TERMS IN ADVANCE.

Local and Other Matters.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY, AUG. 12.

Around Again.—We are pleased to see Pres. Jos. E. Taylor on the street again, after his severe illness occasioned by the accident he sustained from a falling piece of timber some time ago.

City Hall Park.—A few months ago there was not a more dismal and ugly piece of ground within the corporate limits, than the City Hall corner; now it is one of the neatest and prettiest spots in the whole city. The rapidity of its transformation is something remarkable.

"Enquirer" Items.—Provo's fruit crop is smaller than usual this year, but is less infected with worms and of a finer quality.

Theatricals in the capital of Utah County are still "booming."

McKenny, Morgan and other prisoners have broken jail at Fillmore, and rewards are offered for their re-capture.

In the Wrong Pew.—A lady bathed at Lake Shore, last evening, on re-entering her dressing room, after a dip in the brine, raised the alarm of robbery, having missed some articles of clothing and a $1,000 check. The excitement subsided, however, on it being ascertained that she had entered the wrong room under the impression that it was her own. She afterwards found her property just where she left it.

Grand Railroad Excursion.—On Saturday, Sept. 6th, a grand excursion train will leave Ogden for San Francisco, the holders of tickets to be allowed to remain over at Sacramento during the week of the California State Fair, and in San Francisco until the return trip October 18th. Excursionists will have ample time to visit the Yosemite, the Geysers, and other points of interest on the Pacific Coast. Tickets for the round trip $55, for sale at the C. P. R. R. office. See advertisement for further particulars.

Sudden Death.—Yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, Mrs. Sarah Buchanan, of the Third Ward, sister to Elder Joseph McMurrin of this city, died suddenly from apoplexy, at the residence of Mr. Robert Irving. For some time she had been in ill health, betraying symptoms of the disease which caused her death, and fears were entertained and expressed that her end was approaching, though the event was so sudden as to occasion much surprise, nevertheless. Shortly before her death she complained of being very sick and asked for a drink of water. She was helped toward the bed, while the drink was so procured, but had no sooner touched the couch than she was a corpse. She was a widely known as a woman of kindly nature, strong integrity and many other virtues.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, AUG. 13.

Serenaded in Prison.—The Union Glee Club of this city drove out to the Penitentiary last night, arriving there after everybody, except the guards, had gone to bed. The club remained in their carriage in front of the gates and sang a number of fine glees and songs, serenading the Warden and the honored brethren at present in his care.

Shot and Killed.—The Junction chronicles a fatal accident which occurred near Paradise Mills, on the divide between Ogden and Cache Valleys. Mr. Frank Check-ett, of Kaysville, a young man 17 years of age, and a companion were out herding sheep, and about 2 a.m. hearing a noise in the direction of the corral and thinking that bears were attacking the sheep, arose from their couch and proceeded thither. Becoming separated in the darkness, Checkett's companion returned to the wagon and lay down. Shortly afterward Checkett returned, and when near the wagon shouted, "There are the bears." The other jumped up, seized his gun, which was loaded with buck and chicken shot, and was in the act of springing forward when the hammer of the weapon caught on the wagon bow, and the contents of the barrel were discharged into Checkett's body. The load entered near the left hip and ranged upward through the abdomen. The unfortunate youth lingered until yesterday at 2 p.m., when death relieved his sufferings. The other young man is terribly affected by the sad occurrence.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, AUG. 14.

Missionary Labors.—Elder Frank McDonald reports the baptism in East Kentucky of six persons on the 20th ult. Opposition was strong but prospects were good for other conversions and baptisms. Elders Bills and Butterfield, the writer's companions, were both well.

Standing's Murderers Caught.—Mr. D. A. Walker, of Dalton, Georgia, telegraphs to Elder Rufus Clawson this morning, that three of the murderers of Joseph Standing have been captured and are in jail. Mr. Walker will keep Elder Clawson posted regarding the affair, from time to time.

Cloud Burst.—We learn from the Enquirer, that last week a cloud burst in Sevier Canon, washed the railroad track away in several places, and filled some of the cuts with debris. The construction engine was mired down and it was three or four days before things could be repaired and the train sent along as usual.

