DEATH OF MISS LOLA TUTTLE.

Lola Tuttle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tuttle, daughter of air, and airs. Frank Tuttle, died last night from the effects of dropsy and heart troubles. The young lady has been suffering greatly for a long time, but of late hopes had been entertained for her con-valesence. Lola was a charming little lass of fourteen years, the eldest daugh-ter of the family. Two years ago Mr, and Mrs. Tuttle lost another daughter of about the same age, so this is a trial doubly hard to bear.

On June 30th last we had a non-nextigan cautous The call for non-partizan caucus, 'The call for which was signed by both chairmen of which was signed by both chairmen of the Democratic and Republican par-ties. At that caucus Levi N. Harmon received 18 votes, J. P. Johnson 6, for trustee of the Huntington school dis-trict. A motion was made, seconded by Johnson that the nomination of Har-Johnson that the nomination of Har-mon be made unanimous, which was carried unanimousiy. Yesterday at the election some of Johnson's "friends," who were at and took part in the cau-cus, posted Johnson's name on the blackboard as one of the regular nom-inees. This caused considerable feeling, a number of voters, before the decep-tion was exposed, voted for Johnson. Some of Johnson's real friends appealed Some of Johnson's real friends appealed to him to take his name off the blackboard, but he refused to do it. Johnson was one of the old trustees and he was was one of the old trustees and he was being run for the third term. He was also one of the judges of election. Har-mon received 80 votes and Johnson 39, so the friends of honest politics came out triumphant anyway,

DROUTH INJURING CROPS.

The beautiful prospects we had three or four weeks ago for a bountiful har-vest looks very gloomy now. The Huntington Creek is lower now than it has been in the recollection of the oldest inhabitant. As a result there are hundreds of bushels of grain and hundreds of tons of hay that are drying up for the want of water, and unless it raius soon we can count on loosing ne-third to one-half of all our crops, Stake conference will be held at Huntington next Sunday and Monday.
