TOMMY MARKHAM IS IN THE CITY.

He is Ready and Willing to Meet Bert Danford at Catch Weights.

BEGAN TRAINING TODAY.

Eureka Boy Will be Under Direction Of Eddle Robinson; Dauford Will Be Trained by Willard Bean.

judging from expressions of local fight fans the great majority are highly pleased over the proposed match between Tommy Markham and Bert Danford, which is scheduled to take place in the near future. The boys are to meet at eatch weights. and that they will put up a slashing conand that they will put up a slashing contest is confidently predicted by those who have seen both men in action. They are pretty evenly matched although Markham will have a shade in ring experience.

Markham is now in the city and began training today under the direction of Eddis Robinson. Danford has been sent for sad will be here in a day or two and go to Willard Bean's "gym," where he will be prepared for the contest. Neither man requires much work to get into condition for the reason that each takes good care of himself.

Both have been working hard; Danford at his sawmill in Smithfield, and Markham in the mines at Robinson. It is a fact that these boxers do not dissipate and when not training for a contest in the roped arena, they work for their living.

the roped arena, they work for their living.

Just as soon as Danford arrives articles of agreement will be drawn up and signed. The probabilities are that straight Marquis of Queensbury rules will govern the bout, and that the pursawill be divided 60 and 40 per cent.

"From what I have heard of Danford, he is a prety husky lad," said Markham today, "But I believe I have a good chance to beat him. Certainly I will be in good condition and be able to stand some of his terrific punches. I have a prety good assortment myself and think I can land them. He will have an advantage in weight, but I think I have had more experience. I am already in good condition because I have been working in the mines for a long time and am abard as nails."

The arrangements made for the train-

The arrangements made for the training of the boxers please local fight fans. Robinson will have one, and Bean will take the other. By this arrangement the boys will not be pestered by the advice-giving-aweater-brigade-meal-ticket - pugs. This class of pugs are not wanted here, either by the promoters or the authorities, and assurance has been given that they will not be tolerated.

JIU JITSU MATCH OFF. Prof. Eddie Robinson Wisely Decides to Leave Jap Alone.

"If the Japs will agree to let their man meet me in private for a reasonable side bet, I will only be too glad to take on any man they can get at 130 pounds. He may use jiu jitsu, and I will use the American method."

Thus spoke Eddie Robinson this morning, referring to the calling off of the proposed match scheduled to take place at Park City Monday night. Continuing, Robinson said:

"I do not want the public to have a chance to think I am going into a sure thing proposition, or an easy chance to think I am going into a sure thing proposition, or an easy-money graft. I honestly believe that this match, should it come off, would be onesided and that, like the other match, the public would not be satisfied."
Robinson is wise in his determination for undoubtedly the Jap would be bested. The Japs want Robinson to wear a jacket and wrestle straight fin jitsu. He frankly admits that he does not know the sys-tem, and it would be foolish for him to enter that kind of a contest. He agrees enter that kind of a contest. He agrees to wrestle as he did the first match, and that should satisfy the Japs, but Robin-son insists that the contest be private.

SAM BERGER A FAVORITE. Ceast Fight Fans Think He Has Chance With Jeffries.

With Jeffries.

Sports here have been discussing big Jeff for the past few days, and the net result is that Sam Berger, who did a guick stunt last week in knocking out Richards, is doped as the man who ought to take a hack at the champion in the near future. But Johnson is still on the eligible list.

Richards came here heralded as the best amateur east of the Rockies. Mr. Richards was not there when the second round began. To tell the truth, there was no second round, Mr. Richards reposing peacefully on the boards for the count, one minute and twenty-three seconds after the battle started.

Berger did the job with such neatness and precision that it has aroused anew the old feeling that he is of the caliber of champions. The Pacific coast amateur has recently disposed of Casey and Long, two other aspirants, just as decisively as he did Richards. Indeed, the only biot on his escutcheon is the decision he lost to Redenbach, the New York matteur, and there were many at the ringside who are convinced that the New York boy could not repeat his previous feat were he to tackle the Berger of today.

One of the most ardent admirers of Berger is Eddy Graney, the referee. Now Graney has seen many fights and fighters, and is regarded as a shrewd Judge of a ringster's ability.

Nearly a year ago Graney said, "Sam Berger will some day be heavyweight champion," And today he sees no renson for withdrawing that prediction.

Of course, not even his most sanguine friends expect to see him take on Jeffries in the next few months and give him the same dose he gave Richards.

But he is young—just twenty, to be exact—and is still an amateur.

