

RICHFIELD HAS GINGERY CROWD

Baseball Team Wants Place in the Amateur League.

PROMISE INTERESTING TIME

Promoters Have a Fifty-Year Lease
On a Good Ball Park and Are Building a Grandstand.

Richfield wants to get into the amateur baseball league, and why should they not come in? The boys in that progressive little town have a lot of that very necessary article called "ginger," and they deserve to be recognized. Manager F. R. Shepard has written to this city for admission, announcing the additional facts that Clara Webber and W. A. Shepard, associated with himself, have a 50-year lease on a good ball park at Richfield, and that they are now building a good grandstand and are leveling off the grounds. In case they are admitted to the league now composed of the Calders, Westlows and Proves some interesting doings are promised.

RAY'S OF SUNSHINE

AND THE HAPPINESS THEY BRING.

The bright rays of sunshine that have crept into the lives of thousands of sufferers, who have been restored to happiness and health, by the use of DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY for diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and of the urinary tract. It would be almost impossible to enumerate them.

One of the best indications of kidney and bladder troubles are frequent pains in the back, and if you deposit some urine in a small glass vessel, and after letting it stand for twenty-four hours you find a sediment or a stringy milky appearance; if you are often compelled to urinate during the night, and it hurts you in passing it, your kidneys and bladder are diseased, and you will be untrue to yourself if you neglect to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

There are many stages of KIDNEY AND BLADDER DISEASES, and by using Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy your kidneys and bladder will soon be fully restored to their normal and healthy condition.

SKELETON OF A MAMMOTH.

W. M. Albert of New York Going To Nome to Excavate One.

Tacoma, Wash., June 2.—William M. Albert of New York is en route to Nome to excavate and ship the mammoth skeleton of a mammoth found last year embedded in the gravel bank of Haym river, Nome district. The mammoth is being secured by the Smithsonian Institution, which will exhibit it at the St. Louis exposition, taking it thence to Washington. When Albert left Nome last fall the specimen was in splendid condition, but during the winter miners dug out one of the tusks and extracted some teeth. Efforts will be made to recover these, making the skeleton perfect.

VENEZUELAN REVOLUTIONISTS.

They Will Petition United States for Recognition.

New York, June 2.—The Venezuelan revolutionists, who have been more than a year and a half fighting the government, have decided to petition the United States for recognition as belligerents. Mail advices received in this city from Venezuelan ports say that Dr. Pedro Esquivel Rojas, the diplomatic agent of the provisional government, established by the insurrectionists, has been assigned to the mission of securing for them the rights of belligerents. Dr. Rojas, who was minister or foreign affairs in the cabinets of President Crespo and President Andrade, is now in Trinidad, where he has been making headquarters. If the state department at Washington does not decide favorably on the application, the revolutionary government, it is announced, will make the same request of Great Britain. The reason that the United States is applied to first is that the rebels would like to maintain the good relations with this country which now exist between Washington and the Castro government, and also because the United States is most interested in a claim point of view.

Storm Disables a Ship.

New York, June 2.—In a gale which just swept the bay here, says a dispatch from Valparaiso, the British ship Foyleside from Portland, Oregon, with a cargo of timber struck the breakwater. The captain's wife, his son and six men were drowned.

Near the Foyleside was wrecked the Chilean bark Chivillano and two others crew were lost. Scores of craft went ashore or were sunk.

TROUBLE AND MISFORTUNE.

They Will Come and Man Cannot Prevent Them—We Must Pay Penalty of Our Own Folly.

Dubuque, Ia., June 2.—The Special train bearing President Roosevelt and party arrived in Dubuque via the Illinois central on time. During the morning hours heavy laden excursion trains arrived from all points. The presidential party and other distinguished guests were driven through the city, past the homes of Secy. Shaw and Congressman Connor, through cheering crowds and returned to the station, where they found a crowd of not less than 10,000 people assembled. The president was introduced by Secy. Shaw, who was received by the people of his home with a tremendous ovation.

The crowd went wild when the president arose to speak, and it was several minutes before the cheering ceased. Just as the president arose hundreds of white doves were released from the crowd in front of him and these emblems of peace hovered about the president's head and evoked an outburst of applause. The president spoke for nearly twenty minutes and paid special tribute to the Iowa member of the cabinet. He said in part:

"Friends: At this time as I come into your beautiful state there have come calamities upon your people here in Iowa and to ever greater degree in Kansas and Missouri. I see by today's papers the awful disaster in Georgia.

"We have biblical authority, as well as the authority of common sense, for the statement that the rain falls on the just and the unjust alike.

"When the hand of the Lord is heavy on anybody the wisdom of man can do but little. Now and then in our country from drought, from flood, from pestilence, trouble and misfortunes will come, but oh, my friends, as I drive through your city this morning and now as I look at you, the men and women of this state, I know that our troubles are temporary, that misfortune will be met and overcome, because in heart and hand the American citizen is able to win his way in the long run.