Educational Meeting.—The meeting held last evening in the Thirteenth Ward Assembly Rooms to consider the best plan for the consolidation of the school interests of the several districts of this city, was largely attended. Professor Lewis, who occupied the chair, explained the object of the meeting, which was to centralize the ability and advantages, now too widely distributed, so as to render the benefits of our school system more immediate, equitable and certain. Graded schools were a necessity, as was a proper division of labor among the teachers.

A number of gentlemen then gave their views of the present condition of school matters and put forth their suggestions for its remedy.

Mr. J. T. Caine stated that Dr. Park had been engaged to supervise the 18th district school, which would be graded to the University.

Dr. Park then explained a plan which the Board of Regents had in contemplation, whereby he was to take charge of the district schools in the city, establish the necessary grades therein and have the advanced students attend the University.

Mayor Little stated that the Thirteenth District School would henceforth be under the supervision of the University, and spoke in favor of the plan given.

Messrs. Fuller, Snell and Gen. Burton, followed on the same subject, the latter suggesting that any defects in the school law which prevented the fair and equitable working of such a plan be laid before the Legislature, which would no doubt do all it could to obviate the difficulties.

Bishop Thomas Taylor was the last speaker. He favored the proposed consolidation and had no doubt his district would fall into line with the rest. The meeting then adjourned.

The plan is to divide the city into five districts, each municipal precinct representing a district, establish an advanced school in each and have the whole under one controlling head, say the Deseret University. Primary schools also will likely be established in the 21 districts as they now are, to be directed by the same supervisory centre. The design if carried out will greatly improve the present system and afford much better facilities for education than now exist.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY, AUG. 15.

A Floral Gift.—We have been shown a magnificent bouquet, made by Mrs. H. A. Beebe, of Provo, and sent as a present to Elder George Q. Cannon at the Penitentiary. Our respected brother will no doubt be delighted at the receipt of such a handsome tribute of respect.

Still in the Harness.—Father Thomas Bullock, clerk, historian and recorder of the Summit Stake of Zion, sends us a conference report, which we publish in another place. Although a very old man, his penmanship is the same clear, firm style as ever, betraying no sign of the infirmities of age. Father Bullock was for many years the Clerk of the Church and is well known by everybody. We congratulate our veteran brother on his ability to still remain in active service, and hope the powers of his mind and body may continue for many years.

The Big Suit.—The Supreme Court met this morning at 10 o'clock; present, Chief Justice Hunter and Associate Justice Emerson. The former stated that he had received a communication from Judge Boreman, informing them that he could not be present for about a week, and suggested an adjournment for some days to give him a chance to be present.

Judge Bennett said that in behalf of the Executors in the case of Emmeline A. Young et al., vs. George Q. Cannon, he desired to be heard upon the motion for a writ of certiorari.

Judge Hagan in behalf of the plaintiffs said they were ready to argue this motion for the writ, though they believed that this court had no authority or jurisdiction in this matter.

Judge Bennett thereupon read the affidavit signed by the executors and some of the exhibits already published in our columns.

Judge McBride objected to the right of this court to issue a writ of certiorari and quoted a California report in support of his position; he also stated that the affidavit, though it charged error contained no particular assignment of error.

Judge Harkness quoted the Organic Act and other authorities to prove that the Supreme Court had jurisdiction in a writ of review or certiorari, and paid some attention to the authorities cited by the opposing attorney. He claimed in answering the charge that no assignment of error had been made, that the affidavit fully complied with the statute, adding that upon the application for a writ the assignment of errors is not necessary.

J. L. Rawlins, Esq., referring to the opposing arguments that this court had no authority to issue writs of certiorari by original jurisdiction, remarked that it was not denied that it had the right to issue such writs in aid of its appellate jurisdiction. He knew of no State in which the Supreme courts had no authority in granting writs of certiorari.

