SUSTAINED THE VETO

The Order of Police Captain Re-elected in the Vote.

OFFICERS GOEN AFTER 'MAY'

A lively scene in the Council Chamber—Mr. Will Far Up in Cash.

At last night's meeting of the City Council the Mayor's veto of the ordinance establishing the police captain was sustained by a vote of 9 to 3.

MEMBERS AND THE ATTORNEY

When the veto message had been read O'Meara arose and asked Assistant City Attorney Hempstead to explain the section in the law and police law stating that the office of police captain should be abolished.

The liquor and excise officers are cut at the Keeley Institute, 108 W. Second Street. A suggestion has been made by which liquor receive treatment, as outlined in the privacy of their own homes.
