Asphaltum Sidewalk.—This kind of pavement is becoming very popular, and indeed, for divers reasons, is superior and desirable. Messrs. Morris & Evans have taken a contract to lay a walk of this descriprence corner. The work has commenced already. The benefit of appreciated by the public. Not only will it improve the appearance of the stores on that side, but it will render pedestrianizing much easier.

Hooper City. - We met with Bro. Henry Manning, of Hooper City, Weber Co., yesterday. He is making one of his occasional visits to this city on business. He states that the health of the people is generally very good; the crops are first-class; while the greatest drawback to prosperity is the low price of grain and the necessity farmers are under to immediately sell the greater part of their productions, to meet matured obligations. The credit system has been so extensively pursued between farmers and merchants, that, even after bountiful harvest, like that of the present year, the agricultural classes find themselves unable to more than pay their self-incurred liabilities and have left barely enough breadstuff and seed for another year.

Mandamus Case.—The case of F. M. Lyman against the county officers of Tooele County, on an alternative writ of mandamus, came up for hearing in the Third District Court, this morning. The defend ants, by their attorneys, made a demurrer to the order to show cause. In order to give time to the plaintiff to prepare an answer, the case was adjourned till two o'clock, when the argument of the defence to sustain the demurrer was commenced to the hour of our going press had not ended. The point raised by Messrs. Til-ford and Baskin for the defense was, that the law under which the late election was conducted is void, the act confirming and adopting the Utah County Fair.—The Utah Compiled Laws of Utah being passed after the new election law, thus invalidating it. Messrs. Sheeks and Rawlins were prepared with their argument in reply.
