

today surprised anything seen before. Down went thousands upon thousands of people when they saw the doors open. All the afternoon a steady stream of people poured in but the crowd did not diminish. Late in the afternoon the doors were closed and the offices had an hour's respite.

At 7 p.m. the doors opened again and more order was maintained up to 11 o'clock, when the final closing was made. Hundreds left the place without getting in, and many others who came to get in were turned away. There will be another crowd tomorrow morning, as those who failed today, will try then. Preparations are being made for making a great event of the funeral, greater than Lowell ever witnessed.

A REMARKABLE STORY.

Mrs. John Sharon Tries to Buy Up and Burn in Erie.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—A small paper printed a rather remarkable story of a young woman calling herself Mrs. John Sharon, who applied to the Justice and Aid Society for aid. She said she never saw her father and mother as they died a week after she was born, she was adopted by a man who afterwards became mayor of Virginia City, and a member of the Nevada legislature. She was given every advantage and at the age of 14 she was sent to the Mills Academy for young ladies in Oakland. While there she met and married a young man named Sharon, and when she was only 15 they were married. They lived happily a number of years and had three children, the oldest of whom is now 18 years of age. Her husband had a good position in Virginia City, but after her husband died she became practically nothing. She had $200 left her by a brother whom she never saw after she had been married and who died before her husband. She says she always worked for a family, but they seemed to have no time to do with her. A year ago she went to El Paso, Texas, on a visit and there met a handsome Spaniard, J. Lopez, with whom she became infatuated and married him. This is a few months since she came to Chicago, saying he could make good money here during the fair. Four months ago, on the pretense of a business scheme, he induced her to give him the $200 which she had saved and then left her. She has since been along, doing various kinds of work, but yesterday was forced to apply for aid for herself and infant. She says she accidentally heard of her husband's whereabouts in the United States. A newspaper article she saw about him said that he is wealthy, but she added: "I can't find that I have any claim on him now."

Poster to Design.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 15.—Secretary State and his wife will be given a grand dinner within a few days by members of the diplomatic corps previous to their departure for Paris, where Mr. Foster will have charge of the affairs of the United States in the Berlin arbitration. Secretary Foster will remain in Washington until the last week of this month and after a short visit to New York State, sail with Mrs. Foster for Paris. The arbitrators are to meet February 23rd.

AT HOMESTEAD.

Cold Weather Increases the Suffering among the People.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 15.—Continued cold weather has increased the suffering of the poor and indigent, and nearly three hundred people are on the verge of starvation. Contributions are still coming in, but the aggregate amount is so small that it will not procure barely the necessities. Yesterday was the first day under the new system, and although some claim their envelopes did not contain more than one-half the amount received for the same period before the strike. A number of men stated today that they would quit or strike just as soon as they received their pay, and deny there is any dissatisfaction and claim if wages are smaller it is the fault of the men, who are not working as hard as formerly.

Senator Cannon ill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 15.—Hon. Senator Stanford voted in the House yesterday in the absence of his physician. He is better today and expects to be out again in a few days.

Standard Set in Design.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 15.—Senator Stanford voted in the House yesterday in the absence of his physician. He is better today and expects to be out again in a few days.

THANKS, AND FAREWELL.

Road Supervisor C. T. Simon Tenders His Resignation.

The following communication was received at the County Court office this Saturday afternoon and telegraphed to Salt Lake City:

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 14, 1893.
Gentlemen of the County Court of Salt Lake County:

"I take pleasure to resign as road supervisor, as I am a true blue Republican and do not care to serve under the present court. I thank the court for the great good it did for the Twenty-first district."

COURT CULLINGS.

The Buri Divorce Case Put Through at Last—Other Legal Business.

The divorce suit of Helen M. Burt vs. ex-Sheriff Andrew Burt was suspended on Saturday afternoon by Judge Zane granting Mrs. Burt a decree on the ground of adultery, without alimony, and by consent of the parties giving the custody of the child to William Greenback and wife. The decree was granted upon the testimony taken by Judge Henderson as a special master. Burt recently withdrew his answer and cross-complaint and Mrs. Burt in return waived the matter of alimony and withdrew her answer to the cross-complaint. The default of the defendant was then entered and Mrs. Burt and her witness, this is the final outcome.

