Episcopal Congress-The Bible and

Public Schools.

PHILADELPHIA, 10.—The Church

Congress of the Protestant Episcopal Church reassembled, and papers on the best methods of procuring and preparing candidates for the ministry were read.

Yesterday the Rev. Clement M.

Batter, D.D., of this city, said that he should abandon the irrelevant and the Roman and other secular perfunctory reading of the Bible in our public schools. Thousands of our citizens felt that this would be the right thing to do who are yet unwilling to give up the Bible, because it would seem like a surrender to Romish dictation. Like Salad, they do not choose to be virtuous on compulsion, but if it be our conviction, however it may have been reached, it will be true dignity to act on it. No good cause loses by just concessions. Then and then only can we place our public school system on an impregnable foundation, then only will all claims of the Roman and other secular schools, and then also would the churches be made to feel an and more deeply the duty of the religious education of the children of the Republic.

Condition of Mr. Wilson.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 10.—At three this p.m. Mr. Wilson was in an apparently comfortable condition, the pain in his head and shoulders having ceased; although he does not rally rapidly as desired by his attendant physicians, they think, according to present symptoms, that he will recover in the course of a week. There is no indication of paralysis. All necessary arrangements have been made for his comfort and treatment in his room in the Senate. Among the callers are the Post Master General, the Attorney General, Secretary of the Treasury and ex-Congressmen Kellogg, of Conn., C. C.

Sullivan, assistant private Secretary to the President, hearing of the illness of the Vice President at once went to the capital, and from there telegraphed to the President at Washington. Much sympathy is everywhere expressed.

Vice President Wilson was comfortable at midnight, though he has been very restless, and has sleep-ed but little during the night. His physicians are still hopeful, and expect by morning there will be a change.

Commissioner Appointed.

The Secretary of the Interior has appointed the Hon. C. C. Cox and the Hon. W. M. McKim, of Washington, D. C., as joint Commissioners of the Department of the Interior, to examine the public lands of the United States, and to report thereon to the President.

Associated Press Meeting.

DETROIT, 10.—The eleventh annual meeting of the Western Associated Press was held here to-day, for the transaction of general business. The reports of the officers
