Perhaps the version of Frank Matthews, land and water commission-er, would coincide with that of the city council, and perhaps an investigation would develop a difference. At any raie, one is not likely to be made, at least until after election.

From all accounts Saresena and the other men were talking together when an argument arose. Words became heated and Saresena pulled his gun and began shooting. None of the three shots hit and Tallericod wrenched the gun away and then shot his man through the head and right side. Sheriff Values and dooutles are looking for the But then, for that matter, neither will David C. Dunbar's tin sign money become due until after that time.
