THREE CROWN BAKING POWDER

READ THE ENDORSEMENTS OF THE LEADING EXPERTS IN COOKING AND BAKING:

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 22, 1904.

Messrs. Hewlett Bros.,
Gentlemen—I have tested your "Three Crown Baking Powder," and find it equal to any in the market. I cheerfully recommend it as a Home Product and exceed by anything imported.

Very respectfully,
HANNAH MCCORMICK,
President of the Woman's Home Industry Association of Utah.

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 26, 1904.

Messrs. Hewlett Bros.,
Gentlemen—I have tested your "Three Crown Baking Powder," and find it equal to any in the market. I cheerfully recommend it as a Home Product and exceed by anything imported. I am sure that all ladies who are interested in the welfare of the Territory will patronize Home Industry by using it.

Very respectfully,
JENNIE A. PROBERT,
Secretary Woman's Home Industry Association of Utah.

Kantland Hotel,
On using "Three Crown Baking Powder," manufactured by Hewlett Bros., I find it satisfactory in every respect. It is just as good as any imported powder on the market.

JOHN E. BRISTOL, Head Baker.

Hotel Tompkins,
I have tried the "Three Crown Baking Powder," manufactured by Hewlett Bros., and find it as good as any I ever used, and will certainly give it the preference as it is a Home Made article.

LENO, BARNES, Chef.

Cullen Hotel,
I have used "Three Crown Baking Powder" and can say it is a powder of excellent make. I want to use no better, and the reliable firm manufacturing it is a guarantee to the public.

WALTER RYAN, Pastry Cook.

The Gem Bakery and Confectionery,
45 West Second South Street.
I have used "Three Crown Baking Powder" manufactured by Hewlett Bros., and find it just as they represent it. It will compare favorably with the best of powders made.

HENRY SIMON.

Grand Pacific Hotel.

We are using "Three Crown Baking Powder." It gives us good satisfaction as any imported. Our Chef wants nothing better than the "Three Crown."

MRS. C. T. WHITMORE.

Trumbo Candy Co.,

43 E. First South Street.
We are using "Three Crown Baking Powder," and make a thorough test of our candy cases. We find it a pure powder and consider it the best now in use. We recommend it to the public, not so much for its being cheaper, than imported, but for its purity, quality and strength.

TRUMBO CANDY CO., per J. D. TAYLOR.

Temple Cafe and Bakery,

15 Main Street.
I have tested your "Three Crown Baking Powder," and find that you have perfectly equalized the ingredients of which it is composed, making it a powder of high mark. Your own printed instructions, governing mix in my preparations, and after placing it in the oven, and known the result was so satisfactory that I have decided to use no other.

S. F. BALL,
Expert in the Art and Science of Cooking.

Excelsior Bakery,

10 Main Street.
I find "Three Crown Baking Powder" manufactured by Hewlett Bros. is absolutely pure and of a high leavening power and equal to any imported powder. They make a special test on cakes and recommend it to the public as a first class article in every respect.

EDWARD SCRAPE.

Colorado Bakery,

No. 2 East Third South Street.

We have used your "Three Crown Baking Powder" and after a fair test find it equal to any on the market.

J. L. DOYLE.

Idaho Bakery,

45 East Second South Street.
I recommend "Three Crown Baking Powder" manufactured by Hewlett Bros. to the public as a superior article. The firm is so well known that comment is unnecessary. Their goods are pure. Success to another Home Industry.

ANDREW GERHARDT.

Deseret Bakery,

45 West First South Street.
Have tried "Three Crown Baking Powder" and find it compares very favorably with any other we have used and recommend it as being a Home Product of good quality.

SANDERS & TAYLOR.

Social Bakery,

111 East First South Street.
Have used your "Three Crown Baking Powder" and find it as represented. It is a first class article, and I have never used any better in my life. Wish you success in your new branch of Home Industry.

JOHN F. APPELQUIST.

Vienna Cafe, Manca Bros. Props.,

Main Street.
"Three Crown Baking Powder," manufactured by Hewlett Bros. is the best Home Made Powder I have ever used.

H. M. RADLER, Head Chef.

Arcada and Saddle Rock Restaurants,

South Salt Lake, Prop., Main St.

I have used "Three Crown Baking Powder," and find it better than any Home Made Powder in the market.

H. RILPATRICK, Head Cook.

Mrs. T. G. M. Smith,

Private Boarding House and Dining Parlor,

375 1/2 W. 8. Temple St.

Have used Hewlett Bros. "Three Crown Baking Powder" (since its manufacture) in cakes, pastry, biscuits, light puddings and hot cakes, and regard it as superior to any powder I have ever used. The price being low this imported powder is also feature, the quality another, and lastly, being made in Salt Lake City by a regular firm, are my reasons for using this powder and no other.

MRS. T. G. M. SMITH.

Messrs. Hewlett Bros.

Gentlemen—I have put the sample you left at my house of your "Three Crown Baking Powder" to the test in an Egg-Cake, and find it superior in raising power to any I have used. As a practical baker under license for 40 out of 50 years, I hope your new venture may be crowned with successful success.

ALEXANDER CROSSL, Salt Lake City.

HARRY TUTTLE, Manager Baking Powder Department, a resident of Salt Lake City, now under oath testifies that the above testimonials are true, he having witnessed the signatures to same, and further, that the "Three Crown Baking Powder" used by said parties above mentioned is of the same quality as sold to all Grocers and Dealers. Manufactured by Hewlett Bros., 744-746 S. State St., Salt Lake City.
