LOCAL BRIEFS.

Hutchins Recovering—Gordon L. Hutchins is recovering rapidly at St. Mark's hospital from the effects of his foot amputation, and will soon be out.

Seeks Water Right—Peter Street of Ogden, Utah, has filed a requisition for a second feet of water from the junction of South and North Crooks in David county, with which to irrigate 1,000 acres of land.

Pews Nearly All Subscribed—It was announced at St. Mary's Cathedral that nearly all the pews in the new edifice have been taken. The dedication service will be held on Thursday evening, by the Rev. Father Harmonie Singherlin in aid of the widow of Adolph Koch, late secretary of the Singherlin.

Lecture on Evolution—Dr. John S. D. Smith will lecture before the University club next Saturday evening, on "Evolution and the Present Status of Evolution." A speaker will follow. Members are privileged to invite friends.

Arrange Benefit Concert—A benefit entertainment and ball will be given at the Knights of Columbus hall next Thursday evening, by the Deseret Harmonie Singers in aid of the widow of Adolph Koch, late secretary of the Singherlin.

Farwell in Social Hall—A farewell to C. C. Smith and Mrs. Smith will be given in the Social hall, next Saturday evening, by the semi-annual reunion of the Hawaiian missionary society, on the evening of April 1, beginning at 7 p. m. A feature of the occasion will be an old time Hawaiian banquet.

Junior Typists—The Typographical union started yesterday afternoon, the organization of the Junior Branch, and will perfect it April 2 next. The committee consists of Arthur Parkes, Republican; Jack Burgess, Democrat; Jack Fitzgerald, Tribune; Walter Richardson, Tribune; Robert Henderson, Gardner Printing company.

Cookie Donations War—Edmund Vance Cooke, author and humorist, lectured at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon, when he denounced war, and compared the trip of the great American fleet around the world to a desperado entering a gathering of school people, clad in outlandish costume and armed with guns and a bowie knife.

Work Begins at Lagoon—Work at Lagoon, in the line of preparation for the coming season has begun. Fresh water bathing facilities will be increased, and contracts have been let for several car loads of white sand with which to cover the bottom of the swimming beach. The work of electrification of the railroad continues actively.

Bounty Payments Stopped—State Auditor, Jesse D. Jewkes sent out notices Saturday to the county clerks instructing them to issue further certificates to bounties on wild animals under the old law. The legislature passed a new law and the appropriation the next two years has been approved. They will be notified later when they begin issuing certificates under the new law.

Lecture on Messina—Warren E. Gilbert, who is well known in this city, will deliver an illustrated lecture on the Messina earthquake horror at the Deseret Opera house, Thursday evening, April 1. The lecture will be given under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus. Mr. Gilbert made a special trip to the ruins immediately after the earthquake for the purpose of securing pictures and data for the lecture.

Exposition Plans Maturing—The Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition commission has been organized. The exhibit, Thomas Judd of St. George will be in charge of the agricultural and horticultural exhibit. Miss Florence Hull, daughter of Thomas Hull, surveyor general of Utah, and a member of the commission, and Miss Ethel North of Ogden, have been designated as hostesses in the Utah Building at the exhibit.

Religious Service at Jail—The religious services held at the city jail yesterday under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. were attended by 30 prisoners and the clearest attention was paid to the scriptural readings, short talks and the singing of hymns. Many of the prisoners joined in the singing and one prisoner, known as "Dixie Joe," sang "Where is My Wanderer Boy Tonight?" Among the prisoners was young C. J. Drossner who masqueraded as Chas. Spreckels, Jr.

THE KIDNEYS AND THE SKIN.
In the spring, the kidneys have much to do. If they are weak or torpid, they will not do it well, and the skin will be pimply or blotchy. That is why the kidneys are so important. Hood's Sarsaparilla strengthens and stimulates the kidneys, cures and prevents pimples, blotches and all cutaneous eruptions.

LIQUOR ORDINANCE COMES UP TONIGHT

Stewart Measure Will be Dusted Off and Put on Third Reading.

FRANCHISE MATTERS UP.

Neither Harriman Nor Bamberger Are Willing to Accept Joint Right To Tracks on Third West.

When the city council meets tonight, the long delayed liquor ordinance which has been slumbering in the committee reports for months will be dusted off and read for the first time. If the majority of the council will agree to it, Councilman J. J. Stewart, the father of the ordinance, will substitute an entirely new measure. This, however, will be opposed by several members, who have enough amendments to kill any ordinance.

The substitute bill will raise the license to $1,500 a year and make the ordinance a joint measure with the franchise. No change will be attempted in the closing hours and women will only be allowed in the saloons from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. The ordinance contains a clause which prevents a firm or corporation from owning or controlling more than three saloons.

Although the measure in the substitute bill is not severe, several members of the council are opposed to enacting any ordinance at all, and will attempt to kill any ordinance which is presented.

Councilman Black's motion for a resolution, which would allow the sale of the Salt Lake and Ogden railroad and the Oregon Short Line railroad a joint franchise over Third West street will precipitate a heated discussion. Neither Harriman nor Bamberger, who are the owners of the franchise, is stated, and the entire question will be opened for debate again.

The budget will probably be trimmed down when it comes for consideration. The ordinance will be a joint measure with the franchise. There are luxuries asked for by several heads of the departments which the council refuses to stand for.

FUNERAL OF MRS. WHITNEY.

Mrs. Virginia Tierman Whitney was laid to rest Saturday afternoon, in Mt. Olivet cemetery, after impressive funeral services at the family residence, 445 East South Temple street. The obsequies were conducted by Dean Brewster, who officiated in the ritual of the Protestant Episcopal church. M. J. Brines sang two solos, "Eternal Goodness" and "One sweetly solemn thought," accompanied by A. H. Peabody. The pallbearers were Judge M. L. Ritchie, W. Mont Perry, J. M. Bidwell, Elsworth Daggett, George A. Black and J. L. Franken. Mrs. Whitney died last Wednesday, after a week's illness of pneumonia. She was the wife of Dr. H. A. Whitney, and daughter of Mrs. Lucia Tierman. She was 51 years of age, and resided in this city from childhood. Besides her husband and mother, Mrs. Whitney is survived by two children, Frank T., aged 19, and Virginia, aged 12.

AN IDEAL COUGH MEDICINE.
"As an ideal cough medicine I regard Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in a class by itself," says Dr. R. A. Whitfield, of Wynnewood, Ind. "I take great pleasure in testifying to the results of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. In fact, I know of no other preparation that meets so fully the requirements of a cough medicine. It acts in cases of croup and coughs of children. As it contains no opium, chloroform or morphine it certainly makes a most safe, pleasant and efficacious remedy for the ill it is intended." For sale by all druggists.

FIVE NEW CHURCH MEMBERS.

Five men were received into membership last evening at the Westminster Presbyterian church, after which the pastor, Rev. C. C. McIntyre, preached from the text, "What think ye of Christ?" The speaker said that the "right answer to this question is the solution of all other questions. This is the greatest question in the world, because it is asked about the greatest person that ever lived. The greatest issue of our life hangs upon your answer to this question. Other questions in life either do not have to be answered, or they are answered, but procrastination is of no avail in the answering of this question."
