

thing sneaky he accompanies it with cursing Massachusetts. The Democratic party, when they were whipping wo-This same Doherty guarded the door to Mr. Hoat's committue room for alparty, when they were whipping wo-men and setting little children into tor's factorum. Some one, in describslavery in the southern states, always ing him not long ago, referred to him as Senator Hoar's "Fidus Achates." "Do you see what,these newspaper undertook to cover themselves from public attention by cursing Massa-chusetts. The gentleman has said that, like Troy of old, Massachusetts is not men have been calling you?" said Sen ator Hoar, directing Doherty's attention defended on this floor today by her to the paragraph. ablest representative. Let me say to that gentleman that Troy did not need to put forward Hector to defend her "What does that mean, senator? anxiously inquired Doherty, as he read -to him-the strange expression. against an attack which was led by Thersites!" "I would not like to tell you, Do-herty," solmenly replied the senator, Doherty immediately started out to discover the offending newspaper man but in telling his troubles to a fellow employe he was enlightened as to the meaning of the Latin words.

don't see the third. Senator Hoar had one story that he

When Dr. Ostler left the hotel after was fond of telling. It ran as follows: "My old friend Prof. Gallaudet, of the the

nization of bandits west of the rait

and more and more seriously every | fair week were both mentally and year, and that is an intermountain physically distressing. ests of all the states and territories be tween the plains country and the Paci-fic coast. It is held that Salt Lake City is peculiarly adapted for the location of such a fair, and that the time is not far distant when this expectation shall bear gratifying fruit.

BUSY ON THE GROUNDS. The extensive grounds of the state tair are a hive of activity today, with society officials, exhibitors, horsemen, stockmen, showmen, concessionaires, and a swarm of workmen of all kinds and a swarm of workmen of all kinds scattered about, all with one aim in view, viz., to get everything in work-ing order for the opening day. This comes, this year, on Tuesday, Oct. 4. the fair continuing through five days. Acting President McDonald is on the field directing affairs in person, and no time is being lost. Men have for some time been busily employed improving the race track, which is row in fine condition for fast speeding. Any de-fects that may have been noticed in the grandstand have been remedied. In the east end of the stand a sadding paddock is now rady, so that it will not a the east and of the stand a saddling paddock is now rady, so that it will not be necessary to take horses back to the mables between heats, and 20 new stalls for horses have been added to the stable equipment, so that all com-ers can now be suitably accommodated. And, in general, it may be said that the management has given particular attention to the wants of the horse-men and to race track equipment, so a and to race track equipment, so at the most satisfactory results may

EXHIBITORS INTERESTED.

The cattle and sheep men are mani-festing marked interest all over the state, and the exhibits of this class are for to be worth coming a long dis-tance to see, for the very best of Utah

FOR HALF HOLIDAY.

Governor and Mayor Join in Proclamation to Citizens.

Governor Heber M. Wells and Mayor Richard P. Morris this morning issued an address urging the people of this state to give the state fair their hear-tlest support and suggesting that next Tuesday afteroon be observed as a hol-iday and that business be suspended after 1 o'clock on that day to permit all who desire an opportunity to at-tend the opening of the fair. The address follows in full: To the People of Salt Lake City:

The directors of the Descret Agricul tural and Manufacturing society give forth the assurance, and they have every reason to expect that the state fair of 1904 will appropriately signalize the great industrial triumphs and the grat-ifying general prosperity which have characterized the season now drawing to a close. Of the annual exhibition given under the auspices of this society the approaching one, should lead all its predecessors in the variety, complete-ness and excellence of its display. Such occasions are beneficial and instructive in the measure that they are structive in the measure that they are visited and taken part in by the public at large. Their value as encourage-ment to endeavor and as educational object lessons, if properly utilized, can-not be overestimated. The state has wisely and generously decreed that these opportunities for healthy com-patition and for public instruction and enjoyment shall be maintained; and it remains now for the nearble to take It remains now for the people to take unto themselves the profit and the pleasure provided for them. To the

(Continued on page 2.)

