FINE PROGRAM IS PREPARED

Musical Features Prominent in the Numbers to be Given by Local Lodge.

At the Salt Lake theater, the local lodge of Elks will hold memorial services in honor of the departed members on the evening of Dec. 6. These services are always beautiful and impressive, and the event will be no exception to the rule. Judging from the number of tickets which have been distributed by the officers of the lodge, the theater will be packed.

Following is the program in full:
Orchestra, "March Celebre."
Opening ceremonies.
Ritualistic address.
Toll call.
Eulogistic response.
Orpheus club, A. H. Peabody, leader, rendering Pilgrim's chorus from "Tannhauser" during roll call.

Ceremonial responses.
Officers of the lodge
Opening ode.
Great Ruler of the universe,
All seeing and benign,
Look down upon and bless our work,
And be all glory Thine.

Oh, hear our prayers, for the honored dead,
While bending in our mind
The memories graven on each heart,
For "Auld Lang Syne."

BUTTER TAKES A DROP.

Five commission houses have reduced the price of fresh butter from 40 to 25 cents, while two firms are holding out for the higher price. One of the former firms explains that the price of butter was forced up to compel the public to buy the cheaper storage butter, which had accumulated on the hands of dealers until it was patent something must be done to get rid of it. The plan of putting up the price of fresh butter to accomplish this failed to work satisfactorily, as the public curtailed its consumption of the fresh article, using more lard and fats in cooking, and scurried at the table article. So the coalition fell apart, and butter is down.

KILLED BY CAVE IN.

William Leal, a shift boss, and one miner refused to go to work in the Boston Consolidated Tunnel on Friday after a cave in had killed a miner by the name of George H. Jacobs. They refused to resume their duties saying that the tunnel was unsafe.
Jacobs was killed at 5 o'clock Friday morning, as he went on shift. He was buried under a quantity of earth and rock.
Jacobs, at the time of his death, had been working for the Boston Consolidated company for 17 days. He boarded at the men's house.

The body will be taken in charge by Eber W. Hall.

WARDEN PRATT RETURNS.

Warden Pratt of the state prison and Mrs. Pratt have returned from attendance on the National Prison congress at Richmond, Va. Mr. Pratt says the people of Richmond were very hospitable, and the hand of welcome was extended to them everywhere. He gained much valuable information about dealing with criminals, and of the methods adopted by various states in handling criminal business. Mr. Pratt was honored by being made a director of the congress for the coming year. He said he expected Majors and Sullivan would attempt to escape, during his absence, but was pleased to see the attempt had been nipped in the bud.

MACK AND MARCUS BOOKED.

Clever Cartoonists to Take the Road With Sketching Act.

Mack and Marcus, a new vaudeville team which is to present a cartoon act under the name of "Evolution," will start from Salt Lake on Dec. 27. Word has been received from the eastern offices of the Orpheum circuit to the effect that the act will be given booking. The act will play a week here and in Denver and then go west by way of Butte to Portland. "Evolution" will be the second act to start from this city on the Orpheum circuit. A few months ago the "Modern Pochontas," which is a hit in the east, left here on the circuit and made good from the start.

FOUND DEAD IN HIS ROOM.

Stranger Succumbs to Sudden Attack Of Pneumonia.

Last evening a man giving the name of Nick Enzen, apparently about 32 years of age, a camp cook by trade, went to a roominghouse at 217 south Second West street, paid for a bed, retired, and at 7:10 this morning was found dead in bed from pneumonia. The case has some remarkable features in that the man was apparently in good health when he took the room. During the night other roomers heard him coughing but thought nothing of the matter. At the time stated this morning an employe of the house went to the room and found the man dead. The police station was immediately notified and Patrolmen Teuger and Dwyer made an investigation. The policemen said that when they arrived at the room Enzen apparently had a spark of life in him and Dr. Pinkerton was quickly summoned. The physician pronounced the man dead as the result of an attack of pneumonia. The body was removed to O'Donnell's undertaking establishment, and it is not likely that an inquest will be held. But little is known of the man. There were no papers among his effects to indicate where he came from or if he had any relatives and he had no money.

Mat. Thomas has removed his law offices to 316-317 Judge Building.

PROVO.

DISTRICT COURT NOTES.

Ungrateful Youth Sent to Industrial School—Garden City Notes.

Provo, Dec. 5.—Phillip Weinstein, a 17-year-old boy whose home is in Chicago, was committed to the industrial school yesterday by Justice Noon as a vagrant. The boy appears to be an ungrateful youngster. Some months ago he came here from California and told a pitiful story of having been mistreated by his aunt in California, with whom he had been living. He was then on his way to Chicago. Judge Noon's heart was touched and he paid the boy's fare to Chicago and gave him a new suit of clothes. (The judge received a very appreciative letter from the boy's mother after her son had arrived in Chicago.) Yesterday young Weinstein was found with some tramps at the depot, having worked back from Chicago, and was again taken before Judge Noon, with the result stated.