Alma Robinson brought a suit for divorce against George W. Robinson in the Third District court on Saturday evening. Plaintiff alleges that she and the defendant were married in 1882, and that for more than a year past he has wilfully failed and neglected to provide for her. Robinson is a man of little means. In addition to a decree, she also desires the custody of the children.

Miller M. Atwood of Salt Lake City, who applied to the Justice and Aid Society for aid. She said she never saw her father and mother as they died a week after she was born, she was adopted by a man who afterwards became mayor of Virginia City, and a member of the Nevada legislature. She was given every advantage and at the age of 14 she was sent to the Mills Academy for young ladies in Oakland. While there she met and married a young man named Sharon, and when she was only 15 they were married. They lived happily a number of years and had three children, the oldest of whom is now 18 years of age. Her husband had a good position in Virginia City, but after her husband died she became practically nothing. She had $200 left her by a brother whom she never saw after she had been married and who died before her husband. She says she always worked for a family, but they seemed to have no time to do with her. A year ago she went to El Paso, Texas, on a visit and there met a handsome Spaniard, J. Lopez, with whom she became infatuated and married him. This is a few months since she came to Chicago, saying he could make good money here during the fair. Four months ago, on the pretense of a business scheme, he induced her to give him the $200 which she had saved and then left her. She has since been along, doing various kinds of work, but yesterday was forced to apply for aid for herself and infant. She says she accidentally heard of her husband's whereabouts in the United States. A newspaper article she saw about him said that he is wealthy, but she added: "I can't find that I have any claim on him now."

FROM THE JUNCTION CITY.

A Floor Mat for Millville, Cache County.—The Chamber of Commerce, etc.

Trade Showers.

A plant costing $20,000 has been purchased by the Millville Manufacturing Company to make a floor mat equal to the best that can be had in the world. Minnesota flax is shipped to her at the cost of $1.50 per pound. The wheat here is just as good as any in the country, and the price is about the same. The plant is now in operation, and the first product will be shown at the April Fair in Ogallala, Nebraska.

The Medical Board.

On Saturday night the Territorial board of medical examiners held their regular weekly meeting, the members present being Dr. Fowler, president; Dr. Shinnick, secretary; Dr. Dart, treasurer; Dr. Richards, Dr. Beck and Dr. Duncan. Several diplomas from applicants for degrees were awarded, and several certificates were presented.

A medical examination will be held on Monday evening, and the results will agree with those of this section of the state.

It is now estimated that Ogallala is a deadwater at least $100,000.

The Medical Board.

On Saturday night the Territorial board of medical examiners held their regular weekly meeting, the members present being Dr. Fowler, president; Dr. Shinnick, secretary; Dr. Dart, treasurer; Dr. Richards, Dr. Beck and Dr. Duncan. Several diplomas from applicants for degrees were awarded, and several certificates were presented.

A medical examination will be held on Monday evening, and the results will agree with those of this section of the state.

The month of May this year, will be of great importance to Ogallala, and one which will long be remembered by her citizens, measured as far as time that this city will be the meeting place of one of the greatest organizations, a meeting which will be held in the City of Ogallala, the International Stockgrowers' Association, and the Trans-Mississippi congress. The former will be called to order on May 10th, and the latter on May 11th. Both meetings are to be held in Ogallala, and the only expense is to be borne by the city.

On the 12th the Trans-Mississippi congress will convene.

The insurance adjusters have completed their tour in connection with the Hong Kong fire, and the total of which was nearly $20,000,000. There seems to be some question regarding the loss and the insurance rates to pay, but the insurance companies are to be held responsible.

The board of directors of the chamber of commerce held two executive sessions yesterday to consider propositions of great importance to the city.

The Lycraum club has endorsed Mr. G. H. Clark for the office of postmaster of Ogallala.

Death at Fountain Green.

FOUNTAIN GREEN, Jan. 15, 1893.

Editor Deseret News:

On Friday evening, January 13th, the people of this town were startled and surprised to learn that Miss Frances Olson had left this earthy sphere and passed to the world beyond. This lady was a severe trial of age, and her death was a shock to all.

