

MURDER OF GOV. STEUBENBERG

Officers Quite Certain They Have
One of Men Responsible for His Assassination.

M. J. HOGAN NAME OF SUSPECT

Ex-Sheriff of Shoshone Recognizes
Him as One of Those Held in the Coeur d'Alene Bull Pen.

Boise, Ida., Jan. 1.—The officers believe they have one of the men responsible for the assassination of ex-Gov. Steubenberg. He is one of those who have been under suspicion. This man registered at the Saratoga hotel three weeks ago as M. J. Hogan, giving Denver as his address. A year ago he stopped at the Pacific hotel, registering as Thomas Hogan.

A search of his room at the Saratoga hotel resulted in the finding of an oil overcoat and some other rough clothes, also some fish lines similar to the pieces found at the scene of the explosion supposed to be part of the string with which the trigger of the infernal machine was pulled. Further, in his grip was a lot of white powder believed to be a high explosive. There was also something that looked like brown wrapping paper, but it would not burn. The contents of the grip are in the hands of chemists.

It is stated that Angus Sutherland, former sheriff of Shoshone county, who is on the ground, has recognized this man as one who was in the famous "bull pen" after the Coeur d'Alene riot in 1899. This story has not yet been confirmed nor another that Matthews is his right name. The officers determined to bring the man to trial this evening as the jail at Caldwell is a very poor affair and affords no opportunity to keep suspects apart. After a conference, however, it was decided to keep him there, since it was feared the removal of him would be construed as evidence of fear of mob violence.

Hogan has been a rather mysterious character. He often went out, giving some explanation of his absence. At one time he went out to look at land, he said, but it was known that he was left town. The officers believe he was carefully laying the plans for the crime and expected to escape suspicion by remaining in his quarters in the hotel until a convenient opportunity should be presented to take his departure.

The funeral of ex-Gov. Steubenberg will occur tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. W. J. Boone, president of the College of Idaho, a Presbyterian school. W. E. Borah will deliver an address on the occasion.

MINERS WILL TAKE ACTION.
Denver, Colo., Jan. 1.—An inquiry into the assassination of former Gov. Steubenberg of Idaho will be conducted by the Western Federation of Miners, said President Charles H. Meyer of that organization today. "We will do this not only to prepare ourselves against any charges that may be brought against the federation, but in order to ascertain, if possible, whether or not a member of our organization committed the crime. The affair is to be lamented. No one is more sorry for the perpetrator than are the officers of the federation."

DETECTIVE AT CALDWELL.
Boise, Ida., Jan. 1.—Cup W. S. Swain, manager of Thiel's Detective Agency in Spokane, and Angus Sutherland, formerly sheriff of Shoshone county, arrived at Caldwell this evening. They did not see M. J. Hogan, the man believed to be guilty of the assassination of Gov. Steubenberg, but they examined his handwriting and expressed the belief it was that of a man who was in the Coeur d'Alene in 1899 and served in the bull pen. The name of the man has not been given yet, but there is a rumor that it is Matthews.

Hogan on the evening of the murder sat in the lobby of the Saratoga hotel and showed great indifference. Though everybody was excited about the crime he was as cool as a cucumber. At one time he called one of the men, one of the board of county commissioners, and asked the latter where a good band of wethers could be bought. Capt. Swain has been placed in charge of the work. The board of county commissioners, by a vote of 10 to 2, has authorized the purchase of wethers by the state chemist, but he has not yet arrived here.

Gov. Gooding today issued the following proclamation:

"In the death of the late ex-Gov. Steubenberg the state has met great loss, and that he paid the extreme penalty for standing for law and order in the state there is no question in my mind. I am asking the mayors of all Idaho cities that flag be half-masted on all public buildings and schools to-

BOTH FOOD AND MEDICINE.

We like best to call Scott's Emulsion a food-medicine. It is a term that aptly describes the character and action of our Emulsion. More than a medicine—more than a food, yet combining the vital principles of both. It is for this reason that Scott's Emulsion has a distinct and special value in all wasting diseases. There is nothing better to remedy the troubles of imperfect growth and delicate health in children. The action of Scott's Emulsion is just as effective in treating weakness and wasting in adults.

SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York.

tomorrow, the day of ex-Gov. Steubenberg's funeral. Your co-operation is sought and will be greatly appreciated. A. GOODING, Governor of Idaho.

The governor has also requested the treasury department to have flags placed at a half-mast on federal buildings at the time of the funeral. The governor today received the following from Gov. Mead of Washington:

"Please convey my deepest sympathy to the family of the late ex-Gov. Frank Steubenberg. His tragic death makes his memory imperishable as an executive having the courage of his whole duty at a critical time in the history of your great commonwealth."

MISS WILHELMINA BUSCH.

Her Father Says She Is Not Engaged
To Lieut. Scharrer.

St. Louis, Jan. 1.—The announcement last Friday following the frustrated elopement of Miss Wilhelmina Busch, daughter of Adolphus Busch and Lieut. Edward Scharrer, of Stuttgart, Germany, who is now at the home of her father, has been quickly refuted. The girl is not engaged, as was reported today, was not carried out. Instead, Miss Busch went to the Grant farm to spend some time. Her father has asserted that there is no engagement between his daughter and the lieutenant. An air of mystery seems to pervade the affair. Lieut. Scharrer, seen today at his hotel apartments, declined to discuss the matter.

Adolph Busch said he had nothing to make public as to his plans for his daughter, who is now at the home of her brother, Augustus A. Busch, on the Grant farm. All that the father would say was, "Lieut. Scharrer and I are still very good friends."

FIRST SKIRMISH IN KENTUCKY SENATORIAL FIGHT

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 1.—The first skirmish in the battle for United States Senate seats in Kentucky was won by the Payne forces in the caucus of the Democratic members of the house tonight. The opening tug of war was on the selection of a chairman of the caucus. The caucus was not called to order until shortly after 9 o'clock, over an hour of delay being occasioned by the tremendous press of people around the house chamber.

When Louis McQuown, chairman of the Democratic state central committee, finally brought the members to order and called for the election of a permanent chairman, Representative J. G. Cochrane, an adherent of Judge Thomas H. Payne, and an "administration" candidate, was elected by a vote of 41 to 33. The result of the vote indicated that the Payne forces would be able to organize the house, by electing the speaker and other officials, and the hopes of his supporters accordingly rose higher at the prospect of the great advantages to be realized from control of the house when the balloting for United States senator was taken up. On the other hand the Blackburn-Haldeman forces pointed out that Payne's success was indicated by the vote of caucus chairman was insufficient to elect him as senator and that furthermore several members who voted for Cochrane for speaker would not vote for Payne for senator.

There was a considerable delay before the caucus took up the question of nominating a speaker of the house.

The vote for speaker of the house demonstrated that the Payne forces were in the ascendancy. H. R. Lawrence, the Payne candidate, received 20 votes, the vote for R. W. Miller, who received the combined vote of the Blackburn-Haldeman forces, amounting to 30. The caucus then proceeded to choose the minor officials of the house. The program agreed on beforehand only called for the nomination of house officers, the first caucus ballot on the senatorial race coming tomorrow night, when senate and house will meet in joint caucus. Meanwhile the legislature will meet in regular session tomorrow noon, but beyond preliminary organization no business will be transacted by either branch. The Kentucky legislature consists of 98 representatives and 38 senators. Of the total of 136 votes in the two branches the Democrats control 105, thus making 53 votes necessary to nominate a senator in joint caucus.

SHAW'S NEW COMEDY.

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 1.—George Bernard Shaw's comedy, "Cashel Byron's Profession," was given its first presentation on any stage at the Hyperion theater this afternoon. Miss Margaret Wicherly who played the role of Lydia Carey, was supported by a strong company, and considerable incidental interest was attached to the appearance of James J. Corbett in the part of Cashel Byron, the gentleman pugilist. At the evening performance which was a formal one, the matinee being practically a rehearsal, the audience enthusiastically received this latest offering of Shaw's comedy to be translated on the stage.

MRS. MUNCKTON ACQUITTED.

Bullston, N. Y., Jan. 1.—Mrs. Hattie Munckton, who had been on trial for four days on the charge of murdering her husband by shooting him with a shotgun was acquitted at 5 o'clock this morning.

