Let the People Speak.

MANHATTAN, Kansas, April 8, 1873.

R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.:

DEAR SIR.—Your Favorite Prescription has done my wife a world of good. She has taken nearly two bottles and has felt better the past two weeks than at any time in the past two years. No more periodical pains; none of that aching back or dragging sensation in her stomach she has been accustomed to for several years. I have so much confidence in it that I would be perfectly willing to warrant to certain customers of ours who would be glad to get hold of relief at any expense. I have tried many Patent Medicines, but never had any occasion to extol one before.

Very truly yours,

GEO. B. WHITING.

Mrs. E. R. Daly, Metropolis, Ill., writes January 9th, 1873:

"DR. R. V. PIERCE.—My sister is using the Favorite Prescription with great benefit."

Mary Ann Frisbie, Lehman, Pa., writes May 29, 1872:

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 38 degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p. m. to-day. Dull.

Message at Western Union Office for D. B. Whedon.

No Paper.—To enable all hands at this office to celebrate the first day of the new year, the DESERET EVENING NEWS will not be issued till Friday.

Fire Brigade Balls.—The first of these balls comes off to-night, at the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms. The second takes place to-morrow night, at the same place.

Suspected.—A young man was arrested this morning on suspicion of having stolen $40 from a partner of his. As it is not certain that the suspicions are well founded, we withold names for the present.

Training.—We understand Prof. Leotard is putting himself through a course of exercises and training, with a view to strengthening his wrists and preparing to give a performance in this city. He still suffers considerably from the effects of his accident, although he is able to be around.

Icy.—In many parts of the City the water ditches have overflowed and in numerous places the streets are sheeted over with ice, making pedestrianism disagreeable and dangerous. We believe that an ordinance requires that the people under the direction of the Ward watermasters, shall keep the ditches in good order.

Only One Printer.—The Beaver Enterprise of Dec. 29 says that only one printer from the Enterprise office was among the crowd of spreeing sparks from Beaver, who annoyed the emigrant company at Indian creek, Nov. 29, and that the crowd merely indulged in boisterous laughter and comic singing.

Excellent Flour.—Mr. Charles Wilcken is running the B. Y. Lower Mill, where he is manufacturing a splendid article of flour. It is white and clear in appearance, and contains largely of the nutritive or best constituents of the wheat. Bread made from it is sweet, light, and yet substantial. It is for sale at the Z. C. M. I. produce department. We understand the mill has undergone recent improvements.

Theatre.—The "Rough Diamond" was presented last night, instead of the "Day After the Wedding," owing to the indisposition of Miss Cogswell, and well played by Miss Walters, Messrs. Crosbie and Sawtelle and others. The burlesque of the "Nymph of the Lurleyberg" followed, in the usual excellent style, and affording the usual large satisfaction to the audience.

This evening the "Quiet Family," with Mr. Crosbie as "Barnaby Rudge," to be followed by the "Nymph of the Lurleyberg."

To-morrow, New Year's Day, a grand "Nymph of the Lurleyberg" matinee, also the "Nymph" in the evening, preceded by a favorite petite play.

New Year's Day.—By to-morrow the year 1873 will have died out, and its successor will have come into existence. As a general thing, in looking back upon the local circumstances and scenes that have transpired in the now expiring year, the people of Utah can scarcely have other than pleasing reflections. They have been blessed with an abundance of the substantialities of life at least, and, notwithstanding the wishes and efforts of their enemies they have enjoyed the inestimable blessing of peace, of which they are still in possession. No people have more reason to be grateful to the giver of all good for his blessings than the Latter-day Saints. They enter upon the year 1874 with bright prospects before them; knowing as they do that all things will work together for their good if they will seek to keep the commandments of God.

We take pleasure in wishing our readers and patrons specially and everybody in general "a happy new year."

An Item.—A local reporter was out upon the street to-day, in search of items. While conversing with three or four gentlemen, near the Eagle Emporium corner, his companions made sudden and active movements away from him. Somebody said "Look out," and on turning around he faced a black charger, galloping directly towards him. The horse was only a yard or two off, and the agility displayed by that reporter was something to admire, if not to astonish. The horse just brushed him as he passed. Some might be inclined to blame that reporter at his readiness in spoiling what might have been a first-class sensation item, had he remained another second in the position in which he was standing. He had several reasons, however, for getting out of the way, the first being that if he had allowed himself to be run over he might not have been able to write the item up himself. It is probable also that he has not reached that point of newspaper enthusiasm which would cause him to sacrifice himself on the altar of the public taste for sensation items, and he may possibly feel like Artemus Ward, who was willing that the blood of all his distant relations should be shed in the cause of his country.

The horse belonged to the California Bakery, First South Street, and had run away with a light wagon from which, through the harness snapping, it broke loose, galloped up East Temple Street, turned the Emporium corner and made directly for the stable, at the rear of the bakery.