It is believed he can whip any of the big professionals cutside of the champion, and today he sees no renson for withdrawing that prediction.

TOOK AN EARLY START. Harvard Football Squad Regins Practise For Next Season.

Cambridge, March 23.—Catch Reid has begun arrangements for next fall's football campraign. He intends to get out all his available men for spring practise some time before the Easter holidaya. Nothing will be left undone to provide a winning team, and the early start is in line with Reid's ideas. The schedule probably will not be announced until the middle of April, although negotiations with various colleges have been under way for some time.

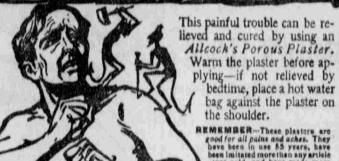

Two big games have been definitely arranged. Yale playing Cambridge on Nov. 28, and Harvard in Philadelphia against Pennsylvania on Nov. II. Columbia, Brown, Dartmouth, Carlisle Indians and Williams are likely to get places on Harvard's schedule, but concerning the other teams there is considerable doubt. Harvard's season will be one week longer Follow Each New Discovery of Science. Follow Each New Discovery of Science.

The great strides that medical science has made in the last few years is due to the germ theory. When the germ of a disease has been discovered, the doctors have not been slow in finding a drug to kill it. In a few years it will be more to find a bald-headed man or woman. The falling out of hair is due to a dandruff germ, and now it has been discovered how to kill this germ. The remedy used is called Newbro's Herpicide. Its success has been marvelous. Not a failure has been so far reported. It is also a delightful hair dressing free from oil or sticky substances. Try it and be convinced of its actual merit, Sold by leading druggists. FOR A LEPROSARIUM.

The senate passed a bill to establish somewhere in the United States a leprosarium for the segregation of lepers. It was late at night after pensions had been considered for two hours and only been considered for two hours and only soven senators were present. Two of these, Ankeny of Washington and Overman of North Carolina, didn't count, because they took no part in the proceeding. The chief actors were Ball of Delaware. Crane of Massachusetts, Cullom of Illinois, Allison of Iowa and Kean of New Jersey. Kean was pre-siding. The bill was introduced by Crane and reported by Ball. Cullom Crane and reported by Ball. Cullom wanted an executive session, but was willing Ball should eall up the bill.

Allison was willing it should pass without an appropriation, while Ball said that such an amendment would destroy the measure. The funny part of it was that the four senators stood in a row and talked among themselves, discussing the merits of the bill. Finally after much trouble Allison relented and the bill went through. It was Ball's first apperance, and possibly his last, as he goes out March 4.

THURSTON'S VOICE.

Deep, rolling, reverberating tones filled the senate, and as doors were opened the corridors were flooded with melodious eloquence. There was a struggle by those outside to get into the galleries. Eloquence was on tap, and to some it was a strange and new eloquence, but to those who were around the Capitol between 1894 and 1900 it was simply the return of a lost sound, something that had been missed. It was ex-Senator Thurston addressing the senate as counsel for Judge Swayne. Deep, rolling, reverberating tones filled the senate as counsel for Judge Swayne There is not another voice like Thurston's in all the country. It has been heard in national conventions and on the stump, and it was heard for six years in the senate.

Party lines are not drawn, for Democrats and Republicans are found on both sides. The interesting point is that nothing The interesting point is that nothing like a unanimous report can be obtained from this committee on any apportant bill. Whenever the majority favors a bill there is a minority report. Although there is so much division, the best personal feeling prevails among the members of the committee.

OUR ANNIVERSARY.

Keith-O'Brien Co.

HOUSANDS of our friends rejoiced with us yesterday on the occasion of our second anniversary. We were glad to see them; they were glad to see us—and a most congenial time was had. At first we thought it would be neat to present flowers to our friends. But there was another thought coming—it was a good one. Why not give the equivalent of the flowers to our friends in the way of a 10 per cent reduction on every article purchased during the day? And so it transpired that we gave them about $500.

It was a splendid day. The sun smiled from a clear sky and there was a great outpouring of shoppers. When the purchases were large they were tickled; when they bought thread and similar nickle articles and the discount was made they became immensely tickled. Altogether it was a glorious anniversary—and we are heartily in favor of more anniversaries.

Two ladies were reading one of the papers. Said one of them: "Do you suppose this sale is on the square?" Answered the other: "I got a yard and a half of a certain kind of ribbon down there yesterday. I will go down and buy a like quantity of the same ribbon and see if the 10 per cent discount is given me without asking for it. If it is I will telephone you and we will buy a lot of things." The 10 per cent discount was on the square all right and the ladies made their purchase.
