

CLAR-ENCAMPMENT

CRETAN CASE CAUSING ANXIETY

Europe Will Look to It That Turkey and Greece Do Not Go To War Over It.

NO ULTIMATUM PRESENTED.

Hoisting of the Greek Flag on Any Public Building in Crete Will Not Be Allowed.

London, Aug. 8.—The acute stage reached in the dispute between Turkey and Greece over Crete is causing anxiety in the European capitals such as always accompanies diplomatic difficulties in that quarter. However, as Mr. Iswolsky, the Russian foreign minister, said at Coves last Tuesday, if there is any awkward development in the situation, Europe will see that no mischievous results are reached. On the other hand there is every belief that a settlement will be arrived at.

From the latest reports it appears that Turkey has not presented anything in the form of an ultimatum to Greece, but has confined herself to verbal protests, while the four protecting powers are making energetic representations both to Constantinople and to Athens to secure an amicable arrangement of the dispute. The four powers insist that under no circumstances shall the Greek flag be hoisted over any public building in Crete and the foreign consuls at Canea have been instructed to impress this on the Cretan authorities.

NO ULTIMATUM FROM TURKS.

Constantinople, Aug. 8.—The steps the Porte has taken at Athens concerning Crete have been confined exclusively to verbal representations. No written note has been presented and the representations have been couched in the friendliest language consistent with firmness.

Greece has already informed the Porte that the Greek officers in Crete had been struck off the Greek army list since 1906, and that the whole question was in the hands of the four protecting powers. She said also that she expected tomorrow to make a formal reply in this sense, disavowing any assurance of Greek neutrality.

From the Turkish standpoint such a reply will be unsatisfactory, but much is hoped for from the energy the protecting powers are displaying to prevent the crisis becoming dangerous.

The ambassadors of the four powers—Great Britain, Russia, France and Italy—conferred today and will meet again tomorrow to agree upon a common action which will be taken without delay. The agitation against Greece is growing in the Turkish provinces. In some towns it has taken the form of a boycott of Greek goods. A volunteer force of 5,000 men has been formed at Monastir ready to march against Greece.

GREECE'S REPLY.

Athens, Greece, Aug. 8.—It is stated that the Greek reply to Turkey will be delivered Tuesday. The representatives of the powers are holding frequent conferences with the premier and foreign minister.

An Austrian squadron and an Italian warship have arrived at Volos. It is supposed they are on the way to Salonika.

PRETTY GIRL LEADS STRIKE BREAKERS SUCCESSFULLY

Newcastle, Pa., Aug. 8.—The strike at the local mills of the American Sheet & Tin Plate company here bids fair to be broken soon, and when it is the strike breaking will be charged up against Miss Braden, the pretty daughter of Dan Braden, one of the former mill superintendents, who is leading all the strike breakers and has taken the position of forewoman in the asserting room.

Miss Braden years ago worked in the mill for her health and this stands her in good stead now.

In her own automobile, Miss Braden is taken to and from the mill daily, and inside the large handbag which

OWES HER LIFE TO

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Vienna, W. Va. — "I feel that I owe the last ten years of my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Eleven years ago I was a walking shadow. I had been under the doctor's care but got no relief. My husband persuaded me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it worked like a charm. It relieved all my pains and misery. I advise all suffering women to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

—Mrs. ELMA WHITEHEAD, Vienna, W. Va.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any similar medicine in the country, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaint, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every such suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

SPEAKER CANNON WILL NOT RETIRE

Chicago, Aug. 8.—Speaker Joseph G. Cannon stopped off in Chicago last evening on his way home to Danville and disclaimed any intention of retiring from public life, as reported in New York dispatches.

"When I get ready to step out of office, I will say, but up to date I am making no such announcement," declared the speaker. "Also when my constituents get ready to have me retire they will not doubt say so. However, they have not given the words of answer. I am going back to Danville for a good reason. None of your Chatauquas for me. They have wanted me to make the rounds with a speech this summer, but I have declined with thanks."

"I shall get well rested up and then go back to Washington in the winter and run a little Chatauqua of my own."

MISS JANE ADDAMS MAY BE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE

Boston, Aug. 9.—"Jane Addams of Chicago, future president of the United States," will be the slogan soon, according to the advocates of equal suffrage. Boston has been chosen as the starting point of a campaign, by which the women hope to gain prestige, if not actually a president.

CRUSADE AGAINST EMBALMED CUCUMBERS

Washington, Aug. 9.—Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief chemist of the agricultural department and guardian of the pure food laws, has started a crusade against embalmed cucumbers and skinners inoculated with alum. He asserts that withered and half-spiced cucumbers are given generous hypodermics of alum and under its magic influence the once soft, soggy and generally disreputable pickle of commerce is plumped out, rejuvenated and becomes so pleasing to the eye that few persons can resist its alluring attractions.

Although the board of food and drug inspection has had the question of the use of alum as a preservative under consideration for several weeks, no decision has yet been given.

HAD MONEY TO BURN.

New York, Aug. 9.—Mrs. Charles Hart, wife of the railroad contractor, concealed $600 in bills in a shirt hanging in a closet of her home. In closing the door afterward she ignited a parlor match on the sill without knowing it, and before the fire was discovered, the contents of the closet, including the $600 had been consumed.

