

HORSE THEFT CHARGED

Eugene Green on Trial Before Justice Hall
Under One of Three Complaints.

THAT ONE IS FOR PETIT LARCENY.

Abandoned a Jury and Its Out 11-20
New Complaint Against Green.
Changing Head Charges.

Eugene Green is on trial today before Justice Nelson and the charge against him is that of petit larceny, which is alleged in the complaint to have been committed in the month of May, 1898, at the residence of W. A. Thomas, in Denver, on December 1, 1898, of a horse of the value of $100, the same being the property of William Thomas.

Thomas, Green and John D. Jones, who were named as co-defendants in the complaint, but whose names have been stricken from the complaint, are now named as defendants in the new complaint, which is for the same offense.

A verdict of eight jurors was returned on the charge of larceny, but the jury was discharged, and the case was set for a new trial on the charge of petit larceny.

The case was represented by Deputy County Attorney John C. Hall and the defense by Mr. J. H. Green.

Justice Nelson was absent from the court today, and the case was set for a new trial on the charge of petit larceny.