The funeral services were held in the meeting house last Sabbath; the house was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased, and a vast concourse of people followed the remains to the burial place. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, and were excellent in character and well held to high esteem by the people of this place.

Z. CHRISTENSEN.

Death at Fountain Green.

FOUNTAIN GREEN, Jan. 15, 1893.

Editor Deseret News:

On Friday evening, January 13th, the people of this town were startled and surprised to learn that Miss Frances Olson had left this earthy sphere and passed to the world beyond. This lady was a severe trial of age, and her death was a shock to all.

The funeral services were held in the meeting house last Sabbath; the house was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased, and a vast concourse of people followed the remains to the burial place. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, and were excellent in character and well held to high esteem by the people of this place.

Z. CHRISTENSEN.

Death at Fountain Green.

FOUNTAIN GREEN, Jan. 15, 1893.

Editor Deseret News:

On Friday evening, January 13th, the people of this town were startled and surprised to learn that Miss Frances Olson had left this earthy sphere and passed to the world beyond. This lady was a severe trial of age, and her death was a shock to all.

The funeral services were held in the meeting house last Sabbath; the house was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased, and a vast concourse of people followed the remains to the burial place. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, and were excellent in character and well held to high esteem by the people of this place.

Z. CHRISTENSEN.

Death at Fountain Green.

FOUNTAIN GREEN, Jan. 15, 1893.

Editor Deseret News:

On Friday evening, January 13th, the people of this town were startled and surprised to learn that Miss Frances Olson had left this earthy sphere and passed to the world beyond. This lady was a severe trial of age, and her death was a shock to all.

The funeral services were held in the meeting house last Sabbath; the house was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased, and a vast concourse of people followed the remains to the burial place. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, and were excellent in character and well held to high esteem by the people of this place.

Z. CHRISTENSEN.

Death at Fountain Green.

FOUNTAIN GREEN, Jan. 15, 1893.

Editor Deseret News:

On Friday evening, January 13th, the people of this town were startled and surprised to learn that Miss Frances Olson had left this earthy sphere and passed to the world beyond. This lady was a severe trial of age, and her death was a shock to all.

The funeral services were held in the meeting house last Sabbath; the house was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased, and a vast concourse of people followed the remains to the burial place. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, and were excellent in character and well held to high esteem by the people of this place.

Z. CHRISTENSEN.

Death at Fountain Green.

FOUNTAIN GREEN, Jan. 15, 1893.

Editor Deseret News:

On Friday evening, January 13th, the people of this town were startled and surprised to learn that Miss Frances Olson had left this earthy sphere and passed to the world beyond. This lady was a severe trial of age, and her death was a shock to all.

The funeral services were held in the meeting house last Sabbath; the house was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased, and a vast concourse of people followed the remains to the burial place. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, and were excellent in character and well held to high esteem by the people of this place.

Z. CHRISTENSEN.

Death at Fountain Green.

FOUNTAIN GREEN, Jan. 15, 1893.

Editor Deseret News:

On Friday evening, January 13th, the people of this town were startled and surprised to learn that Miss Frances Olson had left this earthy sphere and passed to the world beyond. This lady was a severe trial of age, and her death was a shock to all.

The funeral services were held in the meeting house last Sabbath; the house was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased, and a vast concourse of people followed the remains to the burial place. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, and were excellent in character and well held to high esteem by the people of this place.

Z. CHRISTENSEN.

Death at Fountain Green.

FOUNTAIN GREEN, Jan. 15, 1893.

Editor Deseret News:

On Friday evening, January 13th, the people of this town were startled and surprised to learn that Miss Frances Olson had left this earthy sphere and passed to the world beyond. This lady was a severe trial of age, and her death was a shock to all.

The funeral services were held in the meeting house last Sabbath; the house was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased, and a vast concourse of people followed the remains to the burial place. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, and were excellent in character and well held to high esteem by the people of this place.

Z. CHRISTENSEN.

Death at Fountain Green.

FOUNTAIN GREEN, Jan. 15, 1893.