"When misfortune that human wisdom cannot avoid comes, of course there will be suffering, there will be misery. Those of us that are free from it can try, and must try, to lighten it all we can, but we cannot help the fact that there will be much suffering. Furthermore, if through our own folly we do what is wrong, if we act foolishly in any line of legislation we shall bring the penalty.

"If the business world loses its head it has lost what no law can supply, but in spite of that we shall go forward.

"We shall keep in the run, not only of adding, but of increasing prosperity, of as a people, if we keep our sanity; as a people, if we keep the qualities which made us win out in the Civil war, and which have brought us in triumph through other crises so far.

"Some think a good deal can be done by a good deal can be done by a honest and upright administration of the law. I think you will do me the justice to say that I do not say what I wish to say, but I say what I believe. I say that I would not say so, but I say what I believe.

"We have in the persons of Iowa representatives in both branches of the national Congress, in Iowa's representatives in the administrative branches of the national government, and in whom I can turn as disinterested and honest advisers, a confidence in the ability that you in Iowa have furnished in your public servants. We need the standard of integrity that you have set in the persons of your representatives in the national government. We need the standard of integrity that you have set in the persons of your public servants. We need the standard of integrity that you have set in the persons of your public servants.

AT CEDAR FALLS.

Five thousand people greeted President Roosevelt and party on their arrival at Cedar Falls. He spoke from his car, the address being mainly to the school students. The party stopped ten minutes, leaving at 3:56 p. m. for Waterloo. Five-minute stops were made at Webster City and Iowa Falls.

At Independence, where a moment's stop was made, President Roosevelt paid tribute to Iowa's sons and daughters and said he believed in the equality of the men and women composing it.

There have been times when the wild beasts have been more merciful than human beings, and spared the women cast to them in the arena. It is astonishing how little sympathy women have for women. In the home the mistress sees the maid with the signs of suffering she recognizes so well, but she does not lighten the sick girl's load by a touch of her finger. In the store the forewoman sees the paller and exhaustion which mark womanly weakness, but allows nothing for them. It is work or quit.

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, by curing the womanly diseases which undermine the health and sap the strength. "Favorite Prescription" establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

"When I first commenced using Dr. Pierce's medicine," writes Mrs. George A. Strong, of Gauseport, Saratoga Co., N. Y. "I was suffering from female weakness, a disagreeable bearing-down pain, weak and tired feeling all the time. I dragged around in that way for two years, then I began taking your medicine. After taking the first bottle I began to feel better. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, two of Golden Medical Discovery, one of the 'Pleasant Pellets,' and now I feel like a new person. I can thank you enough for your kind advice and the good your medicine has done for me."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the most desirable laxative for delicate women.

WHERE BOOTH IS BURIED.

Baltimore, Md., June 2.—In connection with the report from Enid, O. T., that John Wilkes Booth assassin of President Lincoln, died there Jan. 14 under the name of David E. George, it is declared by persons familiar with the case that there is no doubt whatever that Booth's body is buried here in Green Mount cemetery.

The body now lies buried in the Booth lot, but without any headstone or mark on the grave.

KICKAPOO INDIAN WORM KILLER

Read what Mr. Geo. E. Cady, of 133 South Sixth West St., Salt Lake City, says about the cure of his daughter. Mr. Cady writes: "My little girl, 4 years old, was greatly troubled with worms. I called in three different doctors, bought several different kinds of worm medicine, but she got no better. Finally I was advised to use KickAPOO Indian Worm Killer, and bought a package at the drug store. She immediately passed great quantities of both stomach and pin worms. She now eats and sleeps well, and has gained many pounds in weight."

RUSSIA NOT RESPONSIBLE.

For Kishineff Massacres So far as Ambassador McCormick Knows.

New York, June 2.—Joseph H. Choate, U. S. ambassador to Great Britain, Robert S. McCormick, ambassador to Russia, and Mr. Charles Tower, ambassador to Germany, arrived here on the steamer Kron Prinz Wilhelm from Southampton.

Mr. Choate, who came over to attend the wedding of his son, Joseph Choate, Jr., and he would return to his post immediately after the marriage. Mr. McCormick, speaking of the massacre at Kishineff, said:

"The affair happened about the time I was leaving the country and I was not called upon by my government to take any official action. I know, however, the imperial government was not responsible for the killing of the Jews, and they have, I understand, removed the governor of that section.

"The czar has the most friendly feeling toward this country and he has made expression of his friendliness," said Mr. McCormick, when asked what effect a formal protest coming from this country over the killing of the Jews would have. Regarding Russia's intentions in Manchuria, he said: "Russia will undoubtedly maintain the open door or she would not have put in the Manchurian railroad which is costing two and a half million dollars a month."

Mrs. McCormick had this to say about her court costume, which was described as a magnificent affair:

"The description of my court dress was evidently a mistake in sending in the report. I only wore the ordinary dress; it was the same dress worn by my predecessor. There was some gilt on it but only what was necessary to distinguish one of my position."
