Cecil Logan Kellogg has given up her Treasury clerkship in Washington, to take a place on Don Platt's newspaper; and Grace Greenwood, tired of literature, asks Secretary Boutwell to give her the first vacancy in his Department.

Take the white of four eggs and ten cents worth of quicksilver; put them into a bowl and beat to perfect froth.
Take a feather and dip it into the preparation, and apply to every part of your bedstead where bugs conceal themselves: do this once a year and you will never see a bed bug in your house.

"Don't you think my son resembles me?" asked an apothecary, as he introduced his greasy-faced boy to the witty Dr. H. "Yes," replied the doctor, pretending to scan the physiognomy of each: "Yes, I think I see your liniments in his countenance."

There is nothing which goes further towards placing young housekeepers beyond the reach of poverty, than a well designed system of economy in the management of their domestic affairs. It does not matter whether the man furnishes little or much for his family; if there is a leakage in his kitchen or the parlor, it runs away, he knows not how, and that demon, waste, cries 'more, more,' like the horseleech's daughter, until he that provided had no more to give.

"Dinna tell me," said a sapient For-farshire laird of the old school—"dinna tell me that the earth's shapit like an orange, and that it whirls round about ilka 24'ours. It's a nonsense. Seidley hills lies to the north, an' the Tay to the south, at night when I gang to my bed; i' the morning, when I rise I find the same; an' that's nae proof that the earth turns round. I'll tell you what it is—an' I spake wi' the authority o' ane wha's gien the subject a deal o' study—the earth's spread out just like a muckle barley-skone, in which the Howe o' Strathmore represents a knuckle mark."

An odd case is puzzling Hartford lawyers. A man died a few months ago, leaving a handsome property. His widow was soon expected to give birth to a child, and the dying man left a will giving two-thirds of his property to the child yet to be born, if it proved to be a boy, the other third to the widow; but if a girl the latter was to receive one-third and its mother two-thirds.
The widow has, however, given birth to twins—a boy and a girl. And how to dispose of the property in accordance with the will is the knotty question.

THE San Diego Union of July 27th, gives us the annexed: "Mr. George McCombe, who came in the other day from the Indian Wells, informs us of the death of two soldiers who perished of thirst on the desert. He says that three soldiers started from the Wells for Carisa Creek, a few days since, on foot; they were somewhat under the influence of whisky, and took some liquor with them when they left.
A day or two later some Indians brought one of the men back to the Wells in almost a dying condition, and reported that the other two were dead.
It seems they had lost their way and traveled in the burning sun without water, until they sunk utterly exhausted. The Indians discovered the third man just in time to save his life."

Tobacco grows something like cabbage; but I never saw none of it boiled, although I have eaten boiled cabbage and vinegar on it, and I have heard men say that cigars that were given to them on election day for nothing was cabbage leaves. Tobacco stores are mostly kept by wooden Injuns, who stand at the door and try to fool little boys by offering them a bunch of cigars which is glued into the Injun's hands, and is made of wood also. Hogs do not like tobacco; neither do I. Tobacco was invented by a man named Walter Raleigh. When people first saw him smoking they thought he was a steamboat, and as they had never seen a steamboat, they were frightened. My sister Nancy is a girl. I don't know whether she likes tobacco or not. There is a young man by the name of Leroy who comes to see her. I guess she likes Leroy. He was standing on the steps one night, and he had a cigar in his mouth; and he said he didn't know as she would like it; and she said, "Leroy the perfume is agreeable." But the next morning, when my big brother lighted his pipe, Nancy said, "Get out of the house, you horrid creature, the smell of tobacco makes me sick," Snuff is Injun meal, made out of tobacco. I took a little snuff once, and then I sneezed.
