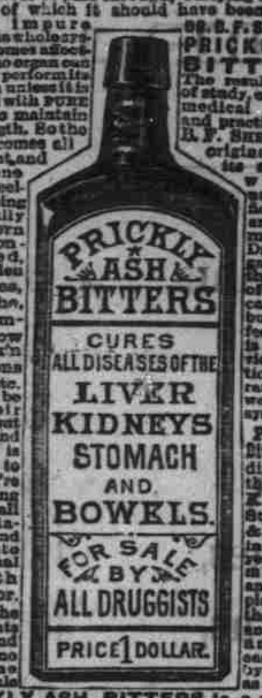
THE LIVER AND ITS FUNCTIONS.

It has become a well established fact that the larger portion of diseases to which the human family is subject arise in the first place from some derangement of the Liver. This organ is not only the largest, but at the same time one of the most important. The venous blood, on its return to the heart, passes through this organ, and in its passage the impurities are separated, and the secretions which are necessary for digestion as well as for a cathartic to assist in the renewal of waste material &c. are eliminated. From this it is easily seen that the Liver is liable to get out of order to a greater or less extent, and when this occurs it is impossible for it to properly fulfil its office of removing all objectionable matter from the blood, but allows it to pass through, carrying with it the poisons of which it should have been relieved. With impure blood the whole system becomes affected, and no organ can properly perform its function unless it is supplied with PURE BLOOD to maintain its strength. So the Liver becomes all important, and when one has the feeling of being continually tired, worn out, is constipated, with tendency to Piles, Headache, Sick Stomach, Sallow Complexion, Eruptions of Skin, etc. they may be sure their Liver is out of order, and a remedy is required to assist nature in relieving itself of all accumulations, and restore it to its original Strength and Vigor. For all the complaints of this kind there is no medicine that equals

DR. B. F. SHERMAN'S PRICKLY ASH BITTERS. The result of years of study, experiment, medical research and practice of Dr. B. F. SHERMAN, its originator, and its success wherever used is sufficient guaranty for its merit. Drastic Purgatives and that class of remedies can have but one effect—that is by their violent action to derange and weaken the system. Prickly Ash Bitters acts directly on the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach, & Bowels, in a mild yet effective manner, and is as pleasant to the taste as any cordial, and is as easily taken by children as adults.



PRICKLY ASH BITTERS is a medicine of rare merit, and not an intoxicating beverage, and being purely vegetable in its composition can be used at all times with beneficial results. It is not claimed as a cure-all, but for derangements of the organs mentioned, it is a specific and as a BLOOD PURIFIER ranks above all other preparations. Ask your druggist for it, and give it a fair trial. If he has none on hand, ask that it be ordered for you.

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, June 23, 1884.

CORRESPONDENCE.

MANTI, June 19th, 1884.

Editor Deseret News:

Several communications in the Salt Lake Herald of June 18th, in regard to the "Hopt miscarriage," have aroused the inquiry within my mind, "Are the three eminent Judges of the Supreme Bench of Utah justly entitled to the condemnatory strictures of the majority of the press and private effusions on this exciting topic so lavishly indulged in of late?" And far removed from the scene of excitement, quietly thinking, reviewing with an unbiased mind the events as they have transpired, studiously and carefully pondering over the productions referred to, of the 18th, reason comes to the rescue and my query is answered by a silent, but emphatic No.

A scroll is unfolded upon which is recorded the following:

A person is on trial for his life, for a foul and brutal murder, is found guilty, appeals to the Supreme Court of the Territory, and from there to the highest tribunal of the land, all of which is strictly in accordance with law. A stay of execution in the meantime is asked for and refused by the Judges of the Supreme Court of the Territory, who, like wanderer on a great ocean of sand without a landmark or haven mark to aid them, no guide, no established precedent, for the like never happened before, in the history of this country's jurisprudence, never can happen again only in this Territory and that during Utah's vassalage, those Judges conscientiously believing that the case is removed from under their jurisdiction by writ of error, and realizing with honor that a human being under the protection of the law, be he ever so vile or deserving of death, in legally exhausting the remedies vouchsafed him by the constitution and laws of our common country, may suffer death unheard, for he has been heard only in part, they (the Judges) in the humanity of their hearts, and this dire distress, cry out to the executive to interpose where they are powerless under the law. Not for the sake of shirking duty, not for the lack of moral stamina, but that we, the people of Utah might be saved from ourselves. That our fair escutcheon might not, by snatching a few months respite from a miserable assassin, be for evermore stained with the foul blot of a judicial murder, perpetrated by public clamor, smarting under the sting of justice long delayed.

I quote from the letter of one of the gentlemen referred to in the Herald: "Every intelligent citizen in the Territory of Utah, acquainted in the least degree with the history of the case, attribute the delay and defeat of justice to an overweaning desire by all classes of people, irrespective of political or religious distinction, including even the courts of the Territory to obtain conviction and insure the execution of the perpetrator of that awful crime." This requires but little comment, if any, as it will be conceded by all to be the true condition of things. All, all had a portion of this overweaning desire to obtain conviction, courts, public prosecutors, witnesses, the public, all, all contributed to the errors which have caused this putting off of justice, and now they do not want wisdom to step in and govern, but this "overweaning desire for conviction" must pursue to execution and finish in a tragedy of errors.

From the same letter I quote further: "As a citizen I was in favor of the execution taking place strictly in pursuance of the sentence, honestly believing that to be the way, and the only way to vindicate the law and protect society against a reign of terror."

Is it possible? Can the gentleman (for whom I have profound respect), believe that this would have been the only way in which the law could have been vindicated? If so, then let us petition to have the doors of the penetentiary thrown open and an invitation extended to the arch-fiend Hopt, to walk free and unmolested. "We cannot shoot you legally. We dare not as lovers of law and order do it illegally."

But we are not, nor will we ever be driven to this dire necessity. Let us bide our time in patience, if in suffering, remembering that we have contributed in a great degree to our own disappointment by this over-weaning desire, and should a new trial be granted, let us learn by our past follies and avoid the errors which "desire for conviction" has led us into, and justice will be meted out to the murderer. The law will be vindicated in the way in which it only can, by an observance of law, and Utah be saved from future sad reflections.

SOMETHING FROM SPRINGVILLE.

SPRINGVILLE, June 20, 1884.

Editor Deseret News:

News continues to reach here of wash-outs on the D. & R. G. and of the extremely high water east of this place, so that no through trains have been running for a long time, and none may be put through for some time to come.

The farmers are busy cutting and caring for their lucern, of which they have a very abundant crop. The worms are attacking it to some extent, but not to injure it much. This town has not suffered from the ravages of the pests as much as some of its neighbors.

Garden and field crops promise a bounteous yield. If profitable market can be found for it the husbandman will have abundant reason to rejoice. The cry of dull times is heard everywhere and yet some of the merchants are doing a good business, so they say, though money is very scarce through the country. The small fruits of this town are excellent, and Brother W. H. Kelsey alone expects to gather at least 3,000 quarts of strawberries in his garden, that it has fallen to my lot to see. The cultivation of small fruit should be encouraged in this country, as in no part of the world can they be produced with better flavor or to greater profit. Their culture would give employment to many of our young people who are now in want of labor. With the more extensive culture of such fruits, the canning and bottling industry might be combined, and importation in that line very materially decreased, if they could not be put up for export. Everything that can be produced here should receive the material aid of the people, as the home products are really what build up and enrich the country. VISITOR.

TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS and DISORDERED LIVER.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructation of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, a feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work, and are a perfect
