MURDERED BY A DRUNKEN WRETCH

Tragic Fate of Michael E. Malone, Former Citizen of Ogden, at Mina, Nev.

In Judge Howell's Court Pending Receipt of Supreme Court Decision On This Question.

Ogden, April 19.—Shot to death by a drunken man was the sad fate of Michael E. Malone, former citizen of Ogden, at Mina, Nev. Mr. Malone was formerly employed in the Ogden shops, but about six months ago was advanced to foreman at Mina, but his family, consisting of his wife and two daughters, still reside in Ogden, at 538 Twenty-fifth street.

The report of the tragedy, as received in Ogden by his brother, D. J. Malone, master-mechanic for the Harriman line in this city, is that Michael Malone was working in the shops under a machine, doing some repairs, when a man who gives his name as Frank Everett, came into the repair shop and without any provocation, deliberately fired at Malone, the bullet striking him in the head. Other employees in the shops rushed to his assistance, while others disarmed Everett and held him for the officers. Malone was taken from under the engine and carried to a nearby place, where the wound was dressed by a physician, but from the first little hope of his recovery was extinguished, and he died shortly after 11 o'clock yesterday. His body was taken to Reno, Nevada, where it will be prepared and shipped to Ogden today for burial.

Mr. Malone was born in Ireland in 1846. When a young man he came to America, and for many years has been a resident of this western country. He lived in Ogden for a number of years and was well known and highly respected. His family have the sympathy of a host of friends in their sad bereavement.

DIVORCE CASES DEFERRED

By Judge Howell, Awaiting Arrival of Supreme Court Decision.

Ogden, April 19.—All divorce suits now pending in the Second District court have been continued without date by Judge J. A. Howell. The action of the court caused considerable surprise to a number of attorneys who have divorce suits pending in the court for clients.

Judge Howell stated last evening

Manager, E. A. Larkin, 460 24th St., Telephone 128-4.

Advertisements for the Daily, Saturday and Semi-Weekly News accepted on the same terms as at the Salt Lake office.

Circulator, John J. McGregor, 245 Wash. Ave., 1st. Tel. 151. Office with Lambert Paper Co.

Payments for the Daily, Saturday and Semi-Weekly News should be made to the circulator. Delivery made by carrier on the same terms as in Salt Lake.

that he has made the order of continuance, awaiting more definite reports of the decision of the United States supreme court handed down Monday. This report will be published, no doubt, by the official court reporter in full, but in the meantime Judge Howell does not desire to make any mistake in divorce matters, therefore, made the order.

The supreme court decision, in brief, appears to be that valid divorces cannot be granted by a court unless the defendant is personally within the jurisdiction of the court or unless the offense for which the divorce is granted was committed within the jurisdiction of the court.

PRISONERS ESCAPE

The open grounds around the Carnegie library appear to be too enticing for the city prisoners, who have been putting them in better condition the past week. While Guard Lever had a gang of six employed on the grounds yesterday afternoon three of them decided to try their sprinting qualities, and two of them, John Moran and John Doe, who were serving 30 and 15 day sentences respectively, succeeded in making good their escape, while Horace Washington, a colored man, only ran a few blocks when he was overtaken, and returned to the jail. Guard Lever fired several shots at the men, but missed his mark. This is the second time this week that prisoners have made a dash for liberty from Lever.

INFORMATION BUREAU.

At a meeting of the Ogden Real Estate Men's association held yesterday afternoon, it was unanimously decided to establish an information bureau at or near the Union depot building, where the various products of the state can be exhibited, and literature distributed setting forth the resources and advantages of Ogden and the entire state, also to have someone at the bureau who could interest visitors in elucidating the advantages Utah offers in climate, water and other conditions. By this means it is believed a great work can be accomplished in advertising the state. A number of other matters pertaining to the advancement of Ogden were discussed.

HORATIO PICKET INJURED.

Santa Clara Floods Cause Damage—Prof. C. R. Mabey's Lecture.

St. George, Washington Co., April 16.—There has been no rain for a week, and the weather is getting quite warm. All kinds of garden stuff is growing rapidly. Peas are in bloom, and radishes, lettuce, asparagus and green onions have been on the market some time.

During the recent flood on the Santa Clara Creek, the store of Bishop James Andrus at Shem came nearly being washed away, so Mr. Andrus sent men to move the store and hay shed back from the banks of the stream. Last Saturday, while Horatio Pickett of St. George was engaged in tearing down the shed, preparatory to moving it, a stringer dropped and knocked the ladder from under him. Mr. Pickett fell about twelve feet on to a timber and was badly bruised and shaken up. He was brought home the same evening. The attending physician says that no bones are broken, but it was thought at first that he was seriously hurt.

