the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Nearly 130 New Recruits—Nearly 130 recruits have been received recently by the commanding officer at Fort Douglas. It was paid day after day, the post, where $4.00 was distributed.

Successful Operation—Mrs. Cunningham, daughter of Rev. D. M. Holm, was operated upon successfully for appendicitis at the Holy Cross hospital, Saturday afternoon.

Forty-seven Cars of Steel—Forty-seven cars of structural steel have been received over the Grand Canyon within the last 10 days for the Newhouse buildings, which will keep things moving for the next three months.

Inspect Neph Company—Colonel Plummer and First Lieut. Barrett of the First Infantry have given a full and complete inspection of the company and to look the command over. This company prides itself on its high standard of excellence.

Proposed Optical Factory—Secy. L. J. Haddock of the M. and M. association reports correspondence with eastern investors who are thinking of establishing here a factory for the manufacture of all kinds of optical goods.

Copies Given Out Tonight—At the rehearsal of the festival church choir, members will receive copies of the works to be given at the festival, so that they can study same at home. It is therefore desired that every member be present.

Three New Double Barracks—There is a report from Washington that three new double barracks are to be built at Fort Douglas in place of the old stone structures facing the parade ground that are antiquated and unfit for the requirements of the service.

Remains at Morgue—The remains of Hercules Warren, aged 81, an old time miner, were brought in from Ophir yesterday, and are at O'Donnell's morgue awaiting the arrival of the nephew of the deceased from Colorado.

D. H. Peery Building—The D. H. Peery estate building at Third South and West Temple streets, whose reinforced concrete substructure has been completed, will remain as it is until spring, when work on the superstructure is to be started.

Baptist Social—The ladies of the First Baptist church will give a Japanese social at the Second West street home of Mrs. C. J. McNitt tomorrow evening. When Mrs. McNitt will speak of her experience in the last winter's trip to the Orient.

Underwriters' Banquet—The life underwriters held a social session at the Commercial club Saturday evening with 50 persons present to enjoy a well prepared dinner. The annual banquet of the association will be given on the evening of the second Tuesday in January.

Spanish Veterans Officers—At Saturday night's meeting of the Spanish veterans, these officers were present: Captain, P. E. Connor; first lieutenant, H. E. Dewey; second lieutenant, Robert S. Slater; N. H. Glenn, S. W. Patterson and Elmer M. Qualtrough, camp council.

To Observe Anniversary—The Modern Language circle of the state university will observe the tenth anniversary of the death of Alphonse Daudet, the French author, next Thursday afternoon, when his play "Les Absents" will be given in the auditorium. The Hyde orchestra will furnish music.

Enraptured Dies of Heart Failure—James K. Enraptured, a laborer employed at the Utah Consolidated Mining company's works at Garfield, was found dead in bed yesterday morning. A coroner's inquest has been ordered. Death was due to heart failure. The dead man's body will be sent to Winchester, Conn., where his family live.

First Official Document—A map showing the right of way of the electric distributing line of the Utah Copper company from Garfield to Bingham canyon, was filed Saturday afternoon, with the U. S. land office in this city. It was the first document pertaining to Utah that has been endorsed by Frank Pierce, acting secretary of the interior.

Maud Horn in Court—The divorce case of Gus A. Horn and Mrs. F. Maud Horn, formerly of this city, is attracting considerable attention in Los Angeles, where Mrs. Horn is residing the suit brought by Horn for divorce. Horn charges his wife with having gone against his will, into nearly every saloon where Mrs. Horn preached Mormonism.

Elks Reception—The Elks will give a reception next Thursday evening, in the club house, in honor of Rev. E. I. Goshen in recognition of his active interest in the order, and particularly his appreciation of the jubilee address at the recent memorial services in the Salt Lake theater. The reception will be held from 8:30 to 10:30 p. m.

Wife Opposes Entailment—Mrs. George Kromer, who has been entailed the other day in the regular army at the West Temple street recruiting office, is endeavoring to secure cancellation of his entailment, as his family is dependent upon him for support. She has been in Fort Douglas to see the adjutant, and that officer is investigating the circumstances under which the man enlisted.

Funeral of John Hanhauser—John Hanhauser, the oldest union cigar maker in this city, was buried yesterday in Mt. Olivet. He was one of the founders of the Utah Federation of Labor, and filled many important offices of the organization. The funeral was under the auspices of the Eagles; the speakers were First John Weekworth of the Clear Makers' union, and Rev. W. T. Brown of the Lutheran church.

Clark Now Improved—Dr. E. P. Clark, mentioned in the hospital of health, has returned from Marysville, where chickenpox has been very prevalent. No precautionary measures were taken, no quarantine had been established, so the affected children ran and mixed with their comrades, as though there was nothing the matter. Of course, "everybody" had the disease. Dr. Clark instituted such measures as were possible under the circumstances, but the danger was practically over when he arrived at Marysville.

