GRADUATE WITH HONOR.

Two Young Utahns Take Degrees as Masters of Science in Agriculture.

acquired, for thousands of genera-tions have been building up the great sphere of learning which we, the heirs of the ages, are now enjoying. People forget that those we call successful Ithaca, N. Y. June 6 .- Two Utah boys, have only entered in by the door of Messrs, J. C. Hogenson and W. H. Hoopportunity which so many pass by. It is, indeed, a discredit to us when we do not see this door of opportunity. mer, Jr., have just been graduated at Cornell University with the degrees So to these young women about to graduate, I extend congratulations upon the degree of success they have obtained. It takes perseverance and herd mark to the perseverance and of Master of Science in Agriculture. The boys stand among the first in their class. Both are graduates of the Agri-cultural college of Utah. Mr. Hogenhard work to win success, but they will agree with me that they have reson has been with the bureau of sails of the U. S. department of agriculture as sail expert and scientist for three years, and Mr. Homer has spent three will agree with me that they have re-ceived far more than they have earned. They will feel a sense of humility at the thought of the great amount of knowledge there is in God's wonder-ful universe which they have not yet gained mastery of. Sir Isaac Newton is the type of the true scholar when he says. 'I am like a child picking up achiles on the shore of a boundless ears in Germany.

At Cornell Mr. Hogenson specialized in horticulture and agranomy, and Mr. Homer in horticulture and botany, Both expect to take up their lines of work in their home state. These are the first advanced degrees ever taken by Utah boys in agricultural subjects.

Two other Utah boys graduate here this year with honors, Mr. R. B. West, with the degree of B. C. E., and Mr. B. P. Flemming, with the degree of B. M.

Pupils Gave Rechtal-Mrs. Swenion's advanced pupils gave a vocal re rital Saturday evening, in the Firs Congregational church before a crowd rd house that enjoyed the function The program was given as advertised and the efforts of the vocalisis were appreciated. The main feature of the rvening, was an ensemble of 8 voices in "The Bride of the Eirda," which was an excellent piece of vocalization. The singers all did well, and were the subjects of congratulation, with the instructor at the close of the recital.

Fell From Horse-Just as Miss Laura C. Sherman mounted a horseyes-terday afternoon to take a ride, the an-Imal became unmanageable and ran rapidly for several blocks. As the enimal turned a corner, Miss Sherman bot her balance and fell. The young woman received some slight brutess and a sprained ankle. A physician was summoned and attended to her in-juries after she was taken to her home in an ambulance. Miss Sherman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Sherman, and resides at 1007 First street.

Celebrated Anniversary-Rev. D. A. Brown of the First Baptist church selebrated yesterday, the fifth anniversary of his local pastorate. At the close of the morning service a purse was presented to Mr. Brown, Auditor C. J. McNitt making the presentation speech, culogizing the work that had been done by the pastor during his itay here. Mr. Brown stated during permon that $17,000 had been mised for miscellaneous and charitable work, and the sermen of the morning was from the same text used five years ago.

Passed Examinations-The follow-warrant was issued, which is fow in the hands of Captain of Detectives Burnet. "According to the statement made by the Oakland woman when she swore to the complain this morning, she intrusted $120 with Hamm for marginal investment on New York stock, on the 2nd of April last, She heard no more of her morey, and has tried, she avers, many times since, to get a line on what became of it. All her efforts have proved unavailing, and she was compelled to resort to the courts to get an accounting. "J. W. Hamm, the accused man, was the sealor partner of the firm of Hamm & Co., and before the recent holocaust con-ducted an extensive business at 7 Mont-gomery street. Since then the offless have not been reopened, and their numer-ous clients have either retired from the field of operation or are transacting their business with other brokerage firms."

er sald: 'It is very interesting to trace back the Puritan movement to its origin in a small village in the east of England. We owe much to the insignificant povements which transpired three enturies ago. Now, the Puritan movement succeeded very largely because of the influence of two men-William Brewster and John Robinson. Brew-ster was a man of great religious zeal and rare force of character. Robinson was a master spirit with marvel-ous influence over men. Under these two leaders, the rustice became men attached to great ideas and capable of enduring hardship, ready to suffer for their cause. The spirit of endur-ance which characterized these Puri-tans is one of the sublime things in

UNKNOWN FRIENDS.

UNKNOWN FRIENDS. There are many people who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diatr-hoea Remedy with splendid results, but who are unknown because they have hes-itated about giving a testimonial of their experience for publication. These people, however, are none the less friends of this remedy. They have done much toward making it a household word by their per-sonal recommendations to friends and neighbors. It is a good medicine to have in the home and is widely known for its curves of diarrhoea and all forms of bow-el trouble. For sale by all druggists.
