

OVER PRODUCTION OF LEGISLATION

Ambassador Bryce Addresses the New York State Bar Association on the Subject.

DIFFICULT TO HAVE IT GOOD.

Of Those Who Demand It Many Do Not Know Exactly What the Evil Is Nor Proper Remedy to Apply.

New York, Jan. 24.—British Ambassador James Bryce addressed the State Bar Association at a meeting in Carnegie hall tonight. The ambassador dwelt upon the form and substance of the ever-increasing volume of legislation.

In no country, said Mr. Bryce, is the output of legislation so large as in the United States, where, besides Congress, 46 states, territories and the District of Columbia are turning out laws on all imaginable subjects, with a faith in the power of law to bless mankind which few historians or philosophers are bound to share. The demand for a profusion of legislation is inevitable. The difficulty of having it good consists in three things.

First, of those who demand legislation many do not understand exactly what is the evil they desire to cure, the good they seek to attain.

Secondly, when they do understand the evils, they seldom know what is the proper remedy.

Thirdly, the number of measures, remedial and constructive called for, is so large that it is very hard to select out of them those which are really needed. Mr. Bryce said conditions made it desirable to have some organized system for the gathering and examination of materials for legislation and especially for the selection of laws passed in other countries on subjects of current importance.

To secure the pushing forward of measures needed in the public interest there should be left to the legislative department by the administrative department or body of persons become responsible for the conduct of legislation. To secure sufficient time for the consideration of measures of general and permanent applicability, such matters as those relating to the details of administration or in the nature of executive orders should be left to be dealt with by the administrative department of government, under delegated power, possibly with a right to disapprove reserved to the legislature. Similarly the more detailed rules of legal procedure ought to be left to the judicial department or some body commissioned by it, instead of being regulated by statute. Bills of a local or personal nature ought to be separated from bills of general applicability and dealt with in a different and quasi-judicial way.

In order to enable both the legislature and the people to learn what the statute law in force actually is, and thereby to facilitate intelligent legislation, the statute law ought to be periodically revised, and so far as possible so consolidated as to be brought into compact, consistent and intelligible shape. In his annual address this afternoon President Joseph H. Choate said that there was a general disposition on the part of the press to belittle the work done by the House of Representatives. Because everything had not been accomplished, the newspapers tried to claim that nothing had been accomplished. He emphasized the statement that it was a conference, not a parliament, and said that while there was a great deal of discussion, there was very little deal of discussion. It was an assembly of earnest, able, cultivated men, even the smallest nations being represented by men of high attainments, and for the first time in history had brought together all the civilized nations of the world in the interest of international peace.

POISONOUS EFFECTS OF DRUGS ON HUMAN SYTEM

Washington, Jan. 24.—Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry of the department of agriculture, reported today to the house committee on agriculture the results of experiments conducted by the bureau to determine the poisonous effect on the human system of such drugs as borax, benzoic acid, benzoate of soda, sulphate of copper, salicylic acid, formaldehyde and salicylic acid when contained in foodstuffs.

Dr. Wiley said that the expulsion of those and kindred drugs from the body is performed almost entirely by the kidneys, and that he is satisfied the term of American life would be lengthened if the use of such drugs in foods were wholly discontinued. He said he was convinced that kidney disease, so prevalent among Americans, is partly the result of constant introduction in the system of such preservative substances as benzoate of soda carried in foods.

Discussing sulphur dioxide and its injurious effects, Dr. Wiley told the committee of a discovery just made by him that sulphur is a perfect substitute for sulphur in the whitening and drying of fruit. He exhibited samples of apples dried experimentally by the bureau. The sulphured fruit was not so white or tender as the salt cured.

A SUICIDE COMPACT.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Daisy today Mrs. Daisy M. Wagner, wife of Howard G. Wagner, agent for an automobile house, was found partly covered with snow and with a bullet hole in her head, on a roadway near the Zoo park. Mr. Wagner had told a friend that if his wife should commit suicide he would follow her in the same way and when informed of her death, he attempted to jump from the fifth story of the apartment house in which he was visiting, but was overpowered. It is said that unpleasant relations existed between the couple.

PROHIBITION IN MICHIGAN.

Drastic Measure Unanimously and Favorably Reported.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 24.—A drastic prohibition proposal was unanimously and favorably reported in the constitutional convention today by the committee on liquor affairs. JOHN MITCHELL.

Proposed to Raise Fund of Several Hundred Thousand for Him.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 24.—The convention of the United Mine Workers of America adjourned at noon until tomorrow. None of the committees were ready to report.

President Mitchell, concerning rumors published here that he probably would become the head of a national bureau of mines, announced that he had not accepted a government position, none had been offered to him and to the best of his knowledge, he never would accept a government position. It is stated today that there is a movement afoot to create a national advisory board of the miners' organization, of which Mr. Mitchell would be head. There will be opposition in the ranks of the miners.

The solution committee is flooded with resolutions proposing a per capita tax for Mitchell of 50 cents and a dollar. This would raise a fund of from $10,000 to $300,000. It is believed he would not accept it.

GOMPERS' GOULD'S DECISION

Declares it an Invasion of the Liberty of the Press and the Right of Free Speech.

WON'T OBEY ALL ITS TERMS.

Services of Some Leading Lawyers Secured to Carry Stove Case to U. S. Supreme Court.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Although enjoined from making any reference to the controversy between the American Federation of Labor and the Buck Stove & Range company, President Samuel Gompers in an editorial in the current issue of the American Federationist, comments on Justice Gould's recent decision at great length and declares a purpose not to comply with all its terms.