The woman was almost overcome, but she shook each juror by the hand and thanked him. The jurors deliberated for ten hours and came into court three times before they agreed. They asked for the exhibits and were given the shotgun, the shell, photographs, the blanket from Munckton's bed and the shot taken from his body. At midnight it was announced that Juror Thomas was seriously ill, but later he recovered.

Mrs. Munckton left at once for the home of relatives in Schenectady. She was in jail three months and a half.

NEGRO SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Houston, Tex., Jan. 1.—The jury in the case of Marcellus Thomas, colored, returned a verdict of murder in the first degree and passed a sentence of death. Thomas was charged with ambushing and assassinating P. F. Shropshire and James Elam, prominent citizens of Montgomery county, conviction was had in the Blair case. The case will be appealed to the state court, and possibly to the federal supreme court on the ground of discrimination because of color.

A RUSSIAN GIRL'S MANY EXPERIENCES

Cecelia Antonia Banished from Warsaw for Inciting to Revolution.

RAN AWAY FROM SCHOOL.

Came to United States With Plenty of Money—Attempted Suicide—Will Probably Be Deported.

New York, Jan. 1.—A daughter of a former prefect of police in Warsaw, Russian Poland, from which city she was banished by order of her father's successor, for inciting revolution in the private school where she was being educated, a runaway from the school at Berlin where she was sent by her mother, and finally a would-be suicide in New York, 17-year-old Cecelia Antonia today was sent to a home for wayward girls.

The young woman told her story in the police court today, and at the same time exhibited a roll of bills containing more than $400, the remainder of a remittance sent to her by her mother before she left Berlin, and a large quantity of jewelry apparently of great value. She had been arrested after drinking kaudaman and turning on the gas in her apartments in a downtown hotel.

She told a police magistrate that the desire to kill herself was a sudden and irresistible impulse. She sent out for a vial of kaudaman, for an imaginary toothache, drank the poison and turned on the gas. A maid detected the odor of the escaping gas in the halls and called an attendant, who broke down the door to the room.

When Mrs. Antonia was arraigned in police court today, charged with attempted suicide, she said her father was for many years the chief or first of police of Warsaw. He died eight months ago, leaving a fortune in money and 11 children. Several months ago, according to her story, she was attending a private school in Warsaw when the new prefect of police, her father's successor, warned her mother that the school was a hotbed of revolutionary ideas and placed the blame for the agitation on Cecelia.

She said her mother took her from the school and sent her to one in Berlin. This school did not suit the girl and she ran away to Paris. After a two days' stay in Paris she decided to visit the United States. She had written her mother of her proposed visit to this country, and received $700 to cover her expenses. Most of the jewels she had, she explained, were heirlooms. One of these she showed to the court and said it had been in the family almost 800 years. She probably will be deported.

NEVER TO LATE TO LOVE.

Man and Woman, Aged Respectively
78 and 72, Announce Engagement.

Worcester, Mass., Jan. 2.—Martin Green, brother of the late Andrew H. Green, "Father of Greater New York," surprised his friends yesterday by announcing his engagement to Mrs. Joseph Sampson of Wareham, formerly of Denver and Chicago. Mr. Green is 78 years of age and the bride-elect is 72. The marriage will not take place for some time.

Forty-five years ago the Sampsons and the Greens occupied the same house in Chicago and became intimate. In the big fire of 1871, the warehouses of Sampson were destroyed and he and his family removed to Denver. He retrieved his lost fortune, but soon after died. Mr. Green's first wife died a few months ago.

APPOINTMENTS APPLAUDED.

New York, Jan. 2.—The Pennsylvania Democratic leaders applaud the appointments of Mayor McClellan of New York, says a Pittsburgh dispatch published here today. It is said that Col. J. M. Guffey, member of the Democratic national committee, has advised his friends that the actions of Mayor McClellan has put him in line for the Democratic candidacy for president in 1908.

Atty. William J. Brennan, chairman of the Allegheny county Democratic committee and who is very close to Col. Guffey, said:

"Mayor McClellan's break from Tammany Hall will have the effect of rejuvenating the Democratic party of the whole country. He has given us hopes such as we did not dream of a few months ago. It will make it possible for a Democratic candidate for president to put up a very strong fight, and we believe we will win. It has also made Mayor McClellan a presidential possibility."