The Wills of Mrs. Ben Holladay.—New York, Dec. 27th. The will of Mrs. Ben. Holladay, made last August, and successfully contested in favor of the will of 1871, was very intricate and eccentric in many of its conditions and provisions for contingencies. It gave her property chiefly to her son, Ben. Holladay, Jr., and not say to her surviving daughter, Cassandra, but generally among her friends, as Polly, wife of Baron Rostorg, of France. The will of 1871 gave everything to the testatrix' husband from whom, in fact, she had separated. The secret will, after to recognize the husband at all, and bore abundant evidence sustaining the testimony of her physician that Mrs. Holladay's mind was unsound from excessive grief caused by the sudden death of her oldest daughter, the Countess Pourtales, a few weeks previous. While Ben. Holladay, Jr., was the prominent nominally of the will in his own favor, it was well understood that he preferred that the will in favor of his father should stand. The estate in Westchester is very elegant and valuable.—Sacramento Union.

Museum.—We paid a brief visit to the Museum this morning, and were shown some curiosities of much interest; among others a fine tortoise-shell from South America and a fossil shell from Lincolnshire, England, in which metallic silver had been deposited. The manager speaks in warm terms of the liberality of the donor, Mr. Robert Marshall, one of our Ward school-masters, many things of great value having been presented by him from time to time.

Professor Barfoot is sending specimens of Utah minerals to Germany.

More Shooting at Bingham.—Bingham still sustains its reputation for scenes of blood, as will be seen by the following dispatch.

BINGHAM, 31st, 1873.

"A shooting affair occurred here at 11.45 this morning, between L. D. Clay and Charley Barnum. Barnum and Clay had a dispute last night, which was the cause of shooting. Barnum was shot twice. One ball entered his side, struck a rib, glanced off, and came out. The other ball passed through his arm. Two balls passed through Clay's clothes, but did not hurt him. Clay gave himself up to the authorities.

Mount Pleasant.—Bro. C. H. Wheelock called on us to-day. He is on the way to make a visit in Weber county. He states that a theological school, with Edward Cliff president, and two assistants, has been organized at Mount Pleasant. Money there is scarce, but everybody is feeling well, as well as others anywhere he has travelled. They have plenty of good eatables. At one meeting the people donated 5,200 bushels of grain towards extending the Utah Southern Railroad southward. They have also contributed largely for the St. George Temple, and sent their quota of hands—25—with the wherewith to sustain them while working on the building; 100 in all having gone from San Pete county. Prest. O. Hyde, although suffering considerably from sickness in the fall, is in pretty good health and spirits.

City Council.—In the City Council last evening the petition of Crismon & Co., asking permission to erect hay and coal scales on South Temple, between Third and Fourth West Streets, was granted.

The resignation of W. J. Silver, as engineer of City Water Works, was read and accepted.

The petition of Mr. P. Thomasson, Editor of the Utah Posten, asking that the ordinance relating to fires be published in that paper as an advertisement, was laid on the table.

The report of the committee, to whom was reported the petition of C. M. Donelson, asking to be remunerated for means expended by him on the water tank near Snow's corner, reported favorably for the petitioner, and the amount asked for, $264.40, was appropriated.

Bid of T. Aubrey, to paint the city lamp posts for $1.25 each, was tabled.

The petition of S. W. Richards, asking an appropriation to cover his bill to the amount of $197.50 for extra services, while a member of the Council, was tabled.

Council adjourned till Tuesday evening next, at 7 p. m.

VICTORY! VICTORY!!

THE

Sewing

MACHINE

TAKES

Five Medals

AT THE WORLD'S FAIR at VIENNA.

Three separate dispatches from Vienna combine to dispel all doubt as to what sewing machine has won the first honors of the great Exposition. The first was a special to the New York press on Monday, and was as follows:

VIENNA, August 15, 1873.

The Wilson shuttle sewing machine has awarded the grand prize at the Vienna Exposition for being the best sewing machine MADE.

The second was the regular Associated Press report, compiled from a long special to the New York Herald, in which the "Wilson Sewing Machine of Cleveland, Ohio," was named as among the exhibitors which received "gold medals for merit," the highest class of premiums awarded at the Exposition.

The third was a private cable telegram received yesterday from Vienna by Mr. Wilson himself, which was as follows:

VIENNA, August 19.

You have received the medal—the first merit and three co-operative.

The meaning of this is then explained to be that the Wilson Machine has received the gold medal as the best sewing machine, and a second gold medal; as the machine has two manufactures—that is, embodying the best mechanical workmanship. Besides these, a special medal was given for excellence of workmanship on the machine another for the best sewing on leather, done by the Wilson, and the other medal for best samples of family sewing and embroidery, done on the Wilson machine.

This sweeps the entire board. Not only has the Wilson Sewing Machine been pronounced the most superior and efficient sewing machine in the world, but to make it doubly sure, goods and leathers in general are superior to that of all other machines. This verdict at A World's Fair, where all the leading sewing machines of both continents have competed before a thoroughly competent committee for more than three months, is the most complete triumph ever won by a sewing machine.

The above is taken from the Cleveland Leader, of August 20.
