

THE TREND OF THE TEENS.

Able Lecture Delivered by Prof. M. E. O'Shea.

BEFORE STATE TEACHERS.

The Period of Adolescence the Most Critical in the Life of Man or Woman.

Last evening's session of the convention was attended by an audience that filled the lower floor and occupied nearly all the space in the gallery. The feature was the lecture by Prof. O'Shea on "The Trend of the Teens." It was listened to with close attention and the sentiments of the speaker were frequently applauded. For over two hours he stood and poured his ideas into the ears of his auditors in a continuous stream, and when he sat down there was a general murmur of approval and admiration. Prof. O'Shea is unquestionably the most popular lecturer and one of the ablest that the association has had here.

In opening his subject last night he began by referring to the tributes that are paid to youth, that have been sung by the poets and written by the philosophers. It was in that period that life is at its highest tide. Adolescence was often called the renewing of life; however that may be, it was the most critical epoch in the career of a man or woman. With fine skill the lecturer defined the emotions, habits and tendencies of youth and explained the changes through which the boy passes while in his teens. It is not only a physical change, but it is a metamorphosis in every respect. The traits and habits of the growing boy were taken up and these were conspicuously manifested in the impulse to knock everything over. The growing boy was declared to be a rebel and a radical, and a peevish in the home. If he has two sisters, and they are what would be particularly known as "cranks," he takes particular delight in letting down their hair, sticking pins in them, and other tormenting things. He doesn't mean to hurt them; would probably feel bad if he thought he had, but the kind of response they make is just what pleases him most. This, said the lecturer, is the outlet of the restless energy and if the boy were given something to do that he liked, it would let off that energy and would do away with the tease and the bully. Athletic sports, therefore, were most useful. Dancing was denounced as a pastime for boys and girls. They were already in an excited state, and all their strength is needed for growth, and it is their social functions that often break down girls and compel them to leave school.

Professor O'Shea declared that during the period of adolescence the boy and girl are most susceptible to religious influences. One of the greatest evils of the day is the neglect of religious training for the boy and girl. The emotion of love was expatiated upon beautifully. This was the one emotion that overshadows all others. It lies at the very bottom of the soul and when it is crossed it arouses all the evil there is in human nature. When the boy and the girl are attacked with this emotion they should not be made fun of nor ridiculed, but the teacher should get them into his confidence and have them confess their love. This would make it real and nothing would come of it. Nothing more disastrous could happen to a boy or girl than the consummation of their love early in life. It would narrow their vision and it would individualize and abridge their lives to a pitiable degree. Boys, by all means, should be kept out of saloons and billiard halls. If they must play billiards the means should be provided for them in the church.

The other features of the program were two selections by the Whitney quartet, composed of Messrs. Whitney, Peper, Patrick, and Spence, and a chorus from the Webster school.

SCHOOL ARCHITECTURE.
The remaining portion of the program yesterday afternoon consisted of a paper on "School Architecture," by Principal Samuel Doxey. It was an able composition and exhibited the fact that its author had given much careful thought to the subject. He spoke of the evolution in school architecture, and the important work done by the school people in bringing about these changes. Mr. Doxey laid down in detail the plans and specifications of what he would regard as a model school building. His ideas were applauded by the teachers, who acknowledge him to be one of the highest authorities in the state on the subject of school buildings. Superintendent M. A. Merrill of Logan followed with an able discussion of the paper.

During the session a chorus of children from the Washington school and also one from the Sumner rendered two very sweet songs.

A telegram was received from the Colorado Teachers' association, now in session reading grades and the compliments of the session. On motion of President Paul the message was acknowledged, and an answer in kind was returned.

GERMAN CLASS TO BEGIN.

Study of That Language Becoming Popular in Salt Lake.

The study of the German language is becoming very popular in Salt Lake. There seems to be a strong desire among the young people especially to be able to speak and read German. As a result of this increasing interest in the subject a special evening class in German is to be organized at the Latter-day Saints University. Instructor Le Roy Snow who has the day classes in German and French, will also have charge of this special evening class, which will be open to every one who desires to take the work. It will be a three months' course and the class will meet two evenings each week. Each session of the class will be for two hours, and during the course the following features will be studied: pronunciation, reading, conversation, translation, and correspondence. Mr. Snow does not expect to make proficient Germans of his students in three months, but he does claim that those who take the course will have a thorough foundation in German and will be far enough advanced to take an interest in private reading and study of the language afterwards.

The entrance fee to the University is $10, and no more than this will be charged non-members of the institution for the entire course.

It is understood the class will be organized in the University (the Lion House) next Friday evening, January 3, at 7:30 o'clock.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Fidgety

people are lacking in nervous strength. The weak, care-worn, melancholy, headachy, and low-spirited men and women are easily excited, impatient, fidgety, and unable to sleep at night. Worn-out nerves must be built up, and the vitality of the whole system replenished before relief can come.