LIGHT VOTE POLLED.

There were only a few votes cast at the school election today, being only one set of nominees, who were of course elected. The new members of the board of education are: J. W. Farrer, A. O. Smoot, Jr., E. W. Bassett, Arthur N. Taylor and W. E. Bassett.

DUKE-HARDING NUPTIALS.

A marriage license has been issued to Sidney T. Harding and Emmeline Duke, both of Provo.

COURT NOTES.

An information charging Joshua A. Ferris with a statutory crime has been filed in the Fourth district court. Studebaker Bros. Co., has commenced suit against Joseph E. Smith, et al. to recover a colt or its value, $75.

Suit has been commenced by the Utah Lake Water & Power company, against Edward Westermire to collect $450, with interest on a promissory note.

The time for sentence of Nathaniel Williams has been continued till Monday, Dec. 7.

Celeb Tanner, vs Provo Bench Canal Co., a suit brought by plaintiff to obtain the right to carry water through the canal of the defendant company, is now being heard in the Fourth district court.

GARDEN CITY NOTES.

Bishop T. N. Taylor delivered an interesting lecture on temperance last night in the Second ward meeting-house.

Ople Reed will lecture this evening in College hall.

George E. Howe, formerly of Salt Lake, but for many years a merchant in this city, is closing out his business and will return to Salt Lake to live.

Rev. Elmer J. Goshen will deliver the memorial sermon tomorrow before the Elks' club, at the annual memorial services of the order.

WEEKLY MARKET LETTER.

Special Correspondence.
Kansas City Stock Yards, Nov. 29.—Prices on western cattle declined slightly after Monday last week, closing with about all of the advance of the first of the week lost, except that stockers and feeders held up good to the end.

There was a good supply from the range country, and this week is opening up with liberal offerings from Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona. The total supply today is 12,000 head here and moderate elsewhere, general market 10 to 15 higher, stockers and feeders 10 to 20 higher today. The good demand from the country is a feature of the market, shipments of stockers and feeders from this market last week totaling 500 car loads. The cause of the decline in beef cattle prices last week was the increased demand for poultry and game during the holiday week, and the reaction today was expected. A train of Ballentine & Beggs Colorado beef steers sold here today at $4.85, a satisfactory price to the shippers. A few Colorado beef steers reached $5.50 last week, bulk at $4.40 to $4.85, stockers today at $4.65, top Colorado cows 15 days $4.35, although cows reached $4.50 last week. Colorado feeders range from $4.00 to $4.85, stockers $3.85 to $4.00. Wyoming beef steers last week at $4.30 to $5.50, New Mexico, Arizona and Panhandle beef steers bring $3.50 to $4.50, stockers and feeders, $3.65 to $4.40; cows, $2.25 to $3.60; bulls, $2.30 to $3.00; calves, $2.25 to $2.50, as few light veals are included. The calf market is 25 to 50 cents higher today. Dealers figure on moderate receipts and stronger markets for the next few weeks.

Sheep and lamb receipts are moderate, run 28,000 last week, 10,000 here today. The market was uneven last week, but closed at the best point, and slightly above close of previous week, especially on lambs. Lambs are again higher today, top on fed lambs today $6.35, highest price this fall. Fed yearlings sold today at $4.85 to $5.10, although best quality would bring $5.25 or more, fair to good wethers today $4.25 to $4.50; ewes, $3.50 to $4.25. Good supplies of Arizona and New Mexico sheep and lambs continue to come, mostly on the feeding order, feeding lambs at $4.50 to $5.35, wethers and yearlings $4.00 to $4.40; ewes, $2.50 to $3.25; breeding ewes around $4.

THE DIAGNOSIS

Ossie Shreck, formerly of the Athletics, but now of the Chicago White Sox, was feeling under the weather one day recently, and Powers, who is somewhat of a doctor, happened in the clubhouse about that time.

"Say, Doc, what do you suppose is the matter? There are clouds before my eyes and a roaring like distant thunder in my ears."
"Um-m-m, let me see. Do you feel a chill as if the temperature had suddenly fallen?"
"Yes, yes."
"Do you notice it cold draft, as if the wind has risen?"
"Yes, yes."
"There, put this in your mouth."
"Eh—what is it Doc?"
"It's a barometer. You're threatened with a brainstorm."—Washington Star.

THE BORN Steel Range

There are four things a stove should do—look well—bake well—wear well—and save fuel.

Most every stove fills the first condition, some fill two of them, but we don't know a single stove that does all four things as well as the Born. And it's because the Born is highest in quality and efficiency—that it is by far the most economical to buy. First cost is not expensive either. Call and let us show you what the Born Range does that stoves can't do. Like cut—

$43.50

Our entire line of heaters will be closed out at 7500 percent reserves. Open evenings.
