Times Says It is No Ordinary Party Triumph.

BRYAN SPOKE FOR MILLIONS

Declares the Westminster Gazette—Globe Says Henceforth the United States Will be a World-Power.

London, Nov. 8.—Most of the morning papers in their comments upon the American election take the line followed by the Daily News, which says:

"The swing of the pendulum has ceased in the United States, as it has here. The Republicans are as unshakable there, as the conservatives are in the United Kingdom. The elections mark the end of Bryanism, and approval of the policy of expansion. There is no reason to doubt Mr. Bryan's honesty. No man with a bad private character could face the unexampled publicity of a presidential election. He is straightforward and sincere, but he is the victim of a hopeless infatuation and practical men felt no confidence in him. The adhesion of Tammany Hall to Mr. Bryan's cause, but his misfortune."

The Daily Telegraph observes: "America has refused to accept the Stars and Stripes in the Pacific. She has accepted and endorses the expansionist policy, which has nothing in common with artificial aggression, but which is, on the contrary, the sign and index of her coming of age and of her coming of age as a great power."

"She has chosen to go forward and whether the fact is welcomed or resented, she has chosen to go forward."

"The result of the election is important for Great Britain. It suggests the cooperation of the two great Anglo-Saxon powers in the far east. This cooperation can hardly fail to become more vigorous and definite. With the exit of Mr. Bryan and free silver American policy, the sign and index of her coming of age and of her coming of age as a great power."

"The Times reverting to the question this morning comments upon the election, and the unexpected completeness of McKinley's victory," and says: "All well wishers may repeat Lord Salisbury's words to the American ambassador at the banquet after the election of 1896 and congratulate the Americans upon their splendid preponderance made in behalf of the principles which lie at the base of all human society."

"Mr. McKinley's successes in the South and West show that numbers of Democrats have sacrificed their party allegiance. It would be gratifying if some means could be found to organize on a sound basis the historic party which occupied so great and traditional a place in American history."

London, Nov. 7.—The afternoon papers view the general sentiment of England on the result of the presidential election in the United States.

"Anti-imperialism, the attempt to stir up jealousy against England, the championship of the Boers and pandering to the Fenians all availed Bryan nothing. His defeat is a defeat for 'Croker and Tammany,' and that is the happiest feature. It really looks as though Americans are tired of the gang of corrupt Irish-Americans who have degraded American politics so long."

The Star says: "Had Bryan kept to the issues of anti-imperialism, anti-trusts and social reforms, he might conceivably have won. Sound money proved his undoing. He has been crucified on a cross of gold, but it has been very much of a voluntary crucifixion."

The Times says: "McKinley's victory is no ordinary party triumph. It is a victory for common sense, sound money and sober, enlightened political judgment."

"The silver and its attendant heresies are the real matters upon which the electors have given judgment."

The Times expresses the opinion that Mr. Bryan has elected, even all the checks of the constitution cannot prevent him from exercising his power to issue fiat money to order and material prosperity, and it concludes:

"Point that danger the country is mercifully delivered, certainly for the present, and we may hope for all time."

The Westminster Gazette says: "Mr. Bryan spoke for millions, conscious of the tyranny of money in the United States, but he fatally handicapped himself with the free silver craze. His close association with 'Boss' Croker also blighted their hopes in him as a champion of administration."

The Pall Gazette says: "The result is most welcome from every point of view. In McKinley and Roosevelt Great Britain has just the sort of friends we want. Not effusive executive pretense of cousinly unity, but quite honest and manly. As a business nation the final defeat of un-sound money is most acceptable to us."

The Globe, basing its comments on the idea that imperialism was the main point at issue, says: "Henceforth the United States will take its place as a world power. The result of the election is of importance and fraught with momentous consequences to all nations. In this country it will be greeted with unalloyed satisfaction. We gladly welcome the entry of the young giant of the west into the councils of the world."

The St. James Gazette remarks: "It would have been always unworthy of America had the corruption and robbery of the Daily Express, writing before the election of McKinley, been known as the Russian capital, 'announces' the of-ficial sanction that an understanding had been reached between Russia, France and the United States and Japan by way of counterpoise to the Anglo-

WHAT CAUSES DEAFNESS.

The Principal Cause is Curable but Generally Overlooked.

Many things may cause deafness, and very often it is difficult to trace a cause. Some people inherit deafness. Acute diseases like scarlet fever sometimes cause deafness. But by far the most common cause of loss of hearing is catarrh of the head and throat.

A prominent specialist on ear troubles gives as his opinion that nine out of ten cases of deafness is traced to throat trouble, and that catarrh if long neglected will certainly impair the sense of hearing and ultimately cause deafness.

The catarrh secretion in the nose and throat finds its way into the Eustachian tube and by clogging it up very soon affects the hearing and the hardening of the secretion makes the loss of hearing permanent, unless the catarrh which caused the trouble is cured.