PITIAL PLIGHT OF BLOND AMERICANS

New York, Aug. 9.—A startling note of warning to blue-eyed light-complexioned New Yorkers is uttered by Dr. Charles F. Woodruff, surgeon and major in the United States army, who has just completed a private tour of the prisons and asylums of the city and state. The jails and institutions, he says, are full of blonds who, unable to stand the struggle for existence in a climate to which they are unfitted, have fallen into poverty, disease and crime.

What is true of New York, he says, is true of the country as a whole and unless the blond American finds or adopts some better means of survival than he has at present, he will be wiped out as a type in favor of the brunettes.

The great trouble is the sunshine. There is too much of it in America

ROBBED MAN BEAT HIS RESCUER

Chicago, Aug. 9.—C. E. Rogers was awakened early yesterday by a noise at his window. When he looked out he saw three men in the act of robbing a Chinaman. He rushed to the rescue of the victim.

Rogers opened the door of his room and the robbers ran away. Rogers approached the Chinaman who suspected that his rescuer was a robber, and struck him in the face.

The attack was so unexpected that Rogers fell. Then the Chinaman kicked him several times in the side and ran away.

CRUEL HUSBANDS.

Wives Who Complain Censured for Not Prosecuting.

New York, Aug. 9.—In passing judgment on a man charged with having blackened his wife's eyes, Chief Magistrate House declared in court the state needs a whipping post for wife-beaters. "If you need something for your wives who are beaten," he continued, "from 10 to 50 badly whipped wives come here daily for warrants for their husbands and then when the brutes are arraigned in the women place for givenness for them, refuse to prosecute and all I can do is to turn them loose."

SAVED BY A JUMP.

New York, Aug. 9.—Mrs. George R. Trumbull, the widow of a wealthy New York contractor, saved her life by a quick jump from her automobile, which was stalled at a Long Island crossing, and at the same time warned the chauffeur, who was lying on his back under the car, trying to fix it. Neither was injured, but the $5,000 car was demolished by a locomotive.

Clinton W. Kinnella, a millionaire builder, was seriously injured while trying out a new 90-horsepower car near White Plains. The machine skidded and crashed into a tree. The chauffeur was also hurt.

OBITUARY.

ELIZABETH TAYLOR BOYES.

Funeral services over the remains of Elizabeth Taylor Boyes were held at the Big Cottonwood ward house, Aug. 3, 1909. The opening prayer was offered by Francis McDonald, Bishop John Neff of East Mill Creek, George J. Taylor and President Joseph F. Smith were the speakers.

Bishop Neff said her public life had been exemplary and filled with usefulness. Elder Taylor said he had known Aunt Elizabeth from his childhood and knew her to be a woman of integrity.

President Joseph F. Smith explained some of the principles governing the resurrection. He said he did not feel the presence of death, and felt no regret.

Elizabeth Taylor Boyes was born in the Big Cottonwood cemetery.

At the time of her death, deceased was the oldest living pioneer who came to Utah in 1847.

Mrs. Leonora Andrus sang a solo and Isaac Brockbank pronounced the closing prayer. Interment was in the Big Cottonwood cemetery.

Deceased was born at Hale, Westmoreland Co., England, Sept. 4, 1819. She was the daughter of James and Agnes Taylor, his oldest sister of the late President John Taylor.

She emigrated with her father's family to Canada in 1839, where they embraced the gospel in 1838 and later moved to Kirtland, O. She was married in 1838 to William Arrowsmith. Owing to religious differences, she and her husband separated at Nauvoo. She came to Utah with the first company of saints, arriving here in September, 1847. She was married the same year to George Boyes and removed to Big Cottonwood in the spring of 1851. She resided in Big Cottonwood continuously until her death. She was the mother of 12 children.

son for mourning. Sister Boyes had been a good woman and faithful Latter-day Saint. She had been true to every call made of her. There was no doubt as to her future welfare.

ROOSEVELT FOREST POLICY NOT ALTOGETHER POPULAR

Spokane, Aug. 8.—A war of words in prospect between Gifford Pinchot, United States forester, on the one side, and Richard A. Ballinger, secretary of the Interior, on the other, over the forestry policies of Theodore Roosevelt, was the absorbing topic about the hotel tables tonight on the eve of the opening of the National Irrigation congress. The feeling was expressed that if the question of forest reservation is brought up, Mr. Pinchot will defend the Roosevelt policy of reserving forest lands from the possibility of public entrance, and that if he does this Mr. Ballinger immediately will defend his policy of demanding that much of the lands thus closed be thrown open.

There is much feeling over the matter, and the prospect of a clash between Roosevelt's policies and the all-determination of Ballinger to cross them has brought discussion to fever heat. Criticism has also been expressed of the action by Mr. Ballinger in refusing further to permit settlement on forest lands to apply the value of their labor on irrigation projects under way.

This policy was inaugurated by Mr. Roosevelt in aid of settlers, and it is urged that the refusal to continue the policy works a hardship on many settlers, who have no other means of realizing the fruits of irrigation for which they have waited, in some cases, for several years.

It is expected that Mr. Ballinger will express himself on this point.

STANDARD OIL HARD HIT.

New York, Aug. 9.—The Standard Oil company has been hard hit in Bayonne, N. J., where it has its largest eastern plant, by the valuation placed on its factory by the new city assessor, Henry Hinse. Assessor A. F. Brooke last year increased the valuations in Bayonne $4,000,000. Hinse has increased it $7,000,000 this year and two-thirds has been levied on the Standard Oil plant. Last year the Standard was assessed at $7,412,000, and this year at $12,123,070.
