

FROZEN SHEEP.

Visit to the Biggest Frozen Meat Factory of the World at Buenos Ayres.

The Animals Are Killed and Prepared for Europe—The Sheep of the Argentine Country Has Over One Hundred Millions of Them and Produces a Hundred Millions of Wool for Each Person in It. A Visit to the Biggest Producer Market in the Gaucho. How the Wool Is Handled—Live Stock Shipments and How the Argentine Is Improving Its Cattle and Sheep—A Ram Which Cost $1000 and Rams at $3,000 Apiece.

Written and by Frank O. Carpenter.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1898, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

1898, No. 2, 25¢.

1898, No. 2,