Those who are hard of hearing may think this a little far fetched, but any one at all observant must have noticed how a hard cold in the head will affect the hearing and that catarrh if long neglected will certainly impair the sense of hearing and ultimately cause deafness.

If the nose and throat are kept clear and free from the unhealthy secretions of catarrh, the hearing will at once greatly improve and anyone suffering from deafness and catarrh can satisfy themselves on this point by using a fifty-cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, a new catarrh cure, which in the past year has won the approval of thousands of catarrh sufferers as well as physicians, because it is certain and reliable and is as safe and pleasant for children as for their elders.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is a whole-some combination of blood root, Gualtheria tuberosa and other antiseptics which cure catarrh and catarrhal deafness by action upon the blood and mucous membrane of the nose and throat.

As one physician aptly expresses it: "You do not have to draw upon the imagination to discover whether you are getting benefit from Stuart's Catarrh Tablets; improvement and relief are apparent from the first tablet taken."

All druggists sell and recommend them. They cost but fifty cents for all such packages and catarrh sufferers who have wasted time and money on sprays, salves and powders will appreciate to the full the merit of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

German agreement, adding that the results will become specifically apparent if President McKinley is re-elected."

ELBRIDGE T. GERRY RESIGNS.

It is the Result of a Fight that Lasted for Years.

New York, Nov. 8.—The World says today:

Elbridge T. Gerry, founder of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, and for the past 21 years at its head, has resigned as president of the organization.

Vernon M. Davis, former assistant district attorney, has been named by Mr. Gerry's resignation as the successor.

Mr. Gerry's resignation is the culmination of a fight which has lasted for years in the legislatures and courts between Mr. Gerry, the state board of charities and the New York city officials. It was Mr. Gerry's claim that while his society got an annual appropriation from the State of $30,000, it was a secret organization not subject to state inspection.

The retirement of Mr. Gerry was announced at a meeting of the fifteen directors of the organization held several days ago. It was agreed to keep the matter as secret as possible.

D. O. Mills says that Mr. Gerry resigned because of the hard work involved in the presidency. He had to devote all of his attention to it, and in so doing neglected his personal affairs. Mr. Davis said that he did not know whether he would accept the position or not.

ITALIAN ANARCHISTS.

Those in New York Will Give a Benefit for Bresci's Family.

New York, Nov. 8.—The Italian anarchists of this city announce that they will give a benefit entertainment on November 10 in aid of the family of Bresci, who assassinated King Humbert. Incidentally the anarchists will commemorate the hanging of the anarchists in Chicago for the Haymarket bomb throwing. Bresci has declared that he will have nothing to do with the anarchists, and her friends and neighbors are angry at the attempt of the anarchists to connect her name with their entertainment. Her friends say that "benefit for Mrs. Bresci" is merely a cloak to hide an intention to celebrate the Haymarket riots. The entertainment the anarchists say will be held in the Bowery.

Banquet to General Howard.

New York, Nov. 7.—A banquet in honor of the seventieth birthday of Gen. O. O. Howard will be given by some of his friends this evening. Senator Chauncey M. Depew will preside, and addresses are to be delivered by the Rev. Dr. J. H. Barrows of Oberlin; T. B. Reed, Capt. Mahan, of the United States navy, and Booker T. Washington. Among the guests will be ex-Secretary of War Alger, Gen. Brooks and Col. Mills. A handsome album is to be presented to Gen. Howard.

Boer Cause Not Hopeless.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—P. Moutier Wessels, a former officer in the Boer army, and a brother to one of the Boer envoys to this country, addressed an audience last evening on affairs in South Africa, and the present condition of his countrymen. He asserted that the Boer cause is far from hopeless, and that it is in as favorable condition as three months ago.

An effort will be made to secure thousands of signatures to a petition that will be presented to Congress, asking the intervention of the American nation.

Bryan's Daughter on Silver.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—A special to the Record from Alton, Ill., says: The students of Monticello seminary observed the election of McKinley with a special program. Miss H. N. Haskell, principal of the school, granted a half holiday, and the young ladies gave a parade on the seminary campus. They were attired in curious costumes and carried oddly shaped and shaped banners. After the parade they repaired to the Eleanor Reed chapel and campaign addresses were made. Miss Ruth Bryan, daughter of the Democratic nominee, delivered an address on the silver question.

Weak Digestion.

Indigestion and Dyspepsia have wrecked many lives. People who are weak and miserable should know that health would return if the digestion were made normal. This is just the condition Hostetter's Stomach Bitters brings about. It cures constipation, biliousness, nervousness, liver and kidney troubles, and produces sound sleep. It will make you feel like a new man. The private revenue stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

WHAT ENGLISH FINANCIERS SAY.

Governor of Bank of England Likes McKinley's Election.

GOOD EFFECT ALREADY FELT

Such Opinion of Francis Baring—Views Expressed Are All Substantially the Same.

New York, Nov. 8.—England's leading representatives of high finance have been interviewed by the London correspondent of the World relative to the election in the United States.

