

EPHRAIM K. HANKS.

Interpreting the very best of a Nation's Veterans.

CALNEVILLE, Wayne County, July 21, 1896.—Although it has been announced to the citizens of your worthy paper, the death of the well-known and esteemed Utah veteran Ephraim K. Hanks, a few lines more, I trust, will be acceptable to his numerous friends and relatives.

Another Battalion boy has gone home to enjoy the reward of the righteous, and what a joyous occasion it was when "Brother Hanks" (as he was commonly called) was honored into the presence of Joseph, Brigham, Fisher, and those he so dearly loved and respected; for he loved the Bible and the Gospel with a pure heart, always lifting a warning voice in the desert of truth, and never parting that when it seemed that the darkness of sin was about to engulf a man of God.

Like the Prophet Joseph and others, he had received the faith and power of healing the sick. He would relieve sickness and disease without ever receiving the fee, and he could accomplish anything he desired for the benefit of others. The sick all over the country had been healed by him, and it is said that he could only administer to them, they were healed, even the lame would walk, the blind would see, and the deaf would hear. He was a true minister in the name of Jesus, and he was a true minister in the name of Jesus.

On one occasion about thirty years ago he was in the city of St. Louis, Mo. He was there on a visit to his son, who was a minister in the name of Jesus. He was there on a visit to his son, who was a minister in the name of Jesus. He was there on a visit to his son, who was a minister in the name of Jesus.

ABOUT THE WORLD. A bicyclist to whom the absence of a tooth is a hardship.

Mr. H. W. Brown is a bicyclist who, notwithstanding the fact that he has lost one natural leg, has started out for a tour around the world on his wheel. Mr. Brown called at the News office today and said he started from Madison, N. D., on June 1, and has made an average of 40 miles a day. He had almost finished his tour, but the difficulties encountered have been of a nature to discourage him from his undertaking. He will remain in this city for some days and participate in some races. Then he will start for San Francisco. There he intends taking a steamer for Honolulu.
