A Weak Heart

Seldom gets strong again without help. Awake or asleep, it never stops, and consequently has no period of rest or relaxation in which to regain lost vigor. You should avoid exertion, excitement and worry as much as possible, to relax the strain, and take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, which is a heart tonic, to strengthen and restore vigor to the heart nerves and muscles.

The symptoms of a weak heart are shortness of breath, palpitation, feeble or too rapid pulse, hungry spells, hot flashes, dizziness, smothering spells, pain in heart or side, etc.

"I had been treated for heart disease by different physicians without any improvement. Finally my doctor informed me that I was suffering from a weak heart, and that I should take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I did so, and after a week or so I felt much better. I am now well, and my heart is strong again."

ing satisfied themselves that there will be no "frank cars" there, outside of the racing car seen on the beach last winter, as the same car will be used in the forthcoming races.

As far as is known there will be no cars entered over four cylinders, as the big Alfred Vanderbilt, Maxwell, Darracq, and other multi-cylinder cars will not be on hand this year. The Vanderbilt car has never shown anything and the Maxwell is not ready, and is very doubtful if the Darracq will be brought across the water, as the wealthy young Dublin brewer, who has been entered with by his uncle, not to make the trip at this time of the year.

The advocates of steam power will be interested in knowing that two steam racing cars will be entered in the 100 and 200 mile races in the coming season. It will be a complete surprise to the manufacturers of the gasoline power engine, as they have always contended that five miles was about the limit that a steam car would maintain its speed. The work of these cars, which look very much like the usual racing car, in the long races, will be watched with intense interest all over the world as the manufacturers of the car declare that the 100-mile record will be held by the steamers when the Florida tournament is over. The chances are, therefore, for a great sport as the steam car will be bitterly battled against by expert drivers of the gasoline engine type of car.

RACE OF BALLOONS.

Getting Ready for Start From St. Louis—Prizes Offered.

New York, Jan. 13.—Cortland Field Bishop, president of the Aero club of America, has announced a list of five supplementary prizes to be offered in connection with the coming international cup balloon race on Oct. 19 next in St. Louis.

James Gordon Bennett gives $200 to the winner. The following supplementary prizes were announced: $100 to the second balloon; $50 to the third balloon, offered by the combined railroads running into St. Louis; $50 for the fourth balloon, offered by Daniel S. Nugent of St. Louis; and $50 to the fifth balloon, offered by a St. Louis German newspaper.

These prizes are for balloons traveling westward.

When Cascarets Cathartic were invented in 1896, and the formula was perfected after much experimental labor by highly scientific chemists, it was our aim not only to produce a perfect combination of EFFECTIVE CONSTITUENTS, but to have every ingredient the very best in point of PURITY and QUALITY that could be obtained.

We established a standard of PURITY and QUALITY and MEDICINAL STRENGTH, that has been maintained for all these years, and every Cascaret tablet has been as harmless, pure, gentle and effective as every other one.

The substances that enter into a medicinal formula, to produce the desired effect, to be SAFE and ever TRUSTWORTHY, MUST be clean, fresh, carefully selected and compounded with painstaking supervision.

the greater distance. In addition, the Aero club has decided to offer a supplementary prize of $500 for the balloon staying longest in the air.

So far Great Britain, France and the United States have forwarded their entries which guarantee that at least nine balloons will start in the contest.

ALTRUCK WANTS MORE.

Famous Pitcher Makes Demand for Increased Salary.

Richmond, Ind., Jan. 13.—Nick Altruck wants more salary before he will sign a contract to pitch for the championship White Sox next season. He is here on a visit to his friends and has proceeded to Chicago in a short time and tell President Comiskey what he wants. He says he will get it.

"My raise should be a good one, since did more than my share in winning the two pennants last fall," the German comedian said this afternoon. "Comiskey knows this and I do not think he will need much argument to meet my figures. I quit the season in fine condition and undoubtedly will be just as good next season as I was last."

WILL PLAY TENNIS.

Doherty Denies Rumor That He is to Retire.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—A dispatch to the Chicago Tribune this morning from London says: Commotion was created lately in lawn tennis circles by a report that England's champion, H. Doherty, was to retire, as in that event it was felt that England would stand a poor chance against America and Australia in the competition for the Davis cup. The report, however, is untrue. Doherty is not to retire. A correspondent met him today at the meeting of all England's clubs and he smilingly said:

"One can't say that may happen between now and the championship meeting, but unless something unforeseen occurs, I'll be certain to play. I shall start the season at Monte Carlo, and I suppose I shall go through my usual round. Of course, in getting older I must retire eventually, but not this season."

WORK OF PITCHERS.

Plank of Philadelphia Took Lead as Slab Artist.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—Out of forty-eight pitchers who appeared last season in the games of the American league, but one, Larry of New York, won all the games in which he appeared. This achievement, however, is not so creditable as it sounds, for the reason that he appeared in only two games. Next to Larry in games won is Plank of Philadelphia, who won thirteen games and lost six.

Chicago was third, with eighteen games won, six lost, and one tie. Joss made the best showing for Cleveland, with twenty-one games won, nine lost, and one tie. For Boston the best showing was made by Tammill, who came nineteenth in the general list. He won thirteen games, lost eleven and pitched one tie game. The poorest showing was made by Harris of Boston, who pitched in twenty-three games, out of which he won only two.

LOOP PROVED FATAL.

Buenos Ayres, Jan. 14.—An Italian named Davis was killed in Buckingham Palace Saturday night while looping the loop. Davis had challenged Mephisto, who performs the acrobatic feat of looping the loop while attempting to perform the feat.

