

PROF. A. A. ARTHUR, SWINDLER, CAUGHT

Has Been Sought by Police for Nearly a Score of Years.

HE IS A SEPTUAGENARIAN.

He Had More Aliases Than Most Men
Have Letters in Their Names.

Chicago, June 18.—"Prof." A. A. Arthur, a septuagenarian who has been sought by the police of a dozen cities for nearly a score of years, has been caught at Monmouth, Ill., by Chicago detectives.

Arthur has operated under many different names, and when he was arrested papers were found in his possession indicating that he was traveling as the vice president of a bank, a professor in an eastern college, a tourist, a lecturer and a minister.

In his satchel was found a full banking outfit, including 500 imitation drafts on the National Park Bank of New York. The police of Chicago have been working on the case for more than a year, or ever since it was discovered that the drafts were printed in this city, where the "professor" apparently had headquarters.

The alias "Professor Arthur," was the name under which he made his last appearance: "An eminent member of the faculty of Hamilton college," as he is reported to have represented himself. He was to have lectured last night in Hinsdale on "Egypt and the Orient."

As "J. S. C. Bliss," he is said to have posed as the vice president of the People's National Bank of McMinnville, Tenn. A quantity of drafts and stationery duplicates like that used in the southern bank, were found in his possession. It was while working in this capacity that the prisoner is alleged to have deceived many persons in the smaller cities and even some in Chicago. As "S. C. Bliss," he reported as a tourist just returned from the orient and Egypt—a lecturer. Letters of introduction, given by pastors, were found by the police.

As "The Rev. A. D. Posthumus," it is said the prisoner professed to be a Methodist preacher, driven by his health to travel to the mountains of Colorado and securing funds and entertainment by delivering lectures and "supplying" the pulpits of many churches.

Arthur's latest alleged swindle, by which he is believed to have obtained $200,000, is thus described by the police: He would deliver a lecture and when about to leave would produce a New York draft, sometimes $25 and sometimes $200, or more. The paper appearing regular in every way, and there seldom was difficulty in cashing it. "J. S. C. Bliss" is wanted in Kansas, Nebraska, Indiana and Illinois.

When It Is Distributed Utah Will Get a Portion.

San Francisco, June 18.—In regard to the sum of $1,000,000 deposited on account of the Pius fund by the Mexican government, with U. S. Ambassador Clayton, it has not been decided by Archbishop Riordan, to whom, as titular claimant, it is made payable, whether it will be expended in the same direction as it was when the Mexican government stopped payment of the fund some years ago. It is generally known, however, that after the attorney's claims are settled the money will be distributed among the archbishops of San Francisco and Portland and the dioceses of Los Angeles, Sacramento and Utah. The Franciscan order and the Jesuits will also receive an appropriation. The money will be forwarded from Mexico to Washington and will later be transferred to Archbishop Riordan for distribution.

Three Millions for Chicago University.
Chicago, June 18.—Three million dollars is to be the sum represented in the buildings and land for the secondary schools of the University of Chicago, according to the statement of President Harper at the commencement exercises of the university secondary schools. The schools represented were the Morgan Park academy, the South Side academy and the Chicago manual training school.

Dr. Harper said that the new buildings of the school of education and the new manual training school, of which the cornerstone has just been laid, would cost over $600,000. "Other buildings for the same purposes," he added, "will cost as much more." The equipment is to cost in the neighborhood of $250,000. The buildings and grounds of the Morgan Park academy are valued at $750,000. Thus far $1,000,000 has been expended for secondary education.

A POSTMASTER SKIPS.
Shortage of $2,000 in the Camden,
N. J., Postoffice.

Camden, N. J., June 18.—Louis De Rouzeau, postmaster of this city and twice speaker of the New Jersey house of assembly, who disappeared, has been located at Baltimore. He is said to be on the verge of a physical and mental collapse and is under the care of a physician.

Former Judge Pancerast and H. H. Voorhees, Mr. De Rouzeau's bondsmen, are authorized by the statement that the postoffice inspectors have found a shortage of $2,000 in the postmaster's funds.

Judge Pancerast said today that he had been informed that the postmaster was leading a double life. He summoned Mr. De Rouzeau and demanded an explanation, which was not satisfactory. A meeting of the bondsmen was held last Wednesday, and it was decided to notify the postal inspector, who began an examination of the postmaster's accounts today, and he is still at work on the books.

TURNUED UP IN BALTIMORE.

Baltimore, June 18.—Louis De Rouzeau, postmaster of Camden, N. J., who disappeared yesterday from that city, is here at the home of W. H. Swendell, a relative. De Rouzeau was seen here yesterday, to whom he appeared to be in a dazed condition. To all questions he simply answered "Yes," being apparently unable to give an account of himself. The members of the Swendell family say that his mind is evidently affected, and nothing is known as to his motive for coming here.