The governor of the Bank of England, Samuel Stewart Gladstone, said: "The Bank of England never gives opinions, but my personal view you are welcome to. McKinley's election must have a healthy effect both financially and politically. I consider it, in the first place, as a great security for the peace of the world. Here, undoubtedly, the belief has been that if Bryan were elected it might mean disturbance and unsettlement in the financial world. Now we may look to revival of business and a strengthening of American securities."

Hon. Francis Baring, the working chief of the firm of Baring Brothers, said: "The good effect of McKinley's election has been already reflected in the American market, where prices have hardened greatly. I believe that it will increase confidence and that business will necessarily improve. English capital will be more freely invested in American securities and undertakings. As to its bearing on bimetallicism, that is too big a question to go into today. Sufficient for the day is the evil thereof."

At the London office of the Morgans, Pierpont Morgan said: "I consider the settlement of the question is a relief to business interests both here and in America. The general effect on commerce and finance must be excellent. For the past fortnight prices have shown an upward tendency, and the general relief has been expressed by the further immediate improvement."

"As to the silver movement now it has got its finishing stroke. The buying of American securities here is mainly for America. There has been a steady stream of buying for some time past, but now that McKinley is elected enough money will also be forthcoming for American stocks."

Sir Samuel Montague, head of the well known bankers of that name, said: "In connection with my partners we agreed that if Bryan was elected Americans would immediately begin to hoard gold, apprehending some kind of silver legislation that would draw on our gold reserves, causing stringency in the money market. This fear has been removed by McKinley's election, and now the drain of gold will stop; therefore the effect on the money market will be good. It will also enhance some American securities for investors and manufacturers who feared the possibility of Bryan's election."

DEMOCRATIC REORGANIZATION.

Don M. Dickinson Says Meeting Will be Held to Consider the Matter.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—A special to the Chronicle from Detroit, Mich., says: Don M. Dickinson is authority for the statement that within three weeks a meeting will be held in New York city to outline a plan of re-organization for the Democratic party. He says the call for the meeting will have the signatures of prominent Democrats.

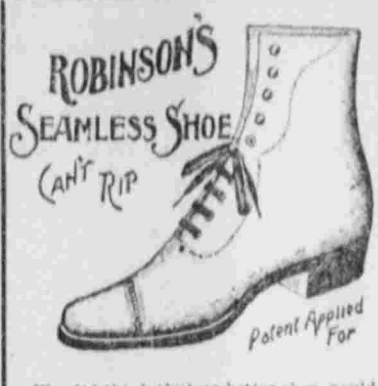

The meeting, Mr. Dickinson says, will be attended by Democrats of both gold and silver leanings. The call for the meeting will be sent out in a few days. It will be mailed broadcast throughout the land and will be to all Democrats, gold and silver alike.

Canadian Elections.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 7.—The results of today's elections show that the government has been sustained by a majority of from fifty to sixty members on a basis of returns received up to midnight, and with five constituencies to be heard from.

Today's elections were in 208 out of 212 constituencies of the Dominion, and the remaining five will hold their elections at later dates. This, of course, makes it entirely possible, that when the elections are completed, and when the final returns are in, the present majority may be reduced somewhat.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 7.—British Columbia has not joined in the general approval of the Laurier government expressed by the eastern provinces of Canada in today's elections. Six seats in the house of commons are allotted to British Columbia, and in two of these constituencies the election has been deferred for one month on account of the remoteness of some of the polling places.

Of the four British Columbia seats contested today, two returned conservatives, one labor with conservative leanings, and one labor, the latter by a narrow margin.

Prior and Earle, opposition, have majorities of 700 and 200 in Victoria, Ralph Smith, labor, has a plurality of 700 over Sloan, liberal, and Wedley, conservative, in Vancouver district, and in Westminster Audrey Morrison, government, has sixty majority over ex-Governor Dwyer, with several polling places still to be heard from.

The two remaining constituencies are expected to return supporters of the government at the deferred election next month.

NEGOTIATIONS AT PEKIN.

Danger May Arise Over Russian Railway Interests.

New York, Nov. 8.—Danger in the negotiations now in progress in Pekin will, it is believed, arise when Russia takes formal steps for the protection of her railroad interests in Northern China, says a Washington dispatch to the Herald.

Under article 3 of the Anglo-German agreement Great Britain and Germany reserve to themselves the right to take such measures for the protection of their own interests as may seem advisable, interpreting the move of any other power to suit their own views.

It is thought possible that any steps taken by Russia to insure the safety of her railroad interests may be regarded by the signatories of the Anglo-German agreement as cause for the seizure of territory in the Yang Tse Kiang valley and in the province of Shantung.

In view of this probability, there has been considerable talk at Washington of the organization of a combination to prevent any such move, the parties to it being Russia, France and the United States. It can be stated on high authority that no understanding has been reached between Russia, France, the United States and Japan to counterpoise the Anglo-German agreement.

There is apparently no intention on the part of the government to enter into an alliance with any power.