AGAINST FOOTBALL.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 13.—Tucked away among a number of hills introduced into the house of representatives yesterday was one which would cause all Missouri college and school boys great grief if passed. It provides that no football game be played in any inclosure in the state under a $50 fine penalty. As the state university authorities are strongly in favor of football and have influence at the capitol, it is thought the bill will likely come to grief.

PLAYED AGAINST FORTY.

New York, Jan. 14.—Dr. Emmanuel Lasker, the world's champion chess player, engaged in a new record on Saturday night at Hecksack, N. J., on Saturday night, when he won his 40th game.

He said, "I have never won a game by a one-point margin. I have won by a one-point margin only four times. The other four secured draws."

"PENNY" GOSSIP.

Word comes from Goldfield that a match has been arranged there between Bean and that the latter is in training for the bout. The strike prevented Willard Bean from going into business, so he has decided to fight. It is reported.

A meeting is scheduled for this evening at the Commercial club of members of the Utah Fish and Game association, and it is desired that all the members be present as matters of grave importance to the conditions of fish and game will be discussed, and the legislature will be asked to do something for the association.

Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 13.—The report from American league headquarters at St. Louis that Manager Finn has secured Roy Hartzell of Colorado, the crack third baseman, who played with last year's team, is partially confirmed here. President H. Hatner says that he knew Finn was negotiating for him. Finn is now in New York.

Yesterday's snowstorm was a mighty good thing for a few hundred rabbits in the neighborhood of Erida as it prevented their slaughter. Some idea of what might have happened may be had from the statement that even under existing conditions, about 100 bunnies were killed, but the blinding snow was not conducive to good marksmanship and the rabbits took to shelter and remained there. A party of twenty local hunters went out yesterday morning.

Information has been received here that Morgan Adams, one of Utah's best athletes, is to return to the University before the second semester begins. Adams, who is the champion pole vaulter of the state, will be a most valuable addition to the rank of athletes, and it is with much joy that the announcement of his return is received. Besides his excellent work as a pole vaulter, Adams is good at high and broad jumps and in many other events.

Every person who rides on an automobile ought to know how to stop the machine. The turning off of the electric current that creates the sparks is sufficient, and that is generally done by turning a small handle. Not a few serious accidents would have been prevented had passengers in automobiles been in possession of this simple piece of knowledge.

It looks as if the words "Made in Germany" are likely to apply to a very large number of the motor cars used for commercial purposes. German enthusiasts hold out the prospect of a general automobile mobilization of omnibuses and all public vehicles within the next few years. England is Germany's best customer for automobiles, and orders for 300 to 400 machines at a time are often received, principally for omnibuses and heavy carriages. There is a cloud, however, on the German horizon, for the free trade parliament recently put in power in Great Britain has not only considering the advisability of putting a heavy import duty upon motor vehicles.

Kid Herman has returned to Chicago from Tonopah, where he went down to defeat at the hands of Joe Gans. New Years day, Herman shows no signs of an encounter. He still holds that he could have beaten Gans had it not been for the foul blow. Herman says: "The blow Gans caught me on the jaw after the bell sounded in the second round was foul, but Joe did not do it intentionally, however. It was a fling and did me great harm. For a minute I was dazed and when Joe came to my corner and apologized I did not know what he was saying. My fighting instinct, however, told me I must fight on."

"At the weight which governed this fight, Joe had it on me. It is inevitable, and should be met. Nelson under the same conditions the Dane will last no longer."

"I am not going to quit the ring as reported. I will attend strictly to my cigar business and train faithfully right along, for I want another chance at Joe. I want to fight him next. If I lost I would stand ready to meet Nelson or Gans again."

It is true that I carried the fight to Joe, but I had to. He has it on all the other men that I have fought so far that there was no chance to box. Had I fought him I would have fallen early in the fight."

"I was confident that I would win and I was right. I was confident that I would win and I was right. I was confident that I would win and I was right."

"I fought Gans a harder battle than I over fought in my life, but at the weight he had it on me."

SLATER'S DARING FEAT.

The picture demonstrates a recent daring performance by a slater who was employed to put the slates on a high steeple in an English town. When he had finished his hazardous task he went through with a series of gymnastic evolutions that struck terror to the hearts of the great crowd assembled below. He came to no harm, however, and descended in safety.

THE BIGGEST GUN.

There is now at Sandy Hook proving grounds the biggest cannon ever turned out in the world. Not even the Krupp gun works of Germany have ever dreamed of making such a gun.

The weapon referred to is 20 yards long and weighs 13 tons. The projectile discharged by this monster is 18 inches in diameter and 5 feet long and weighs 14 tons. The charge of smokeless powder is of 1,000 pounds weight, and when the projectile leaves the muzzle it is traveling at the rate of 2,800 feet a second. The cost of each shot fired is $1,500.

A NATIVE SPITZBERGEN WOMAN.

The islands comprising Spitzbergen are in the Arctic ocean, midway between Greenland and Nova Zembla. The archipelago of five or six islands is usually classed as European and is claimed by Russia. It is in this far northern country that Walter Wellman and his party has been preparing for the polar flight in a mammoth airship. There are few inhabitants of this almost desolate region, and they are near the coast. The woman in the picture belongs to a small tribe which lives in the south of the island of Spitzbergen.

SHORT KINGS.

The queens of the world are taller than the kings. King Edward is some inches shorter than Queen Alexandra. The czar is a head below the czarina. Kaiser Wilhelm is of the medium height, but the German empress is tall, and that is why the proud kaiser will never consent to be photographed beside his wife unless she sits while he stands. The king of Portugal, though stouter, is less tall than his queen. Even the Prince of Wales is a good four inches shorter than the princess, and the young king of Spain is rather below the height of Queen Victoria.