United States Attorney Lauchman says that he has not received any instructions as to the apprehension of De Rouzeau.

The bondsmen held a meeting today and appointed Assistant Postmaster C. M. Sayers as acting postmaster, going on his bond for $50,000, the same amount for which they are on De Rouzeau's bond. Mr. Sayers refused to discuss the case, saying he would issue a statement as soon as the inspectors have finished investigation.

Harrison H. Voorhees, one of the postmaster's bondsmen, said: "I am about $100,000 out by De Rouzeau's actions, and I don't know how much more it will be before the inspectors are through. I was told this morning that so far the shortage of $2,000 had been found, but 13 substitutions under De Rouzeau's care had not been investigated."

METCALFE'S DEFENSE.

Asks that His Dismissal Order be Suspended till He Makes It.

Washington, June 18.—The postmaster-general today designated Edward F. Kimball, the chief clerk of the money order system, to act temporarily as superintendent to succeed James T. Metcalfe, who was removed yesterday on the charge of indiscretion in contract matters.

Postmaster-General Payne today received a letter from Mr. Metcalfe asking a suspension of the order of dismissal until a complete defense may be heard. The letter says: "I cannot but feel that under ordinary circumstances such summary action as has been taken in my case should not have been had without giving me a chance to be heard by myself in my own defense."

"It must be due to the heated, excited and congested condition of affairs in the postoffice department that the postmaster-general has consented to the summary dismissal of a man who, for the best part of his life, since attaining manhood, has devoted his whole thought and being to the honest discharge of his duties to the government and the best interest of the postal service, in which no stain or suspicion has ever heretofore attached."

"The common sense of justice and the right of defense which my score of years of faithful public service entitled me to must impel the postmaster-general to grant me this opportunity for a remonstrance to him that his suspension of my order is respectfully asked until such time as you may hear from me."

NO VERDICT YET IN JETT-WHITE CASE

Intense Anxiety Over Decision of The Jury.

ATTY. BYRD'S BRAVE WORDS

Arraigns Defendants in Secret Terms
— Makes Effort to Plea to Jurors
To Do Their Duty.

Jackson, Ky., June 18.—As expected here, the jury in the case of Curtis Jett and Thomas White, charged with murdering J. B. Marcum, has been unable to agree on a verdict. The case has been in the hands of the jury all afternoon, and tonight it is stated that at least two jurors are holding out for conviction, while the others are divided, most of them favoring acquittal. The jurors went to bed early, and there will be no report before tomorrow.

During this suspense there has been intense anxiety about the courthouse and throughout the town in discussing what might follow either a verdict of guilty or of acquittal or of a compromise or imprisonment; but the indications are that the jury will finally report a disagreement. In that event, it is said, there will be no such probability of bloodshed and further acts of arson as there would be in the event of conviction; that there will be a general exodus of members of the Cardwell-Cockrell faction, the widows and orphans of victims and others, and that the dominant factions will be left without formidable opposition in holding the town as well as the county offices hereafter.

It is not expected that the prosecution for the murder of Marcum and others will stop with this jury. Although the court has been in session some weeks, at great expense to the county, and in the case of Marcum and others, it is believed that Inspector Hines will make such a report to the governor as to secure other trials under different conditions. It is remarked that the general exodus that is expected will take away many of those who might otherwise be depended on as witnesses and jurors.

It is not likely that the county will find such another witness as B. J. Ewen, who has removed to Lexington, or another such prosecutor as Commonwealth Attorney Byrd, who expects to leave at Winchester, Ky.

Business was practically suspended today. The reign of terror still continues, with all sorts of apprehension as to the future and no hope of any convictions under the present official conditions.

The members of the Hargis faction were almost jubilant tonight over the unofficial reports from the jury-room. It was claimed confidently that ten of the jurors were firmly for acquittal and the other two were being induced to join them tomorrow in a verdict of acquittal. It is mentioned that all of the men brought in for the panel "from which the jurors were selected" were brought in by deputies or members of the dominant faction, and that they can be depended upon for the result that is now present.

Another "circuit crowd" was present to hear the closing arguments in the case of Curtis Jett and Thomas White. The pleadings of Judge J. B. French, John D. O'Neal and R. B. Golden for the defense and of Capt. W. T. Hurst and Thomas Marcum for the prosecution yesterday and last night had attracted so much attention that all wanted to hear Commonwealth Attorney Byrd close the case this morning. The mothers of the defendants, widows of feud victims, and other ladies were again present.

