The Work in Denmark.

AALBORG, October 29, 1874.
Editor Deseret News:
Since I left Utah a year ago last Month I have written to the letters to the editor of the News and two to the President of the Deseret A. and M.
Society, and I have good reasons to believe that they have not reached their places of destination, yet I will try again.

The news of the work of the News are well acquainted with me and know that I am here on a mission.
At first it fell to my lot to fill the place of a travelling elder in the Copenhagen Conference, which comprises the largest and several other of the Danish Isles. I enjoyed my calling, preaching and teaching during which time passed off very fast. My health was good and, as the winter was very mild, and both summers cool, I stood my travelling well.

At the Spring Conference I was released to return home with the August emigration, but, when the time came for the travelling elders to be released on account of ill health, I was then appointed to preside over the Aalborg Conference.
This comprises the northernmost part of Jutland. It is a region which has suffered much from the loss sheep of Israel even from the commencement of this mission, when President Snow sent Elder Dykes over here, who labored faithfully among the Baptists and laid a good foundation. Now it is just like gleaning. But as gleaned wheat makes just as good bread as any, so it is with gleaning here. I find the Saints here just as good as any I ever met with. They rejoice in the light of truth which they have received. They endeavor to live up to the requirements of the Gospel, and are anxious to get away from that evil world.

The country south of here, which belongs to another conference, was not visited much by our missionaries at first, consequently those who are there now have the pleasure and of baptizing more. The same might be said of the Norwegian conferences, where many are being baptized.

Our Fall conference came off on the 17th and 18th of this month, when we had President Larsen in our midst, pouring out the contents of his kind heart into the joy and edifying of the Saints. We had a lot of young brethren set apart as missionaries for the coming winter, and I would say that if the climate should be moderate so that I could stand to be about with them wherever there may be opportunities for holding meetings.

I have a first-rate help in brother Andrew Jenson from Pleasant Grove. A more willing and zealous and truly missionary soul could not be found. He is in sound condition, and has a good man to preside over him. As to myself, I believe I have come here because it was so to be. I think it will prove a blessing to me, and I am willing to stay as long as I shall be wanted to stay. It is surely gratifying to me to behold the labors of the Lord still going on with firm step and fair prospects, considering that I actually had the privilege of being the first one who left this part of the world in obedience to the gospel, and also the still greater privilege of coming back again to the holy priesthood, and to labor in the connection with him by virtue of his authority and the blessings of the Almighty did establish this great mission. I believe there are a great many yet to come out. I am inclined to the opinion that Odin and his people were Israelites and filled the country of Europe and Germany with the seed of Israel. Jesus God in the name of Jesus to bless the labor of his servants here and everywhere, amen.