Prof. Charles I. Mabey, of the Branch Normal at Cedar city, delivered a lecture in the tabernacle last night on "The Philippines." There were still a few cases of scarlatina here.

EVANSTON, WYO.

SANITARY ORDINANCE.

Approaching Elections—Sewer System Agitated.

Special Correspondence.

Evanston, Wyo., April 12.—Already the town is abuzz with preparations for a great spring festival. The entire town is getting ready to celebrate the centennial of the city.

The town council at its last meeting passed several ordinances, not the least important of which was one prohibiting the use of fireworks, throwing cigar stumps on the sidewalk, etc.

The matter of a sewer system is being vigorously agitated by the business men and property owners. They feel that this matter is really the most important one to come up at the approaching election.

City and school elections both occur on the same day, and it is expected that a very enjoyable party will be had at the residence of Acting Bishop Parkinson on Tuesday afternoon, when a large number of guests are expected.

HORSE Maims ITS KEEPER.

Considerable excitement was occasioned on Tuesday by the arrival of a large stallion from the east for the Chambers estate. The crowd of people and the excitement of the trip had made the animal nervous and vicious, and such was the case that he could not be handled all until about 10 o'clock, when he was ministered. During the meal one of the men lost a thumb, the horse biting it off. It seems the man was trying to lead the horse, but the horse broke, and the man ran, but Mr. Horse caught his hand with above result.

REMARKABLE EXPERIMENTS

AND STUDIES ON THE STOMACH.

How To Eat Properly.

BY DR. VALENTINE.

Not long ago Horace Fletcher published his book, "The B. Z. of O. Nutrition," in which he advocated, "Do right the feeding of your body; Nature will do all the rest for you." Mr. Fletcher's experiments on himself and upon dogs, cats and other animals, Mr. Fletcher concludes that the average human being eats food as much as a dog, but that by eating only one-third as much and masticating it even more thoroughly than by Gladstone's famous thirty-two bites of each mouthful, a person is assured of unflinching health, strength, contentment and longevity. In a word, he will have annihilated the chief cause of all disease—indigestion. Mr. Fletcher's experiments, which he has made at the University of California, and made tests under the auspices of the United States Army. As a result of his experiments he advocates that people should ignore false appetite and wait for a return of normal appetite, which is indicated by a desire for some artificial simple food, accompanied by watering of the mouth—all of which is good advice, but a great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and weak, with poor circulation, because they have already ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to home, office or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes.

Dr. Roberts Bartholow, Professor in Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia, a recognized authority on "Materia Medica and Therapeutics," says of Hydrastis (Golden Seal root): "Very useful as a stomachic tonic (stomach tonic) and in atonic dyspepsia. Cures gastric catarrh (catarrh of stomach) and head aches accompanying same. Constipation, dependent upon different degrees of secretions, with hard and dry stools, may be overcome by the remedy. Chronic catarrh of the intestines, even if it has proceeded to ulceration, is remarkably benefited by Hydrastis. It may be given as a remedy for intermittent chronic and malarial poisoning, an enlarged spleen of malarial origin. It diminishes mucus in catarrh of the bladder."

From "Organic Medicines," by Grove, Coo, M. D., of New York, we extract the following: "Hydrastis (Golden Seal root) is a powerful tonic, and is especially useful in cases of general debility, in cases of surface. Upon the liver it acts with equal certainty and efficacy. As a cholagogue (liver invigorator), it has few equals in affections of the spleen and abdominal viscera generally. It is an efficient and reliable remedy. Also in scurvy, glandular diseases generally, in cases of dropsy, in cases of biliousness, diarrhea and dysentery, constipation, piles and all morbid and critical discharges."

The "Golden Medical Discovery" not only produces all the good effects to be obtained from the use of Golden Seal root, in all stomach, liver and bowel troubles, as in dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, ulceration of stomach and bowels and kindred ailments, but the Golden Seal root used in its compounding is greatly enhanced in its curative action by the other ingredients mentioned above. Each of its ingredients has the endorsement of those medical writers and teachers most eminent in their profession.

A little book of extracts treating of all the several ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicine, being extracts of standard medical works, of the different schools of practice, will be mailed free to any one asking by postal card or letter for the same, addressed to Doctor R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and giving the writer's full post-office address, plainly written.

In cases of chronic ailments, attended by marked, or persistent, constipation, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be taken conjointly with the use of the "Golden Medical Discovery," to regulate the bowels. They act in harmony with the "Discovery," and will be found to be a most valuable laxative, or, in fuller doses, a cleansing cathartic.

Podophyllin, the active medicinal principle of Mandrake root, enters largely into the composition of the little sugar-coated "Pellets," in fact is one of their chief ingredients. They regulate the liver, stomach and bowels.
