SAVE YOUR HAIR | TO LEARN HOW TO DO IT READ AND HEED WHAT FOLLOWS.

SAVE YOUR HAIR.—The laws of Health and Longevity demand it, the customs of social life require it. The matter is of great importance in every way.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.—It is the surpassing crown of glory, and for the loss of it there is no compensation.

CULTIVATE YOUR HAIR.—For by no other means can it be saved and beautified.

LYON'S

KATHAIRON,

Discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.

Besides being the best hair dressing ever produced, Lyon's Kathairon will positively prevent grayness, and will restore new hair to bald heads, if the roots and follicles are not destroyed.

It actually performs these seeming miracles, of which the following is

A FAIR SPECIMEN

I had been entirely bald for several years, constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon, and, to my great surprise, I have a thick growth of young hair.

COL. JOHN L. DORRANCE, U. S. A.

In every important respect the Kathairon is absolutely incomparable. It is unequaled.

1. To Cure Baldness.
2. To Restore Gray Hair.
3. To Remove Dandruff.
4. To Dress and Beautify the Hair.

BEAR IN MIND.—The Kathairon is no sticky paste of sulphur and sugar-of-lead, to paint and daub the hair and paralyze the brain. It is a pure and limpid vegetable lotion, intended to restore the hair by natural growth and reinvigoration. It is splendidly perfumed, and the most delightful toilet dressing known. No lady's or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon.

FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 16.—Windom submitted the following:

Resolved, That with a view to a peaceful adjustment of all questions relating to suffrage, to an effectual enforcement of constitutional and national rights, and to promote the best interests of the whole country, by the elimination of sectionalism from politics, a committee of seven senators be appointed by the chair, and charged with the duty of inquiring as to the expediency and practicability of encouraging and promoting, by all just and proper methods, the partial migration of colored persons from those States and congressional districts where they are not allowed to freely and peaceably exercise and enjoy their constitutional rights as American citizens, into such as may desire to receive them, and will protect them in said rights, or into such territory or territories of the United States as may be provided for their use and protection; and if said committee shall deem such migration expedient and practicable that they report, by bill or otherwise, what in their judgment is the most effective method of accomplishing that object; and that the committee have leave to sit during the recess. Laid on the table for the present, at the request of Windom, and he gave notice that he would call it up soon and submit some remarks.

Dorsey submitted a resolution calling upon the Secretary of the Treasury for a statement of all appropriations and expenditures from the national treasury for the purpose of paying the expenses of the Indian Department from July 1st, 1790, to June 30th, 1878. Agreed to.

The House bill providing for the payment of arrears of pensions was taken up on motion of Ingalls.

Kernan favored the bill.

Pending discussion the morning hour expired and, by unanimous consent, unfinished business, being the bill to amend the patent laws, was laid aside informally, that the Senate might continue with the pension bill. Considerable discussion ensued, and a number of amendments offered which were rejected.

Morrill said the passage of the bill would impose additional burdens on the treasury. The expenses of government were greater during the last six months than they were during the corresponding months of '77. Should this pension bill be passed there would be a deficit in our revenues this year, and the Senate must provide for the treasury issuing bonds to meet the burdens.

Saulsbury thought the bill was one of doubtful propriety at least. He would do no injustice to the soldiers, but the government had been liberal to its soldiers, and this bill proposed to give them a mere gratuity 13 years after the close of the war. Every person entitled to a pension had received one. While government was generous to the soldier it should be just to the people, who had been taxed beyond the people of any other country on the face of the earth. He thought government had provided for the soldiers, and he now desired to see some legislation to relieve the burdens of the people.

Kernan said if he thought the bill was a gratuity he would vote against it. He regarded it as a just obligation. He admitted that there was a heavy taxation and he would join his friend (Saulsbury) in securing economy, but he would not strike the first blow at the pensioners of government. There were plenty of opportunities to save millions in other ways.

The bill was then read the third time and passed—yeas 44, nays 4.

The bill not having been amended by the Senate, now goes to the President for his signature.

