The agents of the "News" throughout the west continue to push on in the race against time in every gratifying shape. The goal at which they are aiming is to have the circulation of the Semi-Weekly News reach 15,000 by January 1st. Last Friday's figures were 14,574. Orders received since that time have increased the number to 14,665, at which it stands today.

The news has reached this city from Washington, D. C., that Clarke, the 17-year-old son of William C. and Katherine Potter, Portland, died in that city on November 11th. The boy's father, William C. Potter, was general agent of the Union Pacific railroad in this city for many years. He is now in the employ of the interstate commerce commission.

Moses Thatcher has sold his splendid black horses that carried off the blue ribbon at the late fair for the best carriage team. The price received was $300. Purchased by a Mr. Max Sahn, who is going to present them to Mr. Webster of Phoenix, Ariz., where Thatcher said he was not overly anxious to get rid of the horses, but he had more just like them in Cache valley. It is quite an unusual thing that Utah bred horses should bring such a price.

Telegraph office in this city, was given a notable send off in Denver by his fellow workmen before leaving to enter into his duties here. Last Friday Superintendent Brooks of the Western Union there presented Mr. Fisher with a handsome gold watch, a gift from his fellow employees, the young man was then invited by Mr. Brooks to step into a tailor shop where he was measured for a new suit of clothes. The operators then prepared a glittering account of the affair and sent it over the wires to all the larger offices between New York and San Francisco.

It requires no small amount of fortitude and patience to quietly lie down and submit to the surgeon's knife. But that is just what S. L. Raddon editor of the Park City Record will have to do. Twice already have serious incisions been made into his body and last night his physician at St. Mark's hospital, where he has been staying during his disability, informed him that another operation would be necessary. With a sigh and a query as to when permanent relief will come, Mr. Raddon has made up his mind to again pass through the ordeal which he will do after a few days rest and a brief visit to his home.

The telephone company is going to connect Boise with Salt Lake, by running the wire to Pocatello and making connections at that place. This will be a convenience greatly appreciated by both cities. Boise already has coast connections at Pocatello and the company will move into their new building in Boise. This is an elegant structure, with fancy stone finish in front, and equipped with all the modern telephone appliances. The building is 60 feet deep and 34 feet front. The cost is $14,000. The work in Salt Lake of burying the wire will be augmented by additional help. Mr. Wright, who was struck by a drunken trolley driver and given a severe shock, will be able in a week to resume his work in the conduit trenches.

EUGENE YOUNG TAKEN ILL.

Was Speaking at Anti-Mormon Patriotic Meeting, Overcome by Faintness.

There was a large gathering at the Berkeley Temple patriotic meeting yesterday afternoon. Interest was centered in the presence of Mr. Eugene Young, grandson of Brigham Young, says the Boston Herald, who was to deliver an address upon "Mormonism," a National Anti-Mormon Congress, held at the Berkeley Temple on a seat in Congress.

Mr. Young, while a somewhat new figure upon the New England platform, is not unknown, as was evinced by the reception he had, due to his speech of a few nights ago at Trenton Temple upon the same subject. The gathering was, however, doomed to disappointment, for Mr. Young had hardly begun to speak when he faltered, and begged the indulgence of his audience. A batch of lecture notes were produced to aid him, but in a few moments he was compelled to retire, overcome by a sudden faintness, and he was unable to resume his discourse.

Dr. Brounby stated that an early opportunity will be afforded to listen to what Mr. Young has to say, the date depending entirely on the latter's health and engagements.

Prof. E. A. Benner of Wellesley, who for many years was at the head of the academy at which Mr. Young was a pupil, was present and introduced him. After the young man was forced to retire, Prof. Benner spoke. He said he considered the campaign against the religion of Mr. Roberts one of intelligence.

"It isn't," said he, "because you wish to interfere with the 'Mormons,' but because you desire that the proper sentiment of the nation prevail."

He asserted that he had many true friends among the 'Mormons,' men of true and noble hearts, but that he differed with them the width of seas.

"We have a duty to perform in connection with this matter," he said, "and our representatives in Congress do not permit the doctrines of Brigham Young to be forced down the throats of the American people. This service will be a national service, but a special service, as well, to Utah."

SIX FRIGHTFUL FAILURES.

RECEPTION TO

"BISH" COOPER

Young Sailor is Regaled by the Newsboys' Union at Bond's.

Present him gold medal.

Governor Wells, President Simpson and "Bish" Make Speeches, After Which, Songs and Music.

The most pretentious function ever given by the newsboys of Salt Lake for their banquet to William (Bish) Cooper last night. Bond's restaurant, the scene of the festivities was gayly decorated for the occasion and the tastefully covered tables presented a most pleasing and tempting sight. President Joseph Simpson, of the Newsboys' union, was master of ceremonies, sitting at the head of the first table, with the young guest of honor and Miss Evans on his left and the parents of the young sailor on the right. The affair was not burdened and stiff with conventionality, but every one had a free and easy time, as all were made to feel that they were welcome.