"The least bit of noise or sudden jar would nearly drive me crazy, and I was just too fidgety for anything. I was so nervous I could not rest or sleep. The first dose of Dr. Miles' Nervine brought me sleep, and after that I got well fast."

Mrs. A. R. MORRELL, Arcola, Ill.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

builds up the nerves, strengthens the brain, and fortifies and refreshes the whole system.

Sold by druggists on guarantee. Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Hammill, St. Clair, Gay, Rob Young, Hoge, Sinclair, Goodwin, Sharp, Williams, Sanders, Callahan, Myers, Olson, Colbath, Chamberlain, Smith, Radcliffe, Thomas, Schermer, Harold Eldredge and others.

Mrs. Julia Taylor and Miss Lucile Taylor who have been spending the past three months in New York, have returned.

Yesterday was the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. Joseph McLean and the occasion was celebrated last night in a delightful gathering at their home on Blaine avenue. Short addresses were made by Rev. R. G. McNeice, Rev. S. E. Wishard and the host, and the evening was most enjoyably spent by all present.

Col. and Mrs. E. F. Holmes gave a dinner party last night, and afterward entertained their guests at supper at Beardsleys, the table being laid for twenty. The decorations were most effective, consisting of a centerpiece of flowers in star shape upon which were spread smilax and red carnations, and candelabra with red candles and shades, with sprays of red carnations alternating completed the artistic effect.

Mrs. E. E. Shepherd, Miss Shepherd and Miss Gaby will receive on New Year's day.

Mrs. McClure will receive on New Year's day at the residence of Judge J. A. Miner, 173 east Brigham street, from 3 until 6 p. m. No invitations have been issued. Assisting in receiving will be Mrs. Hober, M. Wells, Mrs. V. M. Clement, Mrs. J. R. Walker, Mrs. E. S. Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thatcher, of Logan, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney.

Miss Sylvia Cohn will leave for New York directly after the New Year, where she will spend the remainder of the winter.

The music section of the Ladies' Literary club will hold its regular meeting Thursday morning, January 2, at 10 o'clock at the club house. The composer for the day is Tachakowsky. The program will be given by Mrs. Richmond, and current items by Mrs. Hoppaugh. Vocal and instrumental numbers will be given by Mrs. A. Lewis, Mrs. Penbody, Mrs. Snow, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Nelson. Club members are cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spencer will entertain at dinner tonight in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thatcher of Logan. Covers will be laid for eleven and the holiday red and green will prevail in the decorations. The invited guests are Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney, Mr. Spencer Clawson, Mr. and Mrs. Fulton S. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burton.

Mrs. Bartling left for Los Angeles yesterday.

Mrs. H. M. Clay and Mrs. Finnbrooks leave today for the east.

BATTERY AT WEST JORDAN.

William Bennett and Roy Hobbs of West Jordan were yesterday arrested for battering Wilford Yorgason and James Dalt. Complaints were sworn to against them by Justice J. J. Williams.

FEDERATED LABOR.

Officers Elected Last Night—Lie Passed and Censorship Committees Named.

The Utah Federation of Labor elected and installed these officers last night: President, Thomas Watkins, Brotherhood of Carpenters; vice president, Charles Larch, Brewers' union; recording and corresponding secretary, J. T. Myers, Painters' union; financial secretary, Adolph Rodgers, Teamsters' union; treasurer, William Pickering, Amalgamated Carpenters; sergeant-at-arms, P. Christensen, Beer Drivers; trustees for nine months, A. C. Strickland, of the Brotherhood of Carpenters; for three months, J. G. Wilkes, of the Amalgamated Carpenters; J. N. Spaulding, of the Brotherhood of Carpenters; J. G. Wilkes, of the Amalgamated Carpenters, and P. Christensen, of the Beer Drivers' union, were chosen as the organization committee. The election of the legislative and arbitration committees were delayed because of the absence of the representatives of some of the unions. An amendment to the charter carried to the effect that five members instead of one be appointed from each union on committee when any business of the Federation is to be transacted.

Editor A. B. Editor, of the Labor Journal, the official organ of the Federation, was asked why he refused to abide by the decision of the censor committees with reference to so-called "scaly" advertisements and articles which have appeared in the columns. A tropical argument took place, in which "the lie was passed," and it was openly charged against the management of the paper that direct efforts were made for its political support during the recent campaign. The argument was finally closed by the election of a censor committee which has the guidance of the paper in its hands. The committee is as follows: J. G. Watkins, Charles Larch and William Dangerfield.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

Funeral services over the remains of Hannah Ransom Langton, wife of William Langton, will be held in the sixteenth ward meeting house, Sunday, December 29, 1901, at 12 o'clock. Friends wishing to view the body can do so Sunday from 9 till 11 a. m. at the residence, 300 Alma avenue, Langton park. Friends invited.

