THE SITUATION IN AFRICA.

General Wolseley's Official Report of an Engagement with the Enemy.

LONDON, 26.—General Wolseley, in a dispatch to the War Office, recounts an engagement at Magar on Thursday, in which he held the ground a whole day against 10,000 Egyptians. His force was 2,000, in detail. Wolseley says: I was in the morning before breakfast with the Household Cavalry, two horse artillery guns, 30 mounted infantry, and 1,000 men from the York and Lancaster regiments and marines. After some skirmishing took possession of a dam which the enemy had cut across the canal between the villages of Magar and Mahala. During the operations two squadrons of Household Cavalry charged the enemy's broken infantry very gallantly. I soon found the enemy were being largely reinforced from Tel Kebir. I could see them with a fair promise so that having made a stand at the English, and he set a price upon Delessy's head.

Help to Arm.

It is rumored that Arabi has received 5,000 of the best troops from Kebir Pasha, it is supposed to Tel Kebir.

Defectors from Arabi Pasha's forces state that Arabi Pasha has been poisoned for departing with Arabi Pasha.

The British have occupied Marsa.

It is rumored that Arabi received

Delessy's forces, and he deceived him with a false promise so that having made a stand at the English, and he set a price upon Delessy's head.

Help to Arm.

Port Said, 25.—Some of the principal Arab merchants on Port Said and Damietta have combined their money towards the rescue of the rebels. Five hundred horses have been sent by them from Damietta. Wild horses are still circulated among the natives of Arabi Pasha's great success.

The soldiers are landing guns from the vessels here with a view to arm a train similar to that at Alexandria.
