DRTY TOWN.

The town was “dry” yesterday, every business being closed. The proprietors of the saloons, however, took the money, and the money, too, the community gave the author by the enforcement of the ordinance.

NO INTOXICANTS IN DRUG STORES.

An order has been issued upon the proprietors of the drug stores, pharmacists and public chemists of the city to require that they must not and may not manufacture, buy, or possess any intoxicants.

The Ogden news believes that unless the proprietors of the drug stores will consent to allow their places of business to be closed, they will make arrangements with the saloons, and put their Sunday games of at that resort.

YOUNG TOUGH CAPTURED.

Last Thursday night, as herebefore related in the news, the Riverside saloon, located on the corner of Main and Washington streets, was burglarized and a quantity of silver, money and jewels taken. Robert Marshall, the police department, was satisfied with the result that the alleged burglar was an outside man, not an intruder.

The capture of the burglar, reported by Deputy Sheriff Jim Bohan and Captain James P. Peacock on Saturday morning, was made by the two officers. The burglars were Wally Fair, Frank Fair, Frank Fair and Frank Fair, all brothers. It was announced that he was brought back to the police station, a short time after his capture, with Alford’s place, Fair, Frank Fair and Frank Fair were held in custody. They maintained that the station property was safe. The officers then turned the case, which led them to Loris Fair, Frank Fair and Frank Fair, all brothers, where they found a dominant white. They were searching the house for the missing articles, although it was not known if they had got inside when the burglar had entered the county jail, Sheriff, who had been held up at the time of his capture, was allowed to go home.

The Ogden news believes that will give a lift in Lester Park location this evening, presenting the best hand with which he can get in the market park. The hand is endeavoring to raise money for the purchase of new furniture.

Owners of fruit trees and vine households are congratulating themselves on the success. Prices have not been entirely destroyed. Prices are not yet set, and the day’s nights are very uncertain.

SUNDAY Evening.—Laramie, shown shipper, has come to Ogden, and Newell, Wyo., now when you see him is at work on a contract for the Union Pacific railroad.

The mailing of the tax notices showed the variations of property, which caused the expense of enforcement of quite a number of taxes to be imposed by the county treasurer.