WHAT THE PUBLIC PRESS HAS TO SAY OF THE CHRISTMAS NEWS.

Intermountain Catholic: The Christmas edition of the Deseret News is the handsomest specimen of newspaper art ever issued from a press in this city. Indeed, no Christmas paper coming under our observation, east or west, can hold a candle with the Christmas Deseret News.

Progress-Review: The Christmas edition of the Deseret News last Saturday was a wonderful paper of 34 pages. The description of various industries, colleges, and the graphic pictures of scenery described our state most beautifully. Thousands were sold within the state and numerous copies sent east. It was a great issue, and a credit to the able management of the "News."

Toole Transcript: The Deseret News in its last Christmas issue fairly outdone its former work in that line, and that is really saying a great deal more than such an expression generally implies. A paper that will publish an edition of 34 pages the size of the "News" is performing a feat that is nothing short of the marvelous, even with all the advanced modern newspaper improvements. Of course it is the modern machinery improvement in the newspaper line that makes such an event possible, but all the machinery in the world would never accomplish such a feat without a preponderant amount of the necessary pluck and brains. As it takes generalship to win battles, so it takes generalship to print an extra edition of a newspaper ten times its usual volume, every subject of which is interesting to the general reader.

Payson Globe Header: The Christmas edition of the Deseret Evening

News is without doubt among the finest editions of its class ever gotten out in the state. It gives a thorough report of the condition of our state from its earliest settlement to the present day. In the most interesting manner, and many exceptionally fine half-tones cuts illustrate the subjects treated throughout its pages. Truly it is a mammoth number in every sense.

Lehi Banner: The Deseret News got out a fine Utah-Colorado Christmas edition, which was sent out last Saturday. It is an excellent paper and is full of useful information.

Sampete Free Press: The Deseret News Christmas number of Saturday evening, was a monster edition of eighty-four pages. It was a work of highest art, history and general information, and was admired by all who saw it in these parts. The "News" surely made a ten-strike.

Logan Nation: The Deseret News' Christmas issue appeared last Saturday, and is one of the handsomest papers ever printed in the West. It comprises 34 pages, filled with descriptive matter relating to the progress of Utah and Colorado. Manager Whitney, Editor Penrose and their aids are to be warmly congratulated on the splendid character of their Christmas number.

Evening Capital News (Boise): One of the very finest Christmas editions of the whole country was that issued by the Evening Deseret News of Salt Lake City. It was a beautiful specimen of typography and mechanical work, and its contents were devoted to a splendid write-up of Utah and Colorado.

MARCONI'S SYSTEM.

It is Already Being Adapted to Commercial Needs.

New York, Dec. 28.—The wireless telegraph system of Mr. Marconi has passed out of the experimental stage, and is already being adapted to commercial needs, cables the London correspondent of the Herald.

Arrangements have been entered into between the Marconi company and the London & Brighton Railway company to have an installation of the latest character between New Haven, and Dieppe. The departure of boats will be signaled, with instructions as to the amount of luggage, number of passengers and other useful information. It will no longer be necessary for the friends of the passengers to wait hours at the wharf when fog has delayed the boats starting.

Marconi Goes to Canada.

New York, Dec. 28.—Mr. Marconi, who has been visiting Louisville, will leave for Ottawa, Canada, today, according to a dispatch from Sydney, C. B., to the Herald. Accompanied by Mr. Murray, premier of Nova Scotia, and several other officials, he has been visiting Louisville inspecting ship sites as will probably answer for wireless telegraph stations. Point Percy appears to be the best place for a permanent station on Cape Breton.

Property Changes Hands.

New York, Dec. 28.—The famous old Changewater property at Washington, N. J., has passed into the hands of A. L. Doherty & Co., of New York, who are spinners, who will convert the buildings into woolen spinning factories. For years at Changewater the Bowers Shuff mills employed hundreds of men and women. A change of ownership resulted in the closing of the mills. Skerry & Co., today will begin reconstruction and within six weeks at least 500 hands will be put to work.

English Coasting Trade Improves.

New York, Dec. 28.—There has been an improvement in the coasting trade, but the foreign shipments will show a large reduction and the prospects for 1902 are not of a rosy character, says a dispatch to the Tribune from London.

To Break a Rich Man's Will.

New York, Dec. 28.—Moore & Cantwell, the attorneys who secured Dr. Kennedy's acquittal of his trial for the murder of Dolly Reynolds, are trying to break the will of a wealthy Pittsburg man in the interest of Kennedy's mother, who claims the estate on the ground that she is the next of kin. Moore & Cantwell are a Chicago firm. A change of ownership resulted in the closing of the mills. Skerry & Co., today will begin reconstruction and within six weeks at least 500 hands will be put to work.