While all men who entered the courthouse were searched every day for concealed weapons, extra precautions were taken today by the soldiers, as there are grave apprehensions as to what may happen with such a crowd in the town after the trial is concluded. It is a hung jury, it is said, that Gov. Beckham, who has State Inspector Hines here looking on, will not have the next trials in Breathitt county, nor Judge Redwine sit in other cases. Inspector Hines cannot back to investigate the attempt to bribe witness Ewen. Ewen had five witnesses to the attempt to bribe and threats of assassination and the destruction of his property.

There are grave fears for some newspaper men. Two correspondents left yesterday and their papers have been sent new men who are not known to the assassins. It is dangerous for one man to remain here long if his paper has a circulation in the town.

When court convened today R. B. Golden concluded for the defense and Commonwealth Attorney Byrd made his argument. Byrd has a reputation as a fearless prosecutor. When this case was announced he announced that he would do his duty, it mattered not who was hurt. Byrd has purchased a home in Winchester, Ky., and is preparing to remove his family to that place as soon as the case is over.

Byrd spoke of how Ewen had to be protected by soldiers, fearing that he would be assassinated if he ventured from his home unprotected and how he had been forced to remain under the protection of the soldiers since the trial. The defense objected frequently to the statements and in some instances was sustained and the prosecutor reprimanded by the judge.

Atty. O'Neal objected to a statement by Byrd that a motion had been made to dismiss the jury which was sustained and Byrd proceeded. Byrd asked the jury to be willing, if necessary, to make the same sacrifice that Capt. Ewen had made for justice. Raising his hand aloft and shaking it threateningly toward two prominent men who sat in court, he said: "I want to give warning to you and all of your followers that your blood-thirsty duels must stop in Breathitt county. Leave this county and its people. God knows they have suffered enough. God knows the day has got to come when the arson-assassins, the men who are the controlling powers behind the Jett and White, will be exposed to the world and either sent to prison or to the noose."

With clenched fists and slaking with emotion, Byrd walked toward the jury and said: "Gentlemen, you are on trial as well as Jett and White, and you must answer to the bar of public opinion as well as the bar of the Breathitt criminal court. You have got to do your duty or be pilloried by public opinion."

Byrd followed the testimony with merciless precision and lauded Ewen as a man, the superior of whom in manhood does not live. He was dazed in his denunciation of certain witnesses and others.

New York, June 18.—The World today publishes a dispatch from Princeton, N. Nor have I remotely entertained the thought since I left Washington, more than six years ago. The matter is as far from my thoughts as it was in 1896, when, all must admit, it was not within my hearing or my sight. I have no higher aspiration than to pass my days in peace with my family around me, and take no part in politics which any private citizen cannot take with the utmost propriety."

"I have not spoken to anybody on the subject of a fourth candidacy. I have never written to a single political friend one way or the other, nor have I been written to or spoken to by them. There is not a political leader of any prominence endeavoring to advance any movement to nominate me in any state, so far as I have been asked, nor do I anticipate that any such effort will be made by any leader, prominent or obscure, in any locality in that country."

"I have on several occasions within a year undertaken to perform the labor which usually falls to the private in the ranks, but there has not lurked within me the hope of any reward save the consciousness of having made an effort to assist in bringing about salutary conditions in the party."

Cured

My Wife of Heart Disease and

Myself of Nervous
Dyspepsia With

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure
and Nervine.

"If I had but known what medicine and what physicians were reliable I would have bought $1,000 ahead today. For years my wife had been troubled with fluttering and palpitation of the heart accompanied by weak, nervous spells. We consulted several different local doctors and tried nearly every patent medicine I heard of and my wife had almost given up in despair when my druggist advised her to give Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Restorative Nervine a trial. After taking one-half bottle of the Nervine she felt better than she had in twenty years. She bought three bottles of each and is today enjoying better health than she did in all her life. I know it is all due to Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and New Heart Cure, I think Restorative Nervine is the best medicine on earth. As a stomach remedy it cannot be beaten. It cured me of nervous dyspepsia and if from any cause I feel nervous and I think my stomach is going to trouble me I just take a few doses of Nervine and Nerve and Liver Pills and I soon feel all right again. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are the best remedy for headache and pains I have ever used. I always keep a box in my house. One Pain Pill will knock any pain in thirty minutes. I have been using Dr. Miles' Restorative Remedies in my family seven years and think they are the best in the world."—ISAAC HIRSHLEY, Station Master, Santa Fe R. R., Wichita, Kan.

publicly, and appointed May 27, Coronation day, for the massacre.

Terror seized the Hebrew population, which assembled in the synagogue on the day appointed. There were 5,000 persons within and without the building awaiting the beginning of the massacre, but the police paraded the streets in force and prevented the gathering of mobs, although some persons formed crowds and shouted to start the Jews dead. The day, however, passed without any serious outbreak.

The marshal of the aristocrats, Prince Guittait, and several priests of the Russian church, attended the coronation celebration in the synagogue so as to reassure the Jews. Their presence caused a restraint on the populace.
