

DAVID O. CALDER,
EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

GENERAL ELECTION FOR 1874.

Monday, August 3rd.

People's Ticket.

FOR DELEGATE TO CONGRESS:
GEORGE Q. CANNON.

JOHN VAN COTT,
LEWIS S. HILLS,
JOHN ROWBERRY.

FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY:

Representative to the Legislature:

Assembly:

ORSON PRATT,
JOHN TAYLOR,
ALBERT CARBINGTON,
A. P. ROCKWOOD,
THOS. TAYLOR,
JOHN SHARP.

Probate Judge:

ELIAS SMITH.

Recorder:

REUBEN MILLER.

Surveyor:

STEPHEN W. TAYLOR.

Superintendent of Common Schools:

ABRAHAM F. DOREMUS,
O. H. RIGGS.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE & CONSTABLES:

First Precinct, Salt Lake City:

J. B. ADAM SPIERS.

Second Precinct, Salt Lake City:

CONSTABLE—GEORGE HILTON.

Third Precinct, Salt Lake City:

J. P. GEO. CRISMON.

Fourth Precinct, Salt Lake City:

CONSTABLE—W. S. BURTON.

Fifth Precinct, Salt Lake City:

J. E. A. M. RALEIGH.

Sixth Precinct, Salt Lake City:

CONSTABLE—MILANDO PRATT.

Seventh Precinct, Salt Lake City:

J. P. W. L. N. ALLEN.

Eighth Precinct, Salt Lake City:

CONSTABLE—B. Y. HAMPTON.

Ninth Precinct, Salt Lake City:

J. E. A. C. PYPER.

Tenth Precinct, Salt Lake City:

CONSTABLE—CHARLES CROW.

Eleventh Precinct, Salt Lake City:

J. P. JACOB GIBSON.

Twelfth Precinct, Salt Lake City:

CONSTABLE—JAMES JOHNSTON.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A VIENNA dispatch yesterday of the death, in that city, announces of Mr. Anselm Rothschild, one of the world-renowned family of usurers.

John Mitchell, the noted Irish exile, has reached Cork; a torch-light procession and grand banquet are to be given in his honor.

The failure of Gossell Bros., cotton merchants of Liverpool, is announced; liabilities, four hundred and eighty thousand pounds.

Many deaths from cholera in Burdwan, India, so says a dispatch to the London Times.

In a recent engagement with Carlists and Republicans, the former were defeated, two companies being cut to pieces rather than surrender.

There had been twenty cases of sunstroke in St. Louis from Sunday to last night, half of them fatal.

Dr. Janzewski, suffragan Bishop of Poznan, Prussia, has been sentenced to fifteen months' imprisonment for the violation of the ecclesiastical laws.

The Brussels Congress, assembled for the purpose of modifying and codifying the international laws of war, commenced its sittings yesterday; Baron Jomini, the famous Russian war authority, was chosen president.

A terrible disaster is reported from Pittsburgh, Pa. A heavy storm flooded the city, in some places as much as ten feet deep. The loss of life in the city and vicinity was terrible, nearly two hundred persons being drowned. The destruction of property was also immense. Great damage by rain and lightning is also reported in various other parts of the country.

One Nicholas Stauden, a hardware dealer in Chicago was detected yesterday morning in an attempt to set fire to his premises, by means of old clothing steeped in coal oil, from which a train was laid to two barrels of gunpowder; he was arrested and held to bail in $14,000, on a charge of arson with attempt to murder.

Mrs. McFall was struck and killed by lightning in her home in New York, on Sunday night.

Tilton publishes a card in the Brooklyn Argus, in which he declares that the Beecher investigating committee have withheld the main points of his evidence.

The Beecher Investigating Committee have invited F. D. Moulton to testify before it, and to bring all the letters and papers in his possession that have any bearing upon the matter under investigation. It is said that Mr. Beecher has expressed his entire willingness to Moulton to tell all he knows in relation to the case.

DRY TIMES AT THE WATERING PLACES.—The fashionable watering places in the east, as well as other places, feel the stringency of the times. Things are not as they used to be. Visitors are scarce, and dollars are scarce, if possible. Hotels with rooms for five hundred guests have fifty or a hundred, and those which usually accommodate a hundred, have a dozen or twenty. The hotel owners lay the fault to the weather. The fact seems to be that water-familias feel under the stern necessity of economizing more than formerly. So the family watering place vacation is foregone.

PUBLIC ECONOMY.

ONE object, carefully kept in view by those who have been elected by the people in this Territory, has been an economical administration of public affairs, so that the taxes might be kept down to as low a figure as possible. This has been a prominent feature in the prevailing local politics from the first settlement of these valleys, twenty-seven years ago. A great deal of public work, such as making roads, in canyons and out, making canals, building bridges, and even canals, feeding and guarding against Indians, has been done at private expense, or by subscription. Year after year, besides large amounts of beef, and more or less of blanketing, clothing, etc., have been supplied to the Indians by the bishops and others, in various parts of the Territory, and largely out of tithing funds, besides what individuals have given on their own private account. Litigation has been discouraged as a rule, and the settlement of all vexed questions by friendly arbitration encouraged, so that means, public or private, might not be thrown away in foolish, hurtful and expensive lawsuits, nor a swarm of pettifogging vamps be maintained at the public or private expense of the community. In short, the constant aim has been to have the taxes, territorial, county, and municipal, as low as possible, and, in remote settlements, payment in produce has been accepted in order to accommodate the people and render payment as easy as could well be.

