THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS.

THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST.

Is issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

President Allison, of the state senate, was engaged in trying an important case in court at Provo today, and was therefore absent from the session.

Warden Dow continues to improve, and on gaining sufficient strength to stand the journey, will take a trip to southern California to recuperate.

Dr. E. F. Root left for Creede, Neb., last evening in haste, having received word in the afternoon that his father was dead. The elder Root visited Salt Lake last year and made many warm friends while he was here, and his death was a great loss to his family.

Twelve Christian Endeavorers from town attended the Prisoner of War service yesterday morning. Miss Shepard having charge of the meeting. One of the prisoners, who had been discharged, testified strongly as to the good the society had done him, and that he proposed to live a straightforward life after being released.

The 400 or so telegraph operators in the employ of the Western Union have signed a petition asking for an increase of 20 per cent in their salaries. The men work from eight to 10 hours every day, but they claim that the work is the most taxing on the nerves and brain of any in the world. There are four operators employed in the Salt Lake branch, and they receive from $27 to $31 a week.

William Griffiths, an old resident of this city, met with a peculiar accident on Saturday. The gentleman removed a piece of rock from the stove and the cold air striking it the rock burst, scattering its fragments in all directions, and sending a piece into Mr. Griffiths' eye. The wound is a very painful one and for a time it was feared that it had permanently damaged the eye. However, later it was thought by the attending physician that such a calamity would be avoided.

Roy Sheets, a member of the Sheets livery stable firm at 152 West First south, was injured by a horse on Saturday night last and bruised quite severely. He had two other young men in the vehicle with him and they were indulging in speeding their horse. On passing the intersection at First West and First North streets, the wheels of the buggy caught in the car track and the rig was overturned and the occupants pitched into the street. Sheets received the severest injuries, but he was not seriously hurt.

The Munn residence at 3724 South State street was entered by burglars last evening and ransacked from top to bottom. The thieves evidently determined to get into the place even if they had to take long chances. Having failed to gain an entrance by prying open windows and cutting down the door, they climbed over a small transom and then managed to open a door. A quantity of valuable silverware and a number of gold rings and other jewelry were stolen. The matter was at once reported to the sheriff, who immediately began an investigation of the case.

Mr. Frank A. Burselle has just delivered to the Postal Telegraph Co., the 2nd album containing the published obituaries of the late John W. Mackay. The labor of gathering and placing in album form was begun last July. There are 1,536 pages of Irish linen leaves 10x12 inches. This is the largest collection of material ever gathered concerning the death of a private individual. The kindly expression of the press of the country was unanimous. Four sets of books were ordered by the postal company one set being destined for Mr. Mackay, the second to Mr. Clarence Mackay, one to the Postal Telegraph company and one to the Commercial Cable company.

The Press club yesterday at its annual meeting elected officers for the ensuing year. The reports that were submitted showed the club to be in a flourishing condition in every sense of the word. A vote of thanks was accorded to each of the outgoing officers. A. G. McKenzie was elected president for the ensuing year, succeeding William Igleheart. J. T. Goodwin, first vice president, W. T. Vines, second vice president, C. C. Chapman, secretary, George E. Carpenter, treasurer, and A. C. Reese, Russell Lowry, W. F.
