C. He lectured in Baltimore two or three times, in Philadelphia and also in New Jersey. "The Smoot investigation has broken the back of the anti-Mormon agita-tion," said Mr. Peet today. "The ac-tion of the senate in seating Mr. Smoot is generally looked upon as being en-tirely right and proper. In view of the circumstances, notwithstanding the vicious attacks upon and falsehoods told about the people of this state by the coterie of reverend gentlemen now lecturing in the east on the subject of Utah and the Mormons. Revs. Fink, Nutting, Hans Freeze, T. C. Hiff and others are among this number, and their stories me being disbelieved by many people, especially when they their stories are being disbeneved by many people, especially when they praise Senators Dubois and Eurrows and belittle such men as Senators Knox, Foraker, Beverldge and others, who spoke in behalf of Senator Smoot and his right to his sent in the United States senate. "The sentiment against Smoot's de-fenders has more to that extert in some fenders has gone to that extent in some parts that the people are organizing a boycott against them in cities in Penn-sylvania, notably in Pittsburg, where they are going to knife Knox in his aspirations for the presidency.

SHE HAS A LITTLE LIST.

"Mrs. Schoff has kept the names of "Mrs. Schoff has kept the names of all the senators who voted in favor of Smoot, and she proposes to work up a boycott against any of them who might come up for political position or re-dection hereafter. Of course, her ef-forts will result as they usually do, but this shows how strongly the opponents of Smoot have taken his vic-tory to heart.

PADEN A FAILURE.

"Dr. Paden's talk was worse than a failure, as right above him in the Witherspoon building, the Presby-terian, an authorized paper, stated the week following his lecture that the sen-ators could not do otherwise in justice then to waste for the seating of Smoot than to vote for the seating of Smoot. Many of the papers which fought and belittled Smoot have come to the con-clusion that the senate did the right thing in seating him.

PRAISE FOR STUDENTS.

"I found the Utah students in Phila delphia and Baltimore to be the clean est lot of young people in any of the colleges, they stand highest in their colleges, they stand highest in their studies, they are gontlemanly in every respect, and they always have a good word for Utah. Mrs. Josephine Booth Woodruf's lecture, on "Social Life in Utah," delivered before the Liberal league in Philadelphia two or three weeks ago, was a great success, and Mrs. Woodruff has received numerous invitations to deliver this and other lectures in other cities of the east. WILL LECTURE.

"I am pleased to get back to Salt Lake," said Mr. Peet, "I expect to remain her about a month before re-turning east, and shall deliver an il-lipstrated lecture in various cities, re-producing exactly the talks being made by Nuting, liff, and others and show here they are slandering the people of

MRS. JONES' VERSION.

She Takes Umbrage at Divorce Complaint Filed by Her Husband.

Relative to the published accusations of Willard T. Jones against his wife. Mary A. Jones, in his complaint asking for a divorce, she writes from Blackfoot, Idaho Siters, that an injustice has been done siters, that an injustice has been done her. This is the second time that the cou-ple have been married, the first union taking place about 25 years ago. The wife secured a divorce several years ago, and they were separated until the tragic deals of their only son brought about a recon-ciliation. They agreed to bury their dif-ferences and were again married, the sec-ond ceremony being performed April 2, 1905.

1906 Mirs. Jones avers that she has been true to her marriage vows, contrary to her husband's declarations to the opposite. She further declares that he kept her almost as a prisoner, and had taken her cut only once since last September. She signed an agreement that a divorce he secured by Mr. Jones, she says, only be-cause she was enlirely without means to fight the case, and immediately left town, so glad was she of once more hav-ing her freedom.

Guardsmen to Meet at Armory Tonight -Union's Against Enlistment.

Tonight at the national guard armory there will be an interesting gathering of former guardsmen, intent on beginning work again to put Company H on its feet. Time was when H company was the best disciplined and best drilled company in the guard, but shortly before its re-cent slump B company of Ogden took away this honor. Since Col. Plummer took charge of the line officers H com-pany has shown a disposition to come back to life, and work again to its old standard. In the meeting tonight there will be present many former members. It is the intention to muster, issue equip-ment, and hold a first drill, preparatory to getting into shape for the annual in-spection. work again to put Company H on its

of the authorities at 10 o'Clock last night when the polloe were notified that a sick huby was descried at the home of Mrs. Isennauser, 565 west First South street. Officer Carlson was sent to the scene and found the woman lying on the floor in a beastly state of intoxication while in the room were five little children in mass and suffering from hunger. A baby was lying on a bed of fitny rags. gasping for breath, and apparently near to its denth.

gasping for breath, and apparently near to its death. As soon as Officer Carlson entered the place the dranken woman began to curse him and ordered him away. Carl-son telephoned to Dr. Pinkerton who responded at once. The physician said the baby must have immediate atten-tion to save its life. Dr. E. G. Gowans, the recently appointed judge of the ju-venile court, was communicated with and he telephoned to Mrs. Young, pro-bation officer of the court and told her to take charge of the child. Mrs. Young said she was unable to attend to the matter until this morning. Shortly after midnight two nurses from the Deaconesses' home went to the place to render what assistance they could.