University Club Dinner—Dr. M. P. Caldwell, who attended the dinner Saturday evening at the University club by members of the medical faculty of the state university. The doctor is a member of the committee on education of the American Medical association, and is making a tour of the western states examining the various medical schools of the country, and reporting on the conditions of education. Among those present at the dinner were: John S. Davis, Dean Byron Cummings, Prof. Ira D. Cardiff, Prof. "The Never Substitutes."

R. W. Fisher, Dr. A. C. Ewing and Dr. Olsen.

Maudie Was Strong—Bart O'Neill, a demented man committed to the state mental hospital at Provo, was almost more than the sheriff's office could cope with Saturday when being taken to the hospital that he almost overpowered Deputy Sheriff Axel Steele, and was compelled to call for aid and Deputy Sheriff Andrew Smith responded. The two managed to get him to the depot in a cab and later to the hospital in Provo, without further trouble. The man recently attempted to jump from a high window at the Holy Cross hospital and would have been successful but for the quick action of a nurse.

MRS. BRADLEY RESTING.
She Will Not Leave Washington for At Least Another Week.

Mrs. Anna Bradley, according to information received from Washington, will not leave that city for at least a week, as her health is very bad, following the ordeal of her trial and preceding imprisonment. She is at the home of A. B. Hayes, solicitor of internal revenue.

NEW LICENSE ORDINANCE.
Council Will Hear Committee Report On Auditor's Recommendation.

The council committee on license will report to the council tonight with the new license ordinance as recommended by Westerman and Trader, expert accountants, who have been going over the city's system, or lack of such, in the keeping, or failing to keep, account of public money spent and wasted. The recommendations of the accountants if enacted will make the city recorder the assessor of licenses and the city treasurer the collector.

When the council session may see some first works when some councilman, probably W. Mont. Perry, calls for the report of the committee on police and prison with reference to the appointments of chief of Police D. Pitt. It is remembered that Chief Pitt had the nerve to seek men for policemen according to their fitness to serve without regard to the obligations of the city. The committee saw something wrong in this and called Chief Pitt on the carpet and instructed him to seek political advice in such matters in future times.

WHEN TO GO HOME.
When the Buffon, Ind., Banner, "When tired out, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want fun go home. When you want to get your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at your best go home and do the work. When you feel like being extra liberal go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with extra brilliancy go home and light up the whole household. To which we would add, when you have a bad cold go home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you will be certain to become a mother early in January."

SELLS UNBORN BABE.
Mrs. Owen Agrees to Permit Mrs. Bird to Adopt Expected Child.

An unborn babe was disposed of by its mother Saturday when a novel instrument was filed of record in the county recorder's office. The instrument is an agreement entered into between Mrs. Mary Owen, as party of the first party, and Mrs. Arthur Bird, as party of the second party. In consideration of certain expenses paid by the party of the second party, Mrs. Owen agrees to sell the child to become a mother early in January, agrees to permit Mrs. Bird to adopt her child when it is born. The agreement was drawn at Portland, Ore., Nov. 12, 1907.

HOW DIPHTHERIA IS CONTRACTED.
One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth is that the cold simply left the child one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted. For sale by all druggists.

SALT LAKE'S BANK CLEARINGS.
The sound condition of her banks, the clearings of the year, the year's mining dividends and a thousand other details of industry and commerce will be given in the Christmas News, to be issued next Saturday.

G. A. B. OFFICERS.
Maxwell Post Holds Regular Annual Election.

George R. Maxwell post, G. A. B. of this city, chose the following officers for the ensuing year: Commander, J. M. Swann; senior vice commander, J. L. Justice; junior vice commander, George H. Austin; chaplain, George P. Squires; quartermaster, Alfred Kent; officer of the day, John Stevens; officer of the guard, Chester Phelps; surgeon, Dr. Charles Miller; trustees, Henry P. Burns and W. Howe.

Eleven delegates were elected to the department encampment, which will be held in the spring. They are: George H. Austin, John Beatty, William P. Brown, J. C. Conn, Abel Groves, J. Johnson, S. Johnson, P. H. Kidd, A. B. Miller, J. M. Justice and H. H. Kinsman. The following were elected alternates: Dr. Joseph Miller, Hans Oakeson, James P. Lindsey, Chester Phelps, W. P. Wilson, Lewis S. W. H. Skilborn and John S. Stevens.

Inward and Outward.
The inward effects of humors are worse than the outward. They weaken on all the organs, inflame the mucous membrane, cause catarrhal troubles, and endanger the whole system. Hood's Sarsaparilla eradicates all humors and cures all their effects. It is the great alternative and tonic medicine whose merit has been everywhere established.

Accept no substitute.

HOW FIFTY CENTS PER DAY CAN DO

Mr. Downandout Gets Along Fairly Well in Salt Lake On It.

HARDLY GRAND BUT THEN—

Quarter Can Carry Man Through If He Does Not Care for Luxuries.