The house was delighted by this keen thrust, which left Mr. Cox in no con-dition to continue the debate. All the Washington correspondents the next day related the incident, and, with the help of the classical dictionary, care-fully explained the allusion. No re-Congress since that time has atracted so much notice or made for its author so wide a constation. Outside the senate chamber Mr. Hoar's humor was catching and spon-

"Senator, I want one of your pictures friend of Blaine's was walking with taneous.

HARCOURT DEAD.

The Finest Political Gladiator of

His Age" Died Suddenly at Nuncham Park.

LEADER OF ENGLISH LIBERALS

His Wife, a Daughter of the Late John

Lathrop Motley, Alone Was With

Him at His Death.

In his autobiography published last year Mr. Hoar relates an anecdote anent the late James G. Blaine, which while it doesn't affect the Massachusetts man personally, is a token of his keen appreciation of a situation. for tone and Disraeli. The coincidence of his death with the intended withdrawal of the distinguished statesman into well earned repose after a career of hard work and political activity gives added pathos to the event.

Deaf and Dumb college in Washington, told me some twelve or fifteen years ago pathetic story which I think may be vell applied to a great many gentlement who have political crotchets or peculiar notions in their heads. He had a little boy in his institution between five and six years old, a litle deaf and dumb fellow, very precoclous, and the doctor liked very much to talk to him and he liked to talk to Dr. Gallaudet. One day the doctor asked him if he knew the day the doctor asked han and the story of George Washington and the hatchet. The little fellow said he did. 'Well,' said the doctor, 'won't you tell me

"So he began to spell it off on his fingers, and when he came to the right place in the story, 'He took the hatchet in his left hand and he said to his father-

The doctor interrupted him, 'What did he take the hatchet in his left hand

'Why, he wanted his right hand to tell him with,' said the boy

STAGE ARE ENDED

MY DAYS UPON THE

less the patient's condition grew much worse. Upon awakening this morning, Mr. Payne asked for the time, and when informed, said he thought it must be much later. His sleep had oen a long one President Roosevelt called at the hotel this forenoon and remained a few minutes in the patient's apartments. When he came out he said he felt much encouraged regarding Mr. Payne's condition

FLOOD AT TRINIDAD.

Lives Reported Lost but no Bodies Found

Trinidad, Colo., Oct. 1 .- Although reports continue to be circulated today that several families have been missing since the flood swept through the city yesterday, no bodies have been recov-ered, and the police officials announce that they have no reason to believe there was any loss of life. The property loss will approximate nearly million dollars, being even greater i many instances than at first supposed The damage to the Colorado & Wyo ming railroad is fully $75,000 in addi tion to the weakening of the $50,000 bridge at Sopris, which may fall. Two miles of track between Sopris and Jan-sen is gone. One thousand feet of Santa Fe track is in the river at Jansen, and the bridge at Starkville is gone. The Colorado & Southern road bed in Riley canyon is wrecked, 24 bridges and 10,000 ties having been washed away.

A special meeting of the city coun-cil was held today to devise measures for the relief of flood sufferers. Con-struction of a temporary water main to the south side to replace the mains that were washed away was begun today.

HERR BARKMAYER

Is Under Suspicion of Having Sold German Naval Secrets.

Kiel, Oct. 1.-Although directors of the Germania Shipbuilding works said yesterday that Herr Barkmeyer, chief of the confidential bureau of the Germania works, had not been arrested for selling military secrets to a foreign power, it appears to be nevertheless true that he is under suspicion of selling the plans of ships to another Ger-man firm, and it is known the German navy department's perfected plans for the construction of submarine boats possession of the Russian government. whether through Barkmeyer or not is not clear. The navy department has been experimenting for two years with submarine boats and committed a de-sign, some months ago, for a new submarine boat to the Germania works to execute. It is a copy of this plan that is reported to have reached Rus-

TRUCE CONTINUES.

Between Uruguayan Authorities And the Revolutionists.

Buenos Ayres, Oct. 1 .- The truce he-tween the Uruguayan authorities and the revolutionists continues, pending the acceptance or refusal of new peace proposals the provisions of which have been made public, Paraguagen advices give reports of small engagements between the revolu-tionists there and the government forces, but they are so conflicting as to render the making of accurate state-ments impossible. Both sides claim to be masters of the situation, but it is believed that the conditions are practically unchanged from those last reported.