The result of this prudent forethought and careful management has been that the Territory, the counties, and the various municipalities have been kept out of debt, and the policy has been to have a balance, of greater or less amount, on hand in the various treasuries, whenever it has been reasonably practicable. Territorial, county or city bonds are things unknown to the community, the necessity for high taxes to pay interest upon large debts incurred through unwise speculation, extravagance and wastefulness of public officials, and the people have rejoiced in the fact that an undue portion of their income has not been called for in the shape of exorbitant taxes.

On the other hand, the ring-streaked ticket, "Liberals," while making wonderful professions of regard for public good, are itching almost beyond endurance to get their fingers at the people's taxes, and if those "Liberals" follow were to succeed in getting their itching palms into the local public treasuries, the liberality they would manifest in disbursing the people's taxes, and in calling for and levying more, would be astonishing to contemplate, and remarkably eye-opening and pocket-ensuing to the people who have to pay the taxes.

Under the rule of these ring-streaked "Liberals," the various local governments would not remain long in the sound condition of having out neither bond nor debt, but in all probability they would be soon swamped in liabilities, and an incubus of financial woes would press upon them like a nightmare and weigh them down until bankruptcy or repudiation would be the two horns of the dilemma before them.

BY TELEGRAPH.

WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

A Hard Case.

NEW YORK, 27.—Detectives Simpson and Reedy, of the central force, to-day, arrested John Van Eten, lately pardoned out of the States prison, where he was sent for ten years for his exposure of the fraud in the Sing Sing bonds for $100,000, which is identified as a portion of the $100,000 bonds stolen from the room of the hotel Del Lago, in the St. George Hotel. This is said to be the same bond that Geo. Chadwick was sent fourteen years to Auburn State prison for. It appears that Van Eten passed this bond on the Bank of California at San Francisco, and the Chief of Police, Lee, of that city is now here with the necessary papers to take him back.

The Stock Exchange.

Business on the Stock Exchange is excessively dull to-day; nobody remained for the first call, a thing unprecedented in the history of the Board. Gold weakened with the growing impression that a syndicate for fifty-five millions of the new loan had been arranged.

Killed by Lightning.

Mrs. S. McFall was struck by lightning at her house here, on Sunday night, and instantly killed.

A Little More Beecher-Tilton.

Mr. Beecher went to Peekskill on Saturday and remained at his country seat all day on Sunday, not attending church, as was his usual custom. T. G. Shearman, his counsel, was with him, and no other persons were permitted to see him except a few relatives and personal friends. Shearman was interviewed by a reporter, but he could not say whether Mr. Beecher would present a written statement or decide, if any statement was made its publication would depend wholly upon the committee. Mr. Shearman deplored the excessive publicity given to the investigation. He believed, decidedly, that Beecher would be brighter by the clearing away of all that obscured the case. He declared that the Graphic's pretending to give an abstract of the Beecher statement was a Graphic invention. In regard to the personal of the investigating committee he stamped as absurd the reports that all were Beecher's friends, three were such, but the other three were strong friends of Tilton, and one of them he used to leave all his money with when he went lecturing. Another was a clergyman, calling Tracy and Hill Beecher's counsel, and he had never seen them, they are retained by the committee. About the outcome of the investigation there was the shadow of a doubt.

the committee had already had more than enough to clear Beecher. Mr. Sage, Chairman of the Committee, told the reporter that more of the proceedings would be published until the close of the investigation.

A Card from Tilton.

The Brooklyn Argus publishes a card from Mr. Tilton, in which he says:

"The Beecher Investigating Committee have given the world a lot of irrelevant testimony of mine, and said no word about the most important part, namely, that the criminality, with my sworn statement, charged upon me by the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher and his religious victim, was confessed to me, not only by myself, but by Mr. Beecher; furthermore, that it was confessed by her Mr. Moulton, as a friend and counselor, or both; and still further, that Mr. Moulton's office as mediator, for four years between Mr. Beecher and me, was based on the one sole fact of this pre-existing criminality between Mr. Beecher and Mrs. Tilton. I take pleasure in stating that I have taken the utmost pains to speak."

"I furthermore stated to the committee that Mr. Beecher's apology to me, instead of being followed by any circumstances with which Mrs. Woodhull was connected, was communicated to me by Mr. Beecher nearly six months before I ever met and read Mrs. Woodhull's statement. The omission of these facts from the committee's report leads me to lay them before the public as a necessary part of my case."

(Signed, "THEODORE TILTON.")

Revelations by the "Christians" and "Reformers" of Gotham.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton, in an interview with a reporter, to-day, stated that she knew the substance of this affair a year before Mrs. Woodhull published the statement, and that she was in possession of the facts in the fall of the year. While Mrs. Ballard was still connected with the Revolution, Mr. Tilton and her were accompanied to the office from the office to his house, led there by a misunderstanding, and spent that day with Mrs. Tilton, showing her the substance of this matter. At the table Theodore told the whole story of his wife's faithfulness, not in detail, but as showing to us reformers one phase of her life. Next day, Mrs. Tilton met Miss Anthony at her own house, and said, Theodore told us a very strange story last evening, and recounted it to Miss Anthony, who, at the close, said, "I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton," and Miss Anthony, "gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the same story from Mrs. Tilton,' and Miss Anthony, 'gave the particulars, as follows: 'When Mrs. Tilton turned home that evening some angry words, growing out of the narration in the afternoon, passed between him and his wife, and both became intensely excited, and the heat of passion, and in the presence of Miss Anthony, each confessed to the other of having broken the marriage vow. Mrs. Tilton, at this time, withdrew to her room. Shortly after she heard Mrs. Tilton, as she was going to her room, say, 'I have heard the