DESERET EVENING NEWS WEDNESDAY MARCH 11 1908

(Pollock Special Wire.) New York, March 11.—A representa-tive of Utah Copper company says production is now running at the rate of 40.000.000 pounds a year. On 13-cent copper this means a profit of $2,000.000 annually. It is planned to begin divi-dends at the rate of 50 cents a share quarterly, using surplus over earnings in increasing capacity of the concen-trator by 40, or 50 per cent. UTAH CONSOLIDATED.

Officials Seem to Be Well Pleased

With A. S. & R. Contract. .1014 Utah Consolidated officials say that 49

through shipping the ore to the Garfield custom smeller the company will make its copper this year at a lower cost per pound than it did last, when it used its own smelting plant, says George Walk-er in the Boston Commercial. They declare that the new ore bodies en-countered some time ago are showing 62 18 3016 03% up exceptionally well, and that the mine never looked better than it does .08% 74 .48 In metallurgical circles in New York I was told this week that Utah Con-solidated would make a saving of 18 cents per ton on the new smelting con-tract. It was stated that this result had been reached by figuring and com-paring every point in the new contract with the cost of treating ore in the company's old plant. Under its new contract Utah Consolidated pays so much a ton for smelting and loses a small percentage of the gross values in its ores. It gets pay, however, for ex-cess iron and limestone, and of course will have no smelter smoke damage cases to contest with the farmers. sked

W. Madsen and associates are the vendors and H. U. Hart, representing an easters client associates are the vendors and H. U. Hart, representing an eastern client-age, is the purchaser. The initial payment was made during the day and the balance of the purchase price, the amount of which has not been divulged, will be forthcoming within the next 15 months. In addition to securing a control of the Century, Mr. Hart has obtained an option on the territory owned by the West Century Mining company adjoining the 12 pat-ented claims in possession of the Cen-tury, company. company.

The vendors of the Century com-iany have agreed to turn the proper-ty over free or debt and in order to accomplish this, the directors will meet today and levy an assessment to wipe out the $1.800 of its obliga-tions.

tions. The Century has produced consid-erable gold builton in the past, and the proceeds therefrom have been di-vided among shareholders from time to time. The mine is equipped with a 16-statup hill, compressor plana, good mine buildings, etc. The pur-chasing crowt contemplates numer-ous changes, important among which will be the building of a power plant on Raft river a few miles distart from the mine. The Century has had many ups and downs and it is to be hoped that it will turn out to be as valuable as the purchasing crowd be-lieves it to be.

GUGGENHEIM QUOTED.

A Boston financial paper quotes Daniel Guggenheim with having made the following statement, which would probably not be recognized by the not-ed smclting magnate. The paper says: "Daniel Guggenheim of the American Smelting and Refining company, was recently asked about the United States Smalling Refining and Mining comsecently asked about the United States Smelting. Refining and Mining com-pany's position in Utah. Mr. Guggen-heim stated that he would see to it that the United States company did not make a dollar from its Utah smelting operations, even though the Guggenheim opposition to the United States company prevented his com-panies from profitable operation. These remarks left an impression that the Guggenheim interests had more or less to do with the opposition of the furm-ing interests to the smelters in Salt Lake valley. If this view is the cor-rect one, it was a profitable though possibly an unfair move, but it has left
