PROSPEROUS SEASON.

All things considered the farmers have had one of the most prosperous years in the history of the county and winter finds them well prepared for it. The Third ward choir is preparing a splendid musical to be given during the helidays. Walter W. Morrison of this city is preparing to remove to Ogden and en-gage in business there. The family take with them the best wishes of the community.

The Sevier stake quarterly conference convenes in this city Dec. 19. A large attendance is looked for, based on the expectation that President Joseph F. Smith will be in attendance. Elder Simon Christensen, who is on a mission in Denmark, is released to return home next month.

MISSIONARY WELCOME HOME. A welcome home party was given in the Taylorsville ward house Thurs-day evoning in honor of Joseph Lind-say who has been laboring as a mis-sionary in Great Brituin. The Mutual Improvement association of the Granite stake gives a bail this evening in the stake tabernacle. The Taylorsville fair held two days this week was considered the most suc-cessful ever held in the ward. No raf-fling or games of chance of any kind were introduced. The Murray baseball association will give a ball tomorrow evening in the Trocadero hall. Much interest is be-ing taken in the affair, and it is thought that baseball interest such as no other town of the same size of Mur-ray can muster can be revived.
