Civic League Tonight-A public meeting of the new Civic lengue will be held at the Y. M. C. A. this even-ing, when views will be expressed as to the best plans for the advancement of local civic conditions generally. A large attendance is expected.

An Abundance of Twins-Mrs. W. R. Coombs of 142 Third East street presented her husband last evening, with twins, a boy and a girl, weighing seven pounds each. The father's brother, Frank Coombs, was presented by his better half March 1 last, with twins also.

Medical Society Meeting—The Salt Lake Medical society met last night, at the Commercial club. The topic for discussion was, "Should Salt Lake City Have a First Aid Society?" and Prof. R. V. Chamberlain gave a talk on the medical work being done at the State University.

Painfully Hurt-Mrs. Henry Gorrie was caught yesterday afternoon, by a section of falling fence in front of the Metropole on east Third South street, and painfully hurt. She was taken into the Imperial hotel close by, and her injuries attended to by Dr. Raley, after which she was able to presend to her home. proceed to her home.

Decided to Rent-The directors of the Y. W. C. A. met last evening, and decided to rent a suitable building until permanent quarters can be secured. It is designed to secure a lot and erect a home for the association. A con-stitution was adopted last evening, and an adjournment taken for one week when committees who are at work will report.

New Republican Paper—Articles of incorporation of the Bingham Publish-ing company of Bingham have been filed in the county clerk's office. The company is formed for the purpose of publishing a weekly Republican paper at Bingham in opposition to the Bing-nam Bulletin. The capital stock of the company is $3,500, divided into shares of the par value of $5 each. A. V. Anderson, former mayor of Bing-ham, is president; W. H. Dunn, vice president; R. B. Porter, secretary, treasurer and general manager.

Pleasing Pupils' Recital—A large audience attended last evening's vocal recital given by Mme, Swenson's ad-vanced pupils in the Y. M. C. A. The program included numbers by Miss Zora Shaw, Mrs. L. L. Goddard, Miss Allie Fletcher and Miss Addle Fletch-er, and with such a well selected pro-gram and such good voices it was not difficult to make a success of the evendifficult to make a success of the even-ing. The vocalists all did well, their selections being such as to show their voices with the best results. They are a valuable addition to Salt Lake's BURGLARY ATTEMPT MADE. CHURCH NOTICES But Failed Because Drug Store Clerk At a meeting of the First Presidency and Apostles held in Salt Lake City, Feb. 15, 1806, it was decided to hold a convention of Church recorders in the Assembly hall. Salt Lake City, on Fri-day, April 6, 1906, to commence at 4 p. m. or immediately after the adjourn-ment of the afternoon session of the general conference. All stake and ward cierks and historians, clerks of mis-sions, conferences, branches, quorums, and auxiliary organizations, and others who are interested in record keeping, are cordially invited to attend. and as matters of importance to all members of the Church, and to recorders particular-by will be presented, it is essential that versal. Presidents of stakes, missions, branches and quorums, Bishops of wards and other presiding officers, are also respectfully invited to attend. MNTHON H. LUND, RUDGER CLAWSON, Committee on Church Records. Used a Gun. A would-be burglar made an unsuccessful attempt to break into the Lloyd drug store, corner Seventh East and Seventh South, about 1 o'clock this morning. C. Carhart, the clerk, and his friend, J. B. Edmonids, had just entered the front door of the place from a trip down town, when they heard the sound of breaking glass in the rear. Securing a pistol each, one man remained inside, while the other went around the building. A fellow, who was at work at a window, upon who was at work at a window, upon seeing some one approach, jumped the nearby high board fence, and made his escape. The shots fired after the fleeing prowler failed to stop him. Police headquarters was notified and the pa-trol wagon repaired to the scene. The officers found the window broken and an axe, which had been secured at a neighboring coalhouse, but no trace of the man who sought to break into the premises could be found. Committee on Church Records. The general conference of the Relief society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will be held in the Salt Lake Assembly hall in Salt Lake City, Thursday, April 5, 1906. Meetings will commence at 10 a. m. and at 2 p. m. as usual. It is hoped there will be a good representation from every stake organization and a large attendance of members. The First Presidency of the Church, Apostles, Partiarch, Council of Seven-ty, Bishops and other brethren, also the sisters of other L. D. S. Church organizations are cordially invited to be present. premises could be found.

AFFLICTED WITH RHEUMATISM. AFFLICTED WITH RHEUMATISM. "I was and am yet afflicted with rheu-matism." says Mr. J. C. Bayne, editor of the Herald, Addington. Indian Territory. "but thanks to Chamberlain's Pain Balm am able once more to attend to business. It is the best of liniments." If troubled with rheumatism give Pain Balm a trial and you are certain to be more than pleas-ed with the prompt relief which it affords. One application relieves the pain. For Sale by all druggists.

MEN'S CLUB MET.

At Last Evening's Session Officers

Were Chosen.

There will be a meeting of the gen-eral, stake and local officers of the Mutual Improvement associations, on April 9, in the Fourteenth ward assem-by hall at 10 a.m. All interested are cordially invited to attend. Secretaries and recorders are specially invited to attend a meeting called by Prest. Lund and others Friday, April 6, in the As-sembly hall at the close of the after-noon service. The Men's club of the First Congregational church met in annual session last night, in the parlors of the church, when the following officers were chosen: President, A. O. Clark; vice presien: President, A. O. Clark; vice presi-dent, George K. Smith; treasurer, C. O. Clelland, and secretary, George W. Hol-brooke. A banquet a la beefsteak was served at the close of the election, and the new and the retiring officers were MARTHA H. TINGEY, ANN M. CANNON, toasted. About 60 members were pres-General Secretary.