C. E. Power Dead.

New York, Dec. 28.—Chas. E. Power, business manager of Mrs. Fiske, an actress, is dead at St. Mary's hospital, Brooklyn, of apoplexy. Mr. Power had been associated with Mrs. Fiske as business manager since 1895. He previously had been associated as manager with Mr. Nat C. Goodwin and Mr. Jos. Brooks' enterprises.

Girl Drinks Carbolic Acid.

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 27.—Daisy Lofton, aged 15 years, went into Russell's drug store tonight and asked to use the telephone. She took the receiver in one hand and a bottle of carbolic acid in the other. She swallowed the contents of the bottle and died before she was taken to the hospital. She is expected to live. Unrequited love was the cause.

G. H. Emerick Dead.

New York, Dec. 28.—Geo. H. Emerick, the writer of many Irish vaudeville sketches, is dead at the New York hospital as a result of injuries sustained on Thursday, when he fell from a Broadway car. Emerick wrote "Finnegan's Ball," "Shooting the Chutes," "McSorley's Twins," and many other sketches.

Searching for Miss Stone.

New York, Dec. 28.—According to the Salomea correspondent of the American lectionary tonight and asked to use the telephone. She took the receiver in one hand and a bottle of carbolic acid in the other. She swallowed the contents of the bottle and died before she was taken to the hospital. She is expected to live. Unrequited love was the cause.

New Steamers for Japan.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 28.—Capt. S. Tomioka, superintendent engineer of the Tokyo Kaisha Kaisha, has arrived here from Yokohama on his way to Europe to arrange for the construction of two new steamships for his company to be added to the line now connecting Japan with the Orient. The new ships will each be 510 feet in length between perpendiculars, 545 feet over all, with a breadth of 61 feet, with a gross tonnage of 11,500, cargo capacity, or a net tonnage of 8,500 tons and a horse power exceeding 15,000. They will be required to make at least 19 knots.

New York Postoffice Receipts.

New York, Dec. 28.—The receipts from stamps, paid in and envelopes at the New York postoffice have more than quadrupled in less than thirty years.

PROMINENT PHYSICIANS USE AND ENDORSE PE-RU-NA.

C. B. Chamberlin, M. D., writes from 14th and P. Sts., Washington, D. C.: "Many cases have come under my observation, where Peruna has benefited and cured. Therefore, I cheerfully recommend it for catarrh and a general tonic."—C. B. CHAMBERLIN, M. D.

Medical Examiner U. S. Treasury. Dr. Llewellyn Jordan, Medical Examiner of U. S. Treasury Department, graduate of Columbia College, and who served three years at West Point, has the following to say of Peruna:

"Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the benefit derived from your wonderful remedy. One month has brought forth a vast change and I now consider myself a well man after months of suffering. Fellow sufferers, Peruna will cure you."

DR. LLEWELLYN JORDAN, Geo. C. Hayener, M. D., of Anacostia, D. C., writes:

"The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O. Gentlemen—In my practice I have had occasion to frequently prescribe your valuable medicine, and have found it to be beneficial, especially in cases of catarrh."

GEORGE C. HAYENER, M. D., Dr. L. S. Smith, of Williams, Fla., writes:

"I have found Peruna a most valuable remedy for chronic catarrh of the head, throat, lungs and bronchial tubes, in fact, no matter where located."

Seamen Assault Seaman. New York, Dec. 28.—Harry Hagen and Jack Tighe, seamen on the Danish bark Ebba, Capt. Poulsen, now docked at South Brooklyn, are locked up in the Raymond street jail charged with having assaulted Olaf Nielsen, another seaman, with the intent to kill him. Nielsen is at death's door in the Norwegian hospital in Brooklyn. On a trip from Montevideo, Hagen confessed to Carl Nielsen that he and another man had in Montevideo killed, with a sword, a policeman, and thrown the body into the river Platte.

"The policeman had ordered us off the street," said Hagen. "My partner was caught, but I escaped."

Had feeling soured and about midnight of Christmas eve when Tighe sat in the forecastle writing a letter, Olaf Nielsen, who was on duty as watchman, turned over an envelope. Tighe took offense, and struck Nielsen who is only 16, but was beaten off. Tighe then went to the German four masted ship Anna at the next pier south, and brought back Hagen and three of the Anna's sailors, and attacked Nielsen. Tighe had his sheath knife and Hagen had a capstan bar and a stung shot. Nielsen was stabbed in the left arm and under the left shoulder blade, his scalp was cut from his forehead to the back of his neck, his skull was fractured, and he was beaten in the face and on the shoulders, breast and ribs. Hagen gave the police an exciting chase before he was captured. He jumped into the water of the harbor, swam a long distance and was caught just as he was climbing up a spile at a pier.
