for trial on the charge of the murder of Abijah Ellis, whose remains were found in two barrels in Charles River ten days ago.

mail house, Brooklyn, and 50,000 bushels of malt, were burned this morning.

day appointed G. M. Fairman postmaster for Philadelphia, vice Bingham resigned.

Nelson, minister to Mexico, had a long interview with President Grant this p.m., relating to the condition of affairs in that country. He speaks in praise of the new President's moderation, especially of his intelligence, and desire to increase and strengthen the friendship now existing between his country and the U. S. There seems no obstacle to concluding a new convention extending the time for disposing of the remaining claims before the Mexican commission, which by limitation will expire at the present convention February next. It is stated that President Tejado is anxious for such extension and will appoint an agent in good faith to carry out the design of the commission in place of Guzman, by whose action the proceedings in some weeks were interrupted, and preliminary steps have already been taken for a new convention.

Sey Delano's friends are working to create a local feeling here favorable to his appointment as collector of the Treasury in the event of Boatwell's election. It is confidently asserted today that Delano's friends that the position has been tendered him by the President.

Gen. Butler wrote a friend that he is not a candidate for the Senate against H. C. Bell, and that before he enters the Senate, "green" he expects to be governor of Massachusetts.

Attorney General Williams has decided adversely upon C. A. Berry and Company's claim for compensation for cattle, wagons, &c., lost or destroyed in accompanying the march of troops into Utah against the Mormons in 1857.

In this case Mr. Williams says the claim does not come within the law providing for payment for property lost or destroyed in the military service, either by impressment or contract, and that this law does not necessarily apply to every interference with or pass upon the property of property by military authorities, nor would a contract or designation of property by such authority necessarily give the owners a claim for its payment under the statute.

Adjutant General Siegel to Lafayette county to investigate the alleged dis-say, to-day, addressed the Legislature convened at the capitol and consisting of conservative members, that he would not give a message in to-morrow, in reply to the communication from the Republican members who organized as a legislature.

The governor will not form a committee to legal organization of the legislature at the capitol by law, and the usual place of meeting, which supreme insurmitable necessity only can change.
He will, however, of such necessity, and therefore decline to recognize those assembled in the court room, and will have no official communication with them.

Rand & Co., destroyed, was one of the best appointed in New England, employing some 200 hands. The loss is style of hats are exceedingly ugly, but they buy them nevertheless. They would buy a hedge-hog if it had bigger eyes.

They don't care much about the fire in Boston. It is a mere trifle; but to have the sacred Common decorated by a lot of wholesale dry goods, statistics is a little too much.

Money, Boston, is not worth over three or four per cent before the fire, but the rate of interest will most likely be to increase the rate of interest in New England for some time to come.

A large and powerful but skittish young man, attached to a handcart, ran away on Main Street yesterday after noon, to the great alarm of the citizens of the midwest.

He was caught, however, before doing any damage—by a woman.
