DEPRIVACY AND DEATH.
PLYMOUTH, 25.—Thomas Samon, the Laconia murderer, was put on a train leaving here at 8 this morning for the North. A large crowd witnessed his departure. No demonstrations were made. Many followed the party to Laconia out of curiosity. The prisoner slept soundly all night in the rear of the train, closely guarded by officers. He ate heartily supper and breakfast and appeared self-possessed.
Laconia, N. H., 25.—Samon, the alleged murderer, was arrested here and taken to the county jail. At the coroner's inquest this morning Dr.
Fraser testified to making an examination of the body of the man who carried to the Ruddy house in a trunk, that it was probable she came to her death by a heavy body falling upon her, perhaps from a window near the heart. It was supposed that she came to her death by strangulation or poisoning. The knife wounds on her legs were done after death. John C. Foster, husband of the murdered woman, who was arrested on suspicion yesterday, was present at the hearing and voluntarily testified. He was apparently unconcerned.

THE HINDOO VISITOR.
INTERESTING INTERVIEW WITH MOZDUMAR THE REFORMER.
The Hindoo reformer, Mozdumar, who has been visiting the United States, called on Thursday from San Francisco on the City of Peking for Japan, en route for Calcutta. The reformers called on him on the eve of the evening previous to his departure, by invitation of Dr. Stebbins, at whose house Mr. Mozdumar had been a guest during his stay in the city, some thirty or 40 Hindoo clergymen and laymen assembled to hold a parting conversation with the Oriental Apostle concerning his work in the United States. The scene during the interview was a very peculiar one for this latitude. After the chairs placed around the room were all occupied by the guests, the Hindoo reformer sat down on the carpet in the center, Eastern fashion, with legs crossed, and the worthy Mozdumar sat among them. There seated they were for an hour and a half with great readiness and clearness, interesting occasional smiles, and humor in his replies. The following may be taken as a specimen of the questions and answers:
"What effect has the British rule had upon the people of India?"
"They have not been benefited as the middle classes have, but the reformers have really no paper case there. There are those who believe, but it is a profession with them, and they are not necessarily pious. They are not necessarily pious, teachers, etc., do nothing they are supported by the free will offerings of others, who consider them as honored by being allowed to contribute to their support."
"How do the people submit to the heavy exactions laid upon them by the Government?"
"Uncomplaintingly for the most part, as of an affliction from which there is no possible way of escape." The native princes, says he, very sumptuously and enjoy heavy income. (Dr. Stebbins mentioned that a daughter of Chander Bah, the head of the Brahmin Chander Bah, man, having only for his support such voluntary contributions as might be made by his people—na-for the report that the "Car sometime ago selected Count Tolstol and Privy Counsellor Pobedonostz and Kalkoff to elaborate a constitutional charter, said to contain an organization more adapted to the spirit of the age, wherein though the principle of autocracy is maintained, possibility is given to prominent persons as representatives of the people to mediate between the latter and the Crown as advisers of the Government. These reforms are granted in order to do justice to the universal desire of the people.

St. Petersburg, 25.—A grand military review in honor of the Crown Prince of Germany was held this afternoon.
The troops consisted of six regiments of infantry, four regiments of cavalry, one battalion of guards, five squadrons of cavalry, four regiments of field artillery and one regiment of mounted artillery, totalling 15,000 men and 75 guns.
The line extended two miles. All the troops were in gala uniforms and presented a martial appearance.
St. Petersburg, 25.—After the review today the troops about to start for Baku, three Turkish officers went to Baku Pasha and refused to go to the Sunday, on the ground that they were not to be service in Egypt alone. It happened the matter will be arranged. There is a general sense of uneasiness, showing the revival of religious enthusiasm, and especially the captain who brought news of Hicks Pasha's defeat states that he was allowed to escape only on promise of his life. The massacre, he said, was not so bad as it was represented as at first believed, as those Egyptian soldiers who were disposed were allowed to join the force of El Mahdi. There is reason to believe emissaries of El Mahdi are busy in the large towns of Upper Egypt, and a general rising is feared.

pears to be more and more ground