Governor Wells delivered the first address, and in doing so expressed pride at being able to welcome home a chap who had seen so much of the world, and had been so closely associated with the famous admiral. He was proud of all the Utah boys, he said, whether they had seen service or not. He then related a few incidents connected with the Dewey reception in New York, in which was manifested the great love the people have for the men behind the guns. He concluded by saying he was proud to welcome "Bish" back to Utah and wished him all possible success in his future life.

The gold medal was then presented by President Simpson. In beginning Simpson thanked the governor for his address, and said as guests that Governor Wells had just delivered himself one of the truest friends the newsboys had. He also, in behalf of the union, expressed his thanks to the volunteer fund committee for its generous donation towards purchasing the medal. He then assured the young "Bish" that they had another badge for him when he came back, if he came back famous.

"Bish" arose to express his thanks for the honor and in doing so, said he was very grateful to the "Bish" newsboys, and while he "was not a very large fish, and hadn't much to say," he wished them to know that he thoroughly appreciated the honor. Miss Alice Simpson then pinned the medal upon the young seaman's jacket.

The boy's father, Thomas Cooper, was then called upon. He expressed great thanks to the newsboys for their recognition of his boy, and this was the proudest and happiest moment of his life. He hoped his son would perform his duty in the navy as well as he had for the past two years.

A few remarks were then made by Col. M. Kaighn, department commander of the G. R. He spoke of his early experience in the army, and said: "You can't tell me much honor to this young man. The country that couldn't honor boys like this is no good. But the country does honor them as was shown when our volunteers returned home." He spoke of the great opportunity which he had in the young man, and expressed the hope that "Bish" came home again he would be wearing the uniform of an officer of the navy.

Mr. Grive then arose and read the letter which the president of the Newsboys' union had just delivered. He said: "We'll now have some singing: (a voice), 'What shall we sing?' An old thing," said young Simpson. Old Scotch ballads were then rendered by Mrs. Grive, Miss White, Miss Alice Simpson, William Simpson, Albert Holder, Mrs. Cooper and Miss Cooper. The famed newsboys' trio, composed of "Judge" Simpson, "Skinny" Holder and "Peanuts" were well received.

The entire company then joined in "Annie Laurie" and "Auld Lang Syne." President Simpson made a few closing remarks and the happy party was over. Among those present were William Cooper, Gov. Wells, Col. Kaighn, Thomas and Mrs. Cooper, David Cooper, Miss Cooper, Miss Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Grive, Miss Cooper, Mrs. White, Miss White, Mr. Daniel, Mr. Simpson, Miss White, the Board of the committee of the newsboys' union, Joseph Simpson, chairman; Albert Scott, Albert Holder and William Simpson. The banquet was arranged and served by Miss Maud Duncan, Mrs. Livingston, Miss Watson and the Board of the committee of the newsboys' union.

Young Cooper leaves this evening for Mare Island, California, to report for duty. He has been accorded splendid treatment during his visit home and will be warmly welcomed by his friends when he returns. And with him will go the hearty wishes of all for his success.

THE "SMALL PLATES."

Last evening Prof. Mills lectured to one of the largest audiences ever seen in the lecture hall of the Templeton. All available standing room was taken, the rostrum was crowded, the halls on each side of the lecture hall were filled with listeners as far as they could conveniently hear and many more listened to their homes without hearing the lecture. The subject was, "The Small Plates." The speaker stated the reason for the selection of such an extensive subject was that most people were well acquainted with that portion of the Book of Mormon, and as the intention is to give only eight or ten lectures, he thought the time could be more profitably spent on lessons in the later history of the Nephites.

Bowers favored the audience with two tenor solos, which were highly appreciated. The subject for next Monday evening is, "The Nephite Monarchy." Miss Bessie Edmunds has the duty of singing and much credit is due her for the interest she manifested in making the evenings so pleasant.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

UNION MEETING

Very Large Attendance of Workers from City and County.

PREPARING FOR JUBILEE.

Historical Reports Wanted—"Nickel Sunday"—Children's Singing Classes—Address by Apostle H. Young.

There was an unusually large attendance at the Sunday School Union meeting, held in this city last evening, Nov. 20, 1899. All the city schools were well represented except the Seventh and Eighth wards and Twenty-second branch. The following county schools were also well represented, Brighton, Cannon, Center Branch, East Jordan, Farmers, Forest Dale, Granite, Hunter, Herriman, Lovendahl, Mill Creek, Murray, Sandy, South Cottonwood, Sugar, Taylorville, West Jordan and Wilford.

All the schools represented reported that preparations were being made for the local jubilee to be held in each ward on Sunday, December 10th.

Stake Superintendent Thos. C. Griggs presided. Elder William S. Burton, superintendent of the Fifteenth ward school, opened with prayer. The very artistic musical exercises at the opening and closing were rendered by the Nineteenth ward school, under the leadership of Superintendent Alvin A. Beasley.

PREPARATIONS FOR JUBILEE.

Superintendent Griggs gave minute suggestions regarding the jubilee to be held in each school on Dec. 10th, programs for which were distributed to all the schools. The musical exercises, concert recital of the Articles of Faith, and all other arrangements should be well prepared before hand, and the jubilee should be as complete as possible; the introduction and seating of veterans should be arranged for in advance so the program may be fled without a defect. The jubilee includes morning and afternoon exercises.