It is reported from Corrientes that the American consul at Asuncion, Paraguay, is acting as agent for President Escurra, and has telegratized to Wash-ington directly through American Min-ister Finch at Montevideo for a war, ship, the object being to assist the consultation, he said he would not road. The news from the front is exome back until tomerrow morning, untremely menger and many confused statements are made. It seems questionable whether Field Marshal Oyama ready to assume the offensive. Th army organ is still expressing skepti-cism of an immediate advance. This This paper is inclined to attach great importance to the stories of the wide pread privations of disease among the Japanese troops, No late news is obtainable of the wide Japanese turning movement east which is regarded as the chief feature of the Japanese operations. Should Oyama be compelled to abandon the lea of an advance it is intimated in a Mukden dispatch that it is possible with fresh troops constantly arriving that Gen. Kuropatkha may attempt some offensive operations.

TREATMENT OF JAP PRISONERS

St. Petersburg, Oct. 1, (1:36 p. m.)-The army organ, replying to a critic who complains that there is discrimination in favor of Japanese prisoners over Russian soldiers, inasmuch that the former always travel second class and receive an allowance of 20 cents per day, whereas the Russians are often placed on freight cars and are allowed only 8 cents, calls attention to the agreentent made at the opening of the var, whereby Russia pledged herself to good treatment of Japanese prisoners, by virtue of which, it explains, the Japanese must receive food similar to that which they have been accustomed to. The Japanese officers captured are allowed the pay of their corresponding rank in the Russian army, Prince Mirsky, the new minister of the interior has selected Prince A. Bo-lensky, one of the assistants of the minister of finance, to be one of his chief lieutenants.

The torpedo boat destroyers Rezoy Prouzitelny, Prozorlivy, Grozniy und Gromki have been ordered to be prepared to join the Baltic fleet at Reval, Oct. 9, which is considered a sur dication that the fleet will not sail be fore then.

Gen. Sakharoff reports that the Japanese are still pouring across the Taitse river at Bensihu, 30 miles northeast of Liao Yang. He adds that numbers of Chinese bandits are with the Japanese on the Liao side of the railroad.

ARGENTINA WHEAT.

Area Under Cultivation This Year Larger Than Ever.

Buenos Ayres, Oct. 1.-Emilio Sasitte, chief of the statistical division of the ministry of agriculture of Argentina der cultivation in wheat and linseed in the republic this season is considerably in excess of last year. Assuming that the climatic and other conditions will be normal, Senor Sasitte estimates the yield of the coming crop of wheat at 3,600,000 tons and that of linseed at 1, 000,000 tons. Deducting the necessary quantities for internal consumption and seed for next year's planting. Senor Rasite calculates that the amounts available for export will reach, wheat, 2,500,000 tons and linseed 750,000 tons. Labor, he says, is scarce.

Brotherhood of St, Andrew,

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.-The only business of importance to come before the Brotherhood of St. Andrew delegates today will be the selection of the next meeting place.

At a meeting of the newly appointed council the following national officers were elected: President, Robert H. Gardiner, Gardiner, Me.; vice president, Judge G. Harry Davis, Philadelphia; second vice president, Edmund G. Bil-lings, Boston; treasurer, George H.

Imps. Boston: treasurer, George H. Randall, Pittsburg: general secretary, Hubert Carleton, Pittsburg: official sec-retary, Edgar P. Criswell, Pittsburg, J. A. Houghtaling of Chicago and Robert H. Gardiner, of Gardiner, Me., discussed the "Forward Moyement." and J. A. Catto, of Toronto, Canada, and J. H. Smale, of Chicago, spoke on "How Can the Brotherhood Move Be Best Promoted." Best Promoted."

Only his wife, a daughter of the late short time." Later a servant entered the room and found Sir William lying dead on his bed. His son, Lewis Ver-non Harcourt, member of parliament for the Rossendale division of Lan-cashire, was hastily summoned from London

Among all classes in the United Kirg-dom, regardless of party, the unex-pected news caused a sensation and genuine regret. The somewhat pathelle announcement in March last of his in-tended retirement had prepared the public for Bir William's eventual dis-appearance from the active arena of nolitical strife, but there had been ac appearance from the active areas of political strife, but there had been no whisper that his stalwart constitution had been radically impaired by nearly forty years of parliamentary strife, The evening edition of the Standard, one of the deceased's opponents, ap-one of the necessary stars: "With the late Liberal leader there has passed away one of the last of those Titanic figures bound up with the most brilliant traditions of the house of com-mons. There are but a few left of those eminent statesmen who received their political training at the hands of Glad-

London, Oct. 1 .-- Sir William Vernon Harcourt, "the finest political gladiator of his age," died very suddenly today at Nuneham park, near Oxford, the country seat which he recently inherited from his nephew.

