"Hurricane center, near southern point of Florida. Dangerous for vessels of all classes to sail for or from gulf ports.

STORM IN COLORADO.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 12.—One of the heaviest storms of the year prevailed last night throughout the state. The snow lies deep on the continental divide and elsewhere in the mountains. The rainfall in some parts of southern Colorado amounted to an inch or more. In the valleys the weather is unusually cold for the season and much garden truck has been killed.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS,

THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST.

Is issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The state fair management has contracted with the Steiner Brothers, trick performers formerly with the Ringling circus, also the Savage revolving ladder performers, to appear during the coming state fair.

The regular meeting of the Veteran Volunteer Firemen will be held at the Hall, 271 Canyon road, Monday, Sept. 14, at 8 o'clock sharp. All members are requested to be present, as business of importance will be transacted.

Mr. C. J. Gyllensvan, janitor for the Fourteenth ward meeting house, left a curiosity at the "News" today in the shape of an apple blossom in all the fresh blown beauty of a spring flower. It was picked from the trees at the rear of the meetinghouse under his charge.

The new pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, Rev. J. W. Jeffress, was installed last evening, with interesting ceremonies. Revs. Frank Barnett of the East Side Baptist church, Rev. D. Arthur Brown of the First Baptist church, Rev. Bruce Kinney, and Editor W. W. Taylor of the Plaindealer participated in the exercises.

Two young men giving their names as J. C. Loggan and A. E. Badkin, were arrested by the police last evening on the charge of stealing harness from the Elgin dairy. The young men admitted the theft and said, by way of excuse, that they were hard pressed for cash and sold the harness because they needed the money.

The board of governors of the Commercial club decided last evening to raise the balance of $1,200 needed by the Irrigation Congress, after F. J. Kiesel, of Ogden, representing the Ogden committee, had explained the situation to the board. Governor Wells, ex-State Senator Love and Manager R. S. Campbell of the Light & Power company were appointed a committee to raise the necessary amount.

The conductor and motorman on the 10:30 First street car were somewhat startled last night. A couple of men began yelling at the car and then fired a couple of shots at it. At first the car men thought it was an attempt to hold them up, but later came to the conclusion that the fellows were drunk and thought they were having fun by shooting. The car was near Fort Douglas when the shooting began.

NEW OPTICAL PARLORS.

Extensive repairs are being made at 237 Main, which, when completed, will prove this number one of the prettiest little store rooms in the city. It is to be occupied by the Utah Optical Co., composed of J. H. Knickerbocker, the original refractionist of Salt Lake City, formerly located at 259 Main street, and Royal W. Daynes, of the jewelry house of John Daynes & Sons, and recently with the Columbia Optical Co. The firm will occupy both first and second stories of this building. On the ground floor are the refracting, prescription and sales rooms, while in the second story will be located the manufacturing department. Here is being installed all of the latest improved scientific mechanical apparatus for the manufacture of optical goods.

The many friends and patrons of both Mr Knickerbocker and Mr. Daynes are cordially invited to call and inspect the new parlors ,stock and appliances during the latter part of next week, when everything will be in readiness.

CROUP

Usually begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, (the child will cry for it) and at the first sign of a croupy cough, apply frequently Ballard's Snow Liniment externally to the throat. 50c at Z.
