LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—A very large house assembled last night to see the Zavistowski Sisters in the burlesque of "Ixion, or the Man at the Wheel," which went off in spirited, lively style. The costume, much of it, was rich and sparkling, but it was a thing of extremes, some being too long and other—well, it could not be much shorter, some was in the way and other was not so at all.

The burlesque was preceded by the comedy of "As Like as Two Peas," which afforded considerable amusement. Miss Christine Zavistowski, as "Jupiter," though laboring under a severe cold, acquitted herself with spirit, especially in the terpsichorean performances. Misses Emeline and Alice Zavistowski were brilliant, and Miss Grainger played and sang acceptably. Mr. Lorraine manifested much aptness and won considerable applause. The whole of the play went off with vivacity and dash, and the stage kept firm hold of the attention of the audience till the fall of the curtain.

This evening "Ixion" will be repeated and those who desire to see it can do so. Light burlesque is not frequently seen on the stage here, and it is a species of entertainment which appears to have abundance of charms for many people.

FARMINGTON, June 4, 1872.

Editor Deseret News:

Dear Sir,—Our two days' meetings, on Saturday and Sunday, 1st and 2nd instants, were well attended, the house being filled to overflowing. The speakers were our board of missionaries, also Bishops Hess, Layton, Smith, and Stoker, and Elders H. W. Miller and Edward Stevenson. The subjects principally treated upon were Tithing and Polygamy. The sermons were short and eminently to the point. The singing was cheering, and the spirit of the people good. Yours truly,

ARTHUR STAYNER.

THE ESCAPED NUN.—Edith O'Gorman, the escaped nun, will lecture in the Tabernacle to-morrow night. Doors open at half past seven, lecture to commence at eight o'clock.

MORE ABOUT THE SANPETE MAILS.—Here is how "R. R. L." of Fountain Green writes, May 28th—

By yesterday's mail we received two numbers of the SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS—Nos. 29 and 33, date of No. 29 May 14th, of the other May the 25th. In the mailsack, where No. 29 was, the accompaning paper was found, which I enclose to you, stating that the sack was returned from south to Salt Lake City P. O. without being opened. I send you this to show how clumsily and carelessly the Sanpete mails are managed. I cannot ascertain at what point in the south this mailsack arrived before it was returned.

Here is a copy of the note from the P. O. in this city to the Sanpete P. M.—

"This sack was returned from the south to this office, May 23d, Salt Lake City."

If such flagrant mismanagement as indicated in the above, which is only one among dozens of instances of the kind, will not induce prompt and immediate action on the part of Col. Wickizer, the special mail agent, we are at a loss to know what will. The way in which the mails of this Territory have been conducted at various times within the last two years, is more than short of being simply disgraceful to a civilized country. The irregularities have been of such frequent occurrence and so indicative of gross mismanagement that the people have been at a loss whether to attribute the cause to wilful neglect of the interests of the public or to official ignorance and incapacity. We cannot but think that if the Department were fully aware of the facts it would not be slow to apply a speedy and effectual remedy.

ANOTHER LAKE EXCURSION. — Hon. John Leisenrig and party, numbering forty-four persons, including fifteen ladies, from Pennsylvania, left the depot at 8 a.m. yesterday, accompanied by H. S. Jacobs, Esq., and Judge Clinton. On arriving at Lake Side the party embarked on the steamer City of Corinne and had a pleasant sail to Lake Point. While on the Lake the party had a very agreeable time. The Tenth Ward quadrille band being on board, those who chose to do so engaged in dancing.

On arriving at Lake Point the party proceeded to the Lake House, of which Judge Clinton is proprietor, where an excellent dinner was enjoyed. Carriages being provided and in readiness, a trip of investigation to the mines in Dry Canyon was the next thing in order. After examining the mines in that locality, in which Mr. Leisenrig and others of the party are interested, in conjunction with Mr. Jacobs, they will return to Lake Point to-morrow, where they will embark again on the City of Corinne for the Promontory, at which latter point they will take the cars for San Francisco. They will again visit this city in about two weeks, on their way eastward.

