DESERET EVENING NEWS: WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1901.

...... OUR OWN STATE.

The branch office of the Deseret News in Ogden is at No. 466 Twenty-fourth street, where advertisements and subscriptions will be received. The "News" is delivered by carriers in ogden every evening on the same terms as in Salt Lake City.

Wilford E. Brett, the 14-year old son of James H. Brett, yardman for the Consolidated Implement company, met his death yesterday by an electric shock from a live wire. The boy left the home situated at 1054 Twenty-fifth street yesterday morning to take care of his father's cows. nothing more was seen of him until about four o'clock in the afternoon when his lifeless body was found by a boy named Samuel Connell, at the corner of Harrison avenue and Twenty-fifth street, the end of the Twenty-fifth street car line. The sad news was conveyed to the boy's father who quickly went to the boy's father who quickly went to the scene of the accident. The remains lay life-less on the ground, with a live wire across the body and the left hand of for the fellow had clutched the wire so tightly that when the remains were removed one of the fingers dropped from the hand, having been burned Justice Joseph Hall was summoned and the following jury was impaneted: Oscar Read, Fred. Halverson and Wil-liam F. Burton. The remains were viewed and an inquest will be held this morning.

Good Sugar Beet Crop - Smallpox Decreasing - Business Good.

pecial Correspondence. Preston, Onelda Co., Idaho, Nov. 4.-The farmers are busy getting up their sugar beets, the crop is very good con-sidering the extreme dry season. We are having beautiful weather. There is considerable fall grain being planted on the dry farms. The health of the people is good with the exception of a few cases of small-pox in our village, but these are getting better. The Bosworth hotel has been closed for several weeks but will reopen in a few days under a new management. Business is quite good. It has been decided by our stake presidency to build an annex to the stake academy or a tabernacle so as to have better accommodation for con-ferences and the people have agreed to sustain the stake presidency in this matter.
