy manner and his sudden discharge will be regretted by many. Mr. Woodruff is a young, capable man, who has been employed in the office of the Southern Pacific superintendent as clerk for some time past.

Besides discharging the duties performed by Mr. Newell, he will also act as clerk for the newly appointed General Agent Keating. The change is only a start, so it is said, for other unexpected changes at the Union Depot, all for the purpose of retrenchment of expenses in the service.

—News Briefs.

Ogden, July 7.—William B. Call wants $60,000 from the Union Pacific Railroad company for the loss of both feet just below the knee. Mr. Call has filed an action against the company for that sum in the district court. The complaint alleges that the young man was employed by the company in the Union depot yards in this city as switchman. That on the night of May 11, 1905, he was switching in the yards under the direction of Foreman B. N. Laudon, on track No. 16, which it is alleged is so close to track 17 as to make it dangerous for cars passing each other that on the night mentioned plaintiff was riding on the side of a car and was struck by a car on track 17, and thrown under the wheels, which crushed both legs, necessitating amputation below the knees also otherwise seriously injuring him, to his damage in the sum of $60,000.