Saunders sent to the Clerk's desk and had read a letter from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs in regard to remarks in the debate in the Senate on the Indian appropriation bill, to the effect that the Nez Perces Indians had been removed in violation of law. The Commissioner stated that they were removed in accordance with the provisions of the Indian appropriation act for that year.

The Senate then resumed consideration of unfinished business, being the bill to amend the patent law, the pending question being on the amendment of Matthews to strike out of the bill, as reported by the committee, various provisions in regard to damages for infringement on patents, and insert in lieu thereof the following: No account case, be allowed, but the evidence thereof may be admitted as tending to prove what shall be deemed a reasonable license fee as compensation for the infringement.

The vote resulted yeas 6, nays, 32. No quorum voting, a call of the Senate was ordered. After a quorum responded the Senate proceeded to the consideration of executive business, and when the doors re-opened the House bills to facilitate the refunding of the national debt, to authorize the issue of certificates of deposit in aid of refunding the public debt and the House bill to make United States notes receivable for duties on imports, were referred to the committee on finance.

The Senate took a recess till 7.45 p. m., for the purpose of attending the Professor Henry memorial service in the House at 8 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

Upon the re-assembling, on motion of Edmunds, the vice-president was directed to adjourn the Senate until 12 o'clock to-morrow upon the return of that body from the ceremonies in the House, and the Senate at 7.50, preceded by its officers, repaired to the hall of the House. At the conclusion of the ceremonies the Senate returned to its chamber and, in accordance with the previous order, adjourned.

HOUSE.

The Speaker announced the regular order to be the consideration of the bill reported last night from the committee on ways and means to facilitate the refunding of the national debt, and the pending question to be on the passage of the bill.

Mills asked wood to yield for an amendment subjecting all bonds here afterisued to taxation.

Wood declined to yield for that purpose and the bill passed without division.

The House then went into committee of the whole on the bill organizing the Mississippi River improvement commission, and providing for the improvement of that river and the protection of its alluvial lands. An appropriation of $250,000 is made for the payment of salaries, and the committee which reported the bill has an amendment added to the section appropriating $3,871,000 for strengthening the Mississippi levees.

Gibson gave notice that he would, if he had opportunity, offer as a substitute an amendment appropriating $2,500,000 for the improvement of the Mississippi, from the head passes of that river to the mouth of the Illinois River.

Robertson spoke in favor of the bill.

Ellis submitted an amendment as a substitute, appropriating $4,850,000 for the purpose of repairing the levees of the Mississippi, and improving the navigation of that river, such money to be expended under the direction of the chief engineer of the army.

Chalmers said, with the Mississippi River improved, the south could supply the whole Union with sugar, and the whole world with cotton.

Robertson proposed that the debate shall be continued next Wednesday evening. The previous question was then seconded, and a vote taken.

The committee then rose and the order asked by Robertson was made by the House.

Cobb introduced a bill to authorize a local taxation of legal tender notes.

Recess to 7.45.

EASTERN.

The Escaped Indians — indications of Another Indian War.

FORT ROBINSON, Neb., 16.—Yesterday, at noon, Captain Lawson, commanding company E, Third cavalry, started in pursuit of the fleeing savages who are said to be making a detour in the direction of the Pine Ridge or Rosebud Indian camps, and the prospects of reaching the wigwams of their sympathizing red brethren are greatly in their favor, despite the sanguine hopes of the military to capture them ere they can reach there. The savages have a good 30 hours' start of the troops, and should they succeed in stealing enough stock to mount themselves, which is not improbable, their escape is certain, and will be the means of getting the young warriors of the Sioux nations to dig up the hatchet and avenge their wrongs. The prevalent opinion here is that we are near the eve of a bloody Indian war.

The mail carrier, just in from Pine Ridge agency, Red Cloud's new location, says that since the news of the Cheyenne outbreak and its results became known to his people, there is much weeping and wailing among them, and they say their hearts are bad. Captain Wessels started with his company this morning at four o'clock, for the Indians, and will take up the trail.