"It is an invasion of the liberty of the press and the right of free speech," declares Mr. Gompers. "We would be recreant to our duty did we not do it in our power to point out to the people the serious invasion of their liberties which has taken place. That this has been done by Judge Gould's decision and not by statute law makes the menace all the greater."

"The matter of attempting to suppress the boycott of the Buck Stove & Range company is an important, while important, yet pales into insignificance before this invasion and denial of constitutional rights. We discuss this injunction and feel obliged as a matter of course to point out the serious invasion of their liberties which has taken place. That this has been done by Judge Gould's decision and not by statute law makes the menace all the greater."

Mr. Gompers states that the services of some of the foremost lawyers in the country have been secured and that the case will be carried to the United States supreme court. The action against the Federation of Labor and its officials was brought in the supreme court of the District of Columbia on the ground that the publication of the stove company in the "We don't patronize" list in the American Federationist, was in the nature of a boycott, which is prohibited by law. The Federationist will be asked to drop the stove company from the list.

STUDYING SKYSCRAPERS.

New York, Jan. 25.—Victor von Salemann of Moscow, Russia, is in New York for the purpose of studying skyscrapers. He seeks to learn all there is to know about them in four days and return to Moscow and straightway construct one. Mr. von Salemann owns several buildings in Moscow and in a short time ago determined to erect one of the skyscraping variety, for there are no laws in Moscow limiting the height of buildings as there are in St. Petersburg. After he got aboard the steamer to come to New York Mr. von Salemann remembered that he did not know a word of the English language, so he began to study it. All his time

General debility may arise from a variety of causes but weakness is always present, a tendency to perspire and fatigue easily, ringing in the ears, sometimes black spots passing before the eyes, weak back, vertigo, wakefulness caused by inability to stop thinking, and unrefreshing sleep. These conditions are simply a call for a blood tonic and builder.

Mrs. Lena May Brooks, Prairie Hall, Macon county, Ill., after several months of suffering finally found the right tonic in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She says:

"I suffered terribly from a general breakdown in health, was in bed for three months and after that was able to be up only part of the time. I was sick all over, being pale, weak and thin. My appetite was gone, my head ached most of the time, and often I would faint away."

"As the treatment I was taking did not help me, I began to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After taking a few boxes, I began to get well rapidly. I am now as well and strong as ever in my life."

While the statistics of all roads throughout the country for last week showed that 239,000, or 14 per cent, of the 2,200,000 freight cars in service throughout the country were standing idle, and, in consequence, thousands of men had been thrown out of work, railroad officials expressed the belief that the crisis has passed and that no further reductions of the number of workmen will be necessary.

Edwards giving evidence of drawing his gun, the bandit, saying, "I will fix you," fired at him with the shotgun he carried, and wounded him in the neck. From the other men present he took $200 and three or four watches and escaped. Edwards, it is thought, may die.

FAT FOLKS FAVOR

Home Mixture That Takes Off the Fat Rapidly—Causes No Wrinkles—No Stomach Ills and Requires Neither Dieting Nor Exercise.

Too much fat is both uncomfortable and dangerous, but usually found on the face and about the neck. It is an impediment to put up with its inconveniences rather than punish themselves with the tiresome exercising usually prescribed, or endanger their health by taking the so-called "cures" and patent fat "reducers."

This self-sacrifice of comfort and health to over-abundant fat is entirely unnecessary, however, as Mrs. Luella Bigger has shown us there is a home remedy that is far superior in every way to anything money will buy for reducing superfluous flesh. It is said this simple mixture will take the fat off a man or woman at the rate of at least a couple of pounds a week without even causing wrinkles. Moreover, it does not disturb the stomach, but is a good thing for the system, clearing away pimples, and, best of all, it does not interfere with the diet. You can use it and at the same time eat what ever you like. This receipt is as follows:—Mix one ounce Marmalade, one ounce Full Creamed Cacao, one ounce Syrup and 2 1/2 ounces of Syrup Simplex. Get these ingredients at any drug store, mix them together at home and take one teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

Mrs. Bigger, as is well known, is a famous beauty expert, and whatever she recommends is sure to be found eminently satisfactory.

GREAT BRITAIN DEMANDS BODY OF ROBT. CALDWELL.

New York, Jan. 25.—Great Britain demands the body of Robert Caldwell, the man who testified in the Druce case in London, and was afterward indicted on a charge of perjury. Caldwell has been ill at his home on Staten Island and the case has been continued from time to time. Yesterday the counsel for the British ambassador appeared before United States Commissioner Alexander and demanded under the treaty between the two countries that Caldwell be produced in court without further adjournment of the application for extradition.

Commissioner Alexander stated that owing to the inclement weather he would not insist on Caldwell's appearance today, but adjourned the hearing until Tuesday, intimating that if Caldwell was not in the court that day he would be brought to Manhattan in an ambulance and placed in a hospital in the custody of the government until such time as he was able to appear for a hearing. Caldwell testified in the hearing of the Druce case in London that Druce and the Duke of Portland were one and the same, and that he superintended the supposed burial of Druce, the coffin containing a roll of lead instead of a body. The opening of the grave showed that the coffin contained a body which answered the description of Druce. Caldwell left London suddenly after the lawyers for whom he testified practically admitted that they would not depend upon his testimony to uphold their contentions that Druce was in fact the Duke of Portland.