Editor Deseret News:

On Friday evening, January 13th, the people of this town were startled and surprised to learn that Miss Frances Olson had left this earthy sphere and passed to the world beyond. This lady was a severe trial of age, and her death was a shock to all.

The funeral services were held in the meeting house last Sabbath; the house was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased, and a vast concourse of people followed the remains to the burial place. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, and were excellent in character and well held to high esteem by the people of this place.

Z. CHRISTENSEN.

Death at Fountain Green.

FOUNTAIN GREEN, Jan. 15, 1893.

Editor Deseret News:

On Friday evening, January 13th, the people of this town were startled and surprised to learn that Miss Frances Olson had left this earthy sphere and passed to the world beyond. This lady was a severe trial of age, and her death was a shock to all.

The funeral services were held in the meeting house last Sabbath; the house was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased, and a vast concourse of people followed the remains to the burial place. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, and were excellent in character and well held to high esteem by the people of this place.

Z. CHRISTENSEN.

Death at Fountain Green.

FOUNTAIN GREEN, Jan. 15, 1893.

Editor Deseret News:

On Friday evening, January 13th, the people of this town were startled and surprised to learn that Miss Frances Olson had left this earthy sphere and passed to the world beyond. This lady was a severe trial of age, and her death was a shock to all.

The funeral services were held in the meeting house last Sabbath; the house was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased, and a vast concourse of people followed the remains to the burial place. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, and were excellent in character and well held to high esteem by the people of this place.

Z. CHRISTENSEN.

Death at Fountain Green.

FOUNTAIN GREEN, Jan. 15, 1893.

Editor Deseret News:

On Friday evening, January 13th, the people of this town were startled and surprised to learn that Miss Frances Olson had left this earthy sphere and passed to the world beyond. This lady was a severe trial of age, and her death was a shock to all.

The funeral services were held in the meeting house last Sabbath; the house was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased, and a vast concourse of people followed the remains to the burial place. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, and were excellent in character and well held to high esteem by the people of this place.

Z. CHRISTENSEN.

Death at Fountain Green.

FOUNTAIN GREEN, Jan. 15, 1893.

Editor Deseret News:

On Friday evening, January 13th, the people of this town were startled and surprised to learn that Miss Frances Olson had left this earthy sphere and passed to the world beyond. This lady was a severe trial of age, and her death was a shock to all.

The funeral services were held in the meeting house last Sabbath; the house was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased, and a vast concourse of people followed the remains to the burial place. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, and were excellent in character and well held to high esteem by the people of this place.

Z. CHRISTENSEN.

Death at Fountain Green.

FOUNTAIN GREEN, Jan. 15, 1893.

Editor Deseret News:

On Friday evening, January 13th, the people of this town were startled and surprised to learn that Miss Frances Olson had left this earthy sphere and passed to the world beyond. This lady was a severe trial of age, and her death was a shock to all.

The funeral services were held in the meeting house last Sabbath; the house was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased, and a vast concourse of people followed the remains to the burial place. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, and were excellent in character and well held to high esteem by the people of this place.

Z. CHRISTENSEN.

Death at Fountain Green.

FOUNTAIN GREEN, Jan. 15, 1893.

Editor Deseret News:

On Friday evening, January 13th, the people of this town were startled and surprised to learn that Miss Frances Olson had left this earthy sphere and passed to the world beyond. This lady was a severe trial of age, and her death was a shock to all.

The funeral services were held in the meeting house last Sabbath; the house was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased, and a vast concourse of people followed the remains to the burial place. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, and were excellent in character and well held to high esteem by the people of this place.

Z. CHRISTENSEN.

Death at Fountain Green.

FOUNTAIN GREEN, Jan. 15, 1893.

Editor Deseret News:

On Friday evening, January 13th, the people of this town were startled and surprised to learn that Miss Frances Olson had left this earthy sphere and passed to the world beyond. This lady was a severe trial of age, and her death was a shock to all.

The funeral services were held in the meeting house last Sabbath; the house was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased, and a vast concourse of people followed the remains to the burial place. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Johnson, and were excellent in character and well held to high esteem by the people of this place.

Z. CHRISTENSEN.

Death at Fountain Green.

FOUNTAIN GREEN, Jan. 15, 1893.