John Lathrop Motley, the historian and former American minister to Great Britain, was with him. When Sir William went to bed last night he seemed fairly well, though he had been suffering from a slight chill. This morning when he was called he replied cheerily, "In a

Among all classes in the United Kirg-

In a similar vein the Pall Mall Ga-ette, out and out Conservative in its views, pays a tribute to one of the most striking figures of the political arena" while the Liberal afternoo newspapers deplore the loss sustained by their party. Such is the Announcement of BERLIN THEATERS.

Season Begins With an Addition of Two to its Twenty-Three

Berlin, Oct. 1 .- Berlin begins its thea rical season with two additions to its 23 theaters. The new National thea-ter, devoted to opera, located in the northern part of the city, was opened Thursday under promising auspices The house is constructed on the Bayruth model. This gives Berlin four opera houses. A new theater, for comedy, on the lower Friedrich strasse, was opened yesterday evening. Among the musical events announced for the season is the engagement of the famous Lameroux orchestra of Paris. Geraldine Farrar, the American er of the royal opera, goes to St. Peters-burg within a fortnight for five performances at the court opera.

Three-Year-Old Child Deported.

San Francisco, Oct. 1 .- Jesus Rivera. a three-year-old boy, has been debarred from landing by the immigration su-thoities and ordered deported because his father was a Chinese. His 19-year-old aunt, Miss Arcadia Rivera, was also denied a landing for the reason that she had the care of the baby.

S. F. Mint Coinage for Sept.

San Francisco, Oct. 1 .- The coinage in the United States mint at San Francis-co for September is as follows: Double eagles, $14,000,000; Philippine coinage-pesos, $108,000; 20-centavos, $68,000 in pesos. Total coinage for the month, $14,176,000. The mint has a large supply of eagles on hand, about $27,600, Judge Parker's Ward Married.

Esopus, N. Y., Oct, 1.-Judge Parker and members of his family today at-tended the marriage of his ward, Miss Katheryn Lawton and Robert Livingston, which took place at Westpark,

Postoffice Dynamited.

Philadelphia, Oct. 1 .- The safe in the postoffice at Rosemount suburb was blown open by dynamite today. Post-master Stillwagon says that at the close of each month dividend checks amount. ing to between $5,000 and $10,000 are sent to wealthy suburbanites, and that many letters containing such checks were

Joseph Jefferson, the Great Actor. BEFORE PUBLIC SEVENTY YEARS He Will Go to Florida by Easy Stages, Stopping at Washington and Atlanta,

New York, Oct. 1 .- Joseph Jefferson, after more than 70 years on the stage, during which time he has become one of the most honored and beloved members of the dramatic profession, has have in some manner come into the decided absolutely never to resume his theatrical career.

Mr. Jefferson arrived here from Boston where he had rested a few days, recuperating from his recent illness at Buzzard's day which caused the abandonment of his fall tour. He is convalescent but still must be judicious in guarding his returning strength and will remain here three weeks, after which he will go by easy stages to Florida, stopping in Washington for a

When the decision was ultimately reached he quietly announced it to his family, "I shall never act agein," he said, "My days upon the stage are ended.'

Once the decision was made and its first feeling of solemnity had passed Mr. Jefferson became more cheerful. "It will seem strange at first to act no more," he added, "but I shall soon get used to that and I shall begin to enjuy what I have looked forward to these many years-my long, long holiday, in which I shall enjoy uninterruptedly nature in outdoor life, my paintings, my books and pleasant companionship Paterson, N, J., was the city where he last appeared. The performance was in June and, as an odd coincidence government.

with wife, children and dear friends. I begin my holiday at last."

time and again in Atlanta.