Fort Laramie, Wyo., 16.—Captain Johnson's command camped to-night at Silver Springs, 40 miles north of here, on the old Deadwood stage road. It is reported that the Cheyennes were seen last night six miles from Bluff station, on the Cheyenne and Deadwood stage road, about 30 miles northwest of Red Cloud. They are evidently making for the station to secure the herd of horses there belonging to the stage company.

The Self-Confessed Murderer.

KEARNEY, Neb., 16.—The trial of S. D. Richards, the self-confessed murderer of several persons was held at Minnie yesterday. There were three indictments against him for the murder of four persons. The charges on which he was tried was the murder of Peter Anderson on December 9th last. He pleaded not guilty. The jury received the case in the afternoon, and returned a verdict of guilty after two hours deliberation, whereupon Judge Gaslin immediately pronounced sentence—that he be hanged on April 25th, just the 101 days allowed by the law. The prisoner was apparently the happiest man in the court room. Lynching is feared.

The Reno Court of Inquiry.

CHICAGO, 16.—The Reno court of inquiry, to-day, decided that reporters might take notes. Lieut. Wallace was cross-examined by Major Reno's counsel, Mr. Gilbert. The testimony was only a development of that given yesterday. He related how, after the division of Custer's command, Col. Benteen went to the left, Major Reno crossed the stream and General Custer remained on the right bank; formed a junction by Reno re-crossing acout 12 miles below, and how finally the battle was fought. Some of Major Reno's command had never ridden a horse until this campaign. The only ammunition on hands of Reno's force was the supplies at their saddle. It was used up in half an hour. In his opinion it was a wise act of Major Reno to retreat, as to have remained would have been to emperil the lives of the whole body. Major Reno's conduct was brave and praiseworthy. During the retreat 25 men were killed, and seven wounded, and the time consumed was about an hour. At the arrival on the top of the hill, Benteen's force came up, but the pack train was three miles in the rear. Reno showed no signs of fear all this time, but was conspicuously brave and fearless. No communication had been received from Custer, but a trumpeter stated that he had gone back. The ammunition was distributed and company D first met the Indians, several thousand strong, in a ravine of fine advantages, where the men were properly posted by Reno. He had about 280 men under his command at that time. The bullets came like hail until dark, about three hours. When the fortifications were thrown up firing commenced about 8 a.m. on the 26th, and continued until 10 o'clock, when it slackened. There were probably 9,000 Indian warriors in the village that evening, it being two and a half or three miles long. They first knew of Custer's fate on the 27th. They discovered the line of battle perfectly evident from the dead horses and corpses. The position was not well chosen for defense. Around Custer was a whole pile of men. There had apparently been an attempt at escape. The fight, probably, did not last over half an hour. Custer had 225 men when he separated from Reno.

The court decided, this afternoon, that it will not investigate the conduct of Benteen, whose name has been associated with Reno in this matter. Adjourned.

Nearly a Break up.

A quarrel which promised for a while to break up last night's performance of Her Majesty's opera troupe, is made public this morning. The story is that Minnie Hauk, coming early in the evening to Haverly's Theatre, and finding that Madame Reze had been given the dressing room usually assigned to the prima donna, after expostulating with Colonel Mapleson returned to her hotel and refused to sing. She persisted in this course until informed by a note from Mapleson that unless she came at once he would stop the opera, go before the curtain and explain the affair as it was. She then returned, but so late that one of the most vital features of the performance was omitted.

The whole opera was inharmonious, and once she was extremely discourteous in behavior towards Madame Roze while on the stage. A few of the audience who were in the secret observed this and hissed. The majority of the spectators, however, only knew that the opera, "The Marriage of Figaro," was badly mangled by the inharmony of the parts.

Lynching—Short of Rope.

CHEYENNE, 16.—A passenger on the coach from the north, to-day, reports that on Tuesday a party of soldiers found the bodies of two unknown men near the Fort Laramie and Fort McKenney road. One was hanging to a tree, the other lying on the ground. It is supposed they were horse or cattle thieves hanged by the ranchmen who, being short of rope, hanged one and, when dead, cut him down and hanged the other.
