

slapping his face, and accusing him with illicit connection with his wife. This Curtis denied, and hot words ensued, which resulted in a challenge to fight a duel, and its acceptance. That p. m. both men proceeded in a carriage to Mariano, without witnesses, and on arriving there they dismissed the carriage. Five shots were fired by each, beginning at a distance of twenty feet, and firing as they advanced; at the fifth discharge Curtis was seriously wounded in the hip and fell to the ground, fainting from pain and loss of blood. Upon recovering consciousness he says he saw Cortreala reload his revolver and place it at his temple and fire, killing himself. Cortreala's body has been brought to this city. It is thought that he believed his opponent dead when he killed himself. Curtis is confined to bed and is under police surveillance.

DUBLIN, 6.—In the international match competition, the following riflemen made the best scores, and the first six will compose the team: Wilson, Milner, Rigby, Fulton, Hamilton, Pollock, Johnson, McKenna and Young; the three last having used English rifles will have to compete again.

BERNE, 7.—M. Staempfli has been elected president of the national council.

MELBOURNE, 7.—Reports have been received from the Fiji Islands that five thousand of the natives have died of epidemic measles.

BERLIN, 8.—A grand banquet was given here to-day to Carl Schurz, by the American residents of Berlin; the members of the Diet and the professors of the Berlin University were present.

Wiesinger, who attempted to extort money by implicating persons in a plot to assassinate Bismarck, has been committed for trial.

DUBLIN, 8.—The Lord Mayor of Dublin has issued invitations to a banquet to be given to the Irish and American rifle teams, on the day of the international shooting match. The Masonic body will also entertain the American riflemen. The Evening Mail expresses satisfaction that there will be no Fenian element among the American visitors. Many Americans have already engaged apartments in Dublin for the time when the match takes place.

LONDON, 8.—The Ascot meeting began to-day. The race for the Ascot stakes was won by Oranist, Lilian second and Bertram third.

LONDON, 8.—The Mark Lane Express, in a review of the breadstuff market, says that in Great Britain cooler weather and more rain is wanted; on the continent frosts and drought have caused an advance in prices of from one to three shillings. The London market is as dull as ever.

At the Ascot races, the race for the gold vase was won by Marie Stuart, Cornelian second, Kaiser third. The Prince of Wales stakes was won by Earl of Dartrey, Bay of Naples second, Baffle third.

TORONTO, Ont., 8.—A disastrous fire has been raging in the heart of this city since nine to-night, but now, midnight, it is under control. The flames burst from the goods store of a foundry, and had made considerable headway before the engines arrived. About half a block from Yonge to Victoria, and North Shunter St., is destroyed; loss $150,000.

BERLIN, 8.—The banquet given to-night in honor of Hon. Carl Schurz was attended by eighty gentlemen, of whom about forty were Americans. Mr. Thompson presided, and proposed a toast to the German Emperor and the President of the U. S. Ex-Senator Schurz toasted Germany and America and made speeches in German and English. He was repeatedly cheered. Among the persons present were Herren Benningsen, President, and Louve, Vice-President, of the Prussian House of deputies, Bermuth, Vice-President of the Chamber of Peers, Brevy, Councilor Bucher, Prof. Mommsen the historian, H. Kreissman, Consul General of the U. S. and several members of the Prussian Diet.

It is not an infrequent experience of churches in New York in these times to be obliged to sell out for debt. This was the fate of two lately.

An alligator, twelve and a half feet long, was killed lately in the Bayou Pierre, Mississippi, below Port Gibson. It was the largest ever seen there.

NEWS NOTES.

It is said there are 347 dramatists at work on Irish plays.

It is not a wide calculation to say that seventy-five thousand Americans will visit Europe this summer.

Adam Black, the Edinburgh publisher, is to have a memorial in the shape of a statue in that city.

The latest addition to the umbrella is a pane of glass, inserted in the front breadth, through which the holder can see his way.

The mania for suicides is becoming so general in the Prussian army that a proposition has been made to investigate the cause, and devise means to remedy it.

The women of Plymouth church will stick to Mr. Beecher all the closer if the jury impugns his true inwardness in the slightest degree. —Buffalo Courier.

Hydrophobia is reported to be raging terribly in Texas among wolves and all animals that they bite. Farmers are having to kill their stock. The report comes from Castrovilla.

The people of Kansas, who have been reduced nearly to starvation by the ravages of the grasshoppers, have cheerily adopted a dance which they call "The Grasshopper Cotillion."

General Pryor, who was poisoned by the foul air in the Brooklyn court room, has been ordered to Europe by his doctors. But the power of the medical faculty cannot reach the beleaguered jurors. They must stay and see it out, poison or no poison.

A man in France who had his foot amputated refused to pay the fee charged by the surgeon, commenced an action against the latter for damages because the foot, instead of having been buried had been dissected in the interests of science.

Medical science is reduced to a fine point when the dirt from beneath a suspected murderer's finger nails furnishes evidence of recent contact with human blood. Such was the testimony of experts in the case of a negro in Detroit, accused of killing his wife.

The Pittsburgh Post thinks the antagonists of the prayer test will find food for reflection in the fact that the prayers to avert or mitigate the grasshopper plague suggested (the prayers) by Governor Hardin, of Missouri, were followed by beating rains which "swept the pests out of existence."

Poor Irish woman with six children to railroad ticket agent: "Please, sir, give a poor widdy with six orphan children a ticket to Milwaukee?" Ticket agent: "What have I to do with your orphan children? I ain't their father, am I?" Woman: "That you ain't, sir, their father was a decent man."

Mrs. Elizabeth Engelker, of Jackson county, Iowa, could hardly get along if the old man should fall into the hands of the crusaders and swear off. She recovered four hundred dollars of one barkeeper and one thousand one hundred dollars of another for selling him whisky. She ought to lock him up until he gets crazy dry and turn him loose on the next victim. Such a man is a treasure to a poor family.

IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road bed has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making Eastern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kankakee Line and Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets by the Old Pioneer Route—

The Chicago and North-Western.

You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.