Judge Hagan read the Organic Act, where it refers to the establishment and powers of each of the various courts. He stated that this affidavit merely asked for action upon an original matter, and as such did not come under the power of this court, which has recently decided that it has no original but exclusively appellate jurisdiction. A writ of mandamus, brought before it in 1876, had been refused by this very court, Chief Justice Schaeffer presiding. The arguments of the plaintiffs' attorneys were to the effect, first, that the court had no jurisdiction in the matter, and second, that no sufficient showing of error had been made.

The Court requested the attorneys to furnish a list of the authorities quoted by them, and then adjourned till to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, when a decision in the case will be rendered.

BED ROCK PRICES.

Nothing could better illustrate the tendency of the times towards a reduction of prices in articles of prime necessity, than the advertisement of the NEW YORK FURNISHING CO., which will be found in our columns. That they can furnish a substantially made shirt of good material, artistically cut, and with the addition of a set of fine rolled gold plate buttons, for $7.50 per dozen, is a marvel; but they do, and we know of no better way for our readers to test the truth of the statement than to send to them, not only for shirts, but for any of the long list of articles that go to make up the underwear of a gentleman's wardrobe.

NOTICE.

In the Probate Court for Cache County, in the Territory of Utah

Notice of application and time for hearing same.

In the matter of the application of the Logan Co-operative Pasture Company to be dissolved and discontinued.

THE officers of the Logan Co-operative Pasture Company, a corporation whose principal place of business is at Logan City, in Cache County, having presented to the Judge of the Probate Court for said county, a statement setting forth that at a meeting of the stockholders, called for that purpose, it was decided by a two-thirds vote of all the stockholders to incorporate and dissolve the incorporation.

Notice is hereby given that Thursday, the 18th day of September, A. D., 1879, at 11 o'clock a. m., at the Court Room hereof, in the City of Logan, has been set for hearing said application; when and where any persons interested may appear and show cause, if any they have, why said application should not be granted.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, this 6th day of August, A. D., 1879.
JAMES T. H. MONROE,
Clerk of said Court.

NOTICE.

In the Probate Court in and for Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah.

ARTHUR BROWN, Plaintiff,
LYDIA C. BROWN, Defendant,
In Divorce.

The People of the Territory of Utah, to Lydia C. Brown, defendant, Greeting:

YOU are hereby summoned to appear in an action brought against you by the above named Arthur Brown, plaintiff, in the Probate Court in and for the County of Salt Lake and Territory of Utah; and answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons; if served within this County, and if not within this County but within the Third Judicial District of the Territory of Utah within twenty days; otherwise within forty days.

This action is brought to obtain a decree from this Court dissolving the marriage contract existing between this plaintiff and you, and if you fail to appear or answer, as by law provided, the plaintiff will apply to this Court for the relief prayed for in his said complaint and cost of suit.

In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal of said Court, in Salt Lake City, this 15th day of August, A. D., 1879.

D. BOCKHOLD,
Clerk of the Probate Court,
Salt Lake County.

Catarrhal POISON

Wei De Meyers' Treatise on Catarrh, explains the following important facts:

1. That Catarrhal Colds become a poisonous infection, at first local, and finally constitutional.

2. That, being Constitutional, the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies.

3. That whatever impurities exist in the nostrils, are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs, thus poisoning the digestive, the respiratory and the genito-urinary organs.

4. That Catarrhal virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Weak Eyes, Deafness, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhoea, Bronchitis, Leucorrhoea and Consumption.

5. That Smokes, Douches, Inhalations and Insoluble Snuffs, taken into the nostrils and throat, cannot possibly remove infectious inflammation from the organs named.

6. That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an inoculative affinity for, and the capacity of being absorbed by the purulent mucous wherever located.

Acting upon these theories, Dr. Wei De Meyer has found a remedy for Catarrhal diseases, which proves to be infallible. His treatise, with overwhelming proofs and full explanations of the most important medical discovery since vaccination, is sent free and Post paid to anybody.

Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure is not yet in the hands of all Druggists. Where not thus procurable, it will be delivered to any address at $1.50 a package. To Clubs, six packages for $7.50. To the trade, liberal terms.