Mr. Leisenrig, in connection with Mr. H. S. Jacobs, and the gentlemen composing the Pennsylvania party, comprise the projectors of the proposed Salt Lake, Sevier Valley and Pioche Railroad, Mr. L. being president of the company. The route proposed for this line is that, leaving this City, it should touch Lake Point, thence to Tooele, Stockton, and Tintic and that it pass through Sevier Valley on the way to Pioche.

The gentlemen interested in this enterprise are all heavy capitalists, as well as men of energy and business capacity.

RIVERS AND CREEKS ON THE RAMPAGE.—The following dispatches were received last evening:

LOGAN, June 3rd.—All the bridges on Bear river have been washed away, excepting Hampton's, which has not yet been heard from. Packer's bridge at Bridgeport, went yesterday. There is talk of starting a ferry.

Fields and gardens look very promising all through Cache. There are no grasshoppers.

MANTI, Sanpete, June 3.—High waters in Sanpete Co. The Sanpitch river and its tributaries are overflowed. Several bridges have been washed away and others are in danger. A great amount of damage is being done to fields and meadows and also to improvements in towns and settlements.

MORE MISSIONARY MEETINGS.—We have received, by mail, from Elder W. M. Farmpton, a report of two days' meetings held in Lehi, June 1st and 2d, of which the following is the substance:

There were present on the stand: Bishops David Evans, A. O. Smoot, Elijah Sheets, L. E. Harrington, John Brown, T. J. McCullough and Abram Hatch, and Elders Henson Walker, Lewis Harvey, George Halladay, Wm. Greenwood, R. T. Booth, Thomas Karren, Wm. Winn and Thomas Woolley.

The meetings on Saturday were addressed by Bishops T. J. McCullough and John Brown, and Elders R. T. Booth, Lewis Harvey, Wm. Greenwood, George Halladay and Henson Walker.

Several of the Elders addressed the children at the Sabbath school on Sunday morning. The school is in excellent condition.

STATISTICAL REPORT.—We have received the Monthly Report of the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics, Treasury Department on Commerce and Navigation, for January, 1872.

THE WEATHER is changeable, sometimes cloudy, sometimes sunny, sometimes threatening rain, frequently breezy and occasionally dusty.

PROFESSOR HAYDEN.—We learn that this gentleman and scholar is expected in this city within a few days. We understand he purposes shortly organizing a company and paying another scientific exploration visit to the Yellow Stone Country. Also that he intends at no distant day thoroughly exploring the region around Salt Lake.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The members of the Teachers' Association are requested to meet at the University building, Wednesday, June 5th, at 7 p. m. A punctual and numerous attendance is very desirable.

KARL MASSER, President.

CLARKSTON.—Bro. Simon Smith writes from Clarkston, Cache, May 25th:

"We have a general time of good health and feel much encouraged by the prospects of a bountiful harvest. The prospects have never been better or even as good as they are at present. I am happy to state that notwithstanding the many obstacles the people here, being in a new country, have had to overcome, they feel like pressing on, and are beginning to appreciate their homes and realize to some extent the advantages of the same."

A CARD.

To the Editor of the Deseret News:

In the Salt Lake Herald under the head of paid advertisements they publish a vile slander without any foundation, except in the imagination of the Holy Roman Catholics, who pay to give publicity to one of the foulest calumnies ever printed against a woman. Catholics, allow me to ask you why are you so much afraid of my lectures and my book? Why spend your money in publishing that about me which you know in your heart is false and full of malice? Is it not because the R. C. Church cannot bear investigation nor light, cannot bear to have its superstition, priestcraft and idolatrous system exposed to the gaze of an enlightened age? You say my lectures are all lies; if so, why be troubled and alarmed, as falsehoods cannot harm truth?

But you know that every word I write or speak about the R. C. system of religion is the truth, therefore you make use against me of the only weapon that R. C Church has always made against investigation and truth, viz: mob violence and unfounded slanders.

God is my defense and fills my heart with grace to combat instead of being intimidated by my enemies.

It is certainly a weak Church that cannot stand the attack of one little woman.