When the average traveler upon whom fortune has smiled, visits this city he finds his daily expenses total somewhere in the neighborhood of $5. Of course more than this can be spent very easily, but a "five" will about cover three meals and lodging at a fair hotel. But does the average traveler ever think, as he sits down to a table covered with spotless linen and shining silver, how his brother, who has never been given so much as a smile from fortune fares these cold raw days? Very few do and a day's existence such as the more unfortunate man spends would be an odd but valuable experience. The man whose coat is thread-worn and whose shoes do not cover his feet and sleeps in a bed if he has a few cents and the nose for locating cheap quarters. He can be shaved and clean, and not a run-shop loafer.

EATING IS EASY.
He will have no trouble in keeping from starving in Salt Lake for a week. He can get a ham and egg sandwich and a cup of coffee or a hamburger steak and coffee for a nickel. He can have a lunch of doughnuts or a ham sandwich and coffee or tea or milk for the same price. Ten cents will buy a good meal. The man who can eat three meals every day at a cost not to exceed 25 cents.

SHAVE AND CLOTHES.
Perhaps he is fastidious in spite of his impecunious condition and would like that week's growth of whiskers removed. This need not cost him a cent if he would rather have a barber college apprentice practice upon him than pay for a shave. If he keeps it more than ordinarily desirous of appearing neat at any risk he can let the apprentice trim his hair. Out comes Mr. Downandout looking presentable, well fed and anxious to discard his worn clothing apparel.

Being a man of the world and having a large amount of experience in that gentle art of what is known as "roughing" it, he next seeks a room in a Salvation Army store, where he "roughs" he can get everything he needs. He can get them without paying a cent, that's true, and he knows he will get them with a "God bless you," too, but this fellow is not a "bum"—keep that in mind—but a man in every sense of the word. He's up against it—that's all. That's the only way he is different from the pompous man who stepped scornfully to one's door and avoid touching elbows with him. So after saving wood for the Army he wends his way, now on the hunt for a "poor man's" hotel. He has not only earned a complete outfit but a few pennies beside.

AND A REAL BED.
Arriving at the "poor man's" hotel, the most interesting of all institutions in Salt Lake, he finds the desk, registers and the clerk assigns him to a room just as they do in the swellest hotels the city boasts. There may be no porter to carry grips or trunk to one's room, but the porter of a "poor man's" hotel have grips or trunks? Mr. Downandout gets a kind of a room he wants, a small one, inside, for 15 cents, one slightly larger with an outside window and a bath, for 25 cents. Any one of the three is fairly comfortable and the bed has plenty of clothes. A bath need not cost him anything but he can pay 5 cents and get a clean towel and a bar of soap. Drowsy from his hot bath and steam treatment Mr. Downandout crawls into his bed and a few minutes later is probably dreaming of better days, either gone or to come.

COST—A HALF DOLLAR.
Should be a careful and methodical man he might still a strategy for the "poor man's" hotel. He would make entries in a list somewhat like the following:

Breakfast		65
Lunch		65
Shave		65
Suit		65
Half cut		65
Shoes		65
Room		15
Shit		65
Bath		65
Other clothes		65
Supper		65
Total		50

Fifty cents! And fed, shaved, clothed, clean and in a real bed! This can be cut in half if a man prefers to go without the luxuries of an outside window and an extra foot of bed length. Of course most persons would hardly care to do with 25 cents but they're not "down and out."

I. X. L. CHANGES HANDS.
John J. Daly and T. Roy Brown Buy Into Furniture Company.

P. A. Eriksen has sold to the I. X. L. Furniture & Carpet company the building and site, 66x12 feet, facing Second South street, and 86x100 feet in the rear, for nearly $300,000. This involves a change in the personnel of the company, which makes J. J. Daly vice president, with T. Roy Brown, head manager. In the spring a three-story building will be erected on the rear property. This latter proposition will clean out the old time nest of vice in the center of the block and give that locality a much-needed moral cleaning.

with it more than passing importance. This country has suddenly had a disastrous experience in its financial centers that has destroyed values and shattered public confidence as to cause the currency to almost disappear. Over-speculation, reckless financing and wasteful extravagance are among the main causes for this crisis. Stock growers are facing serious losses, where but a month ago fair profits were promised, and they are now being told to keep their stock in the market for their live stock to possibly offset "frenzied financiers" of some of the "trust" companies. The country is in a state of financial confusion, and the policy of the government is to keep the currency in circulation. This, in connection with the inland waterways, covers a field of immense importance to stock men, for wrapped up in it are the general questions of public land administration, forest reserves and grazing lands. This association is on record in favor of some policies, which can be expressed in three words—campaign against waste. Eminent authorities will be present at the meeting to discuss these vital questions.

During the coming season of congestion this land question will receive great attention, and if the stockholders desire to have the right kind of laws passed, they should make themselves heard through our national convention at Denver, and see that the proper committees are appointed to look after the matter before Congress.

"An Object Lesson in Optimism." will be the Christmas News, to be issued Saturday night. It sets forth the progress of Utah's growth, together with the records of Idaho, Nevada and Wyoming for the year 1907 in complete and exhaustive fashion. In spite of adverse conditions, the record will be a wonderful one.
