NERVOUSNESS AND NERVE

The more nervous a man is, the less nerve he has. That sounds paradoxical—but it isn't; for nerve is stamina. Hood's Sarsaparailla gives nerve. It tones the whole system, perfects digestion and assimilation, and is therefore the hest madicine a nervous person can

BREWERS TO WAGE WAR ON SALOONS

Association Will Attempt to Put to Rout the Low Dive.

CAMPAIGN WELL OUTLINED.

Revocation and Denial of License to Be the Weapons With Which the Fight Will be Carried On.

One result of the surging of the temperance wave from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast is seen in the attitude now assumed by the brewers of the country. The United States Brewers' association, in which nearly every brewer of consequence in the country is enrolled as a member, is to wage brewer of consequence in the country is enrolled as a member, is to wage war upon the low dive and evil-breeding saloon. It will press prosecution and will insist upon revocation and denial of license to such resorts. This information is contained in a letter received from Warren B. Bullock, allied with the publicity department of the United States Brewers' association. It is offered for publication free of charge as an inducement to newspapers throughout the country to afford circulation for the story.

The sort of dive and low saloon to be aimed at is the one that has recently been set before the public in its full meaning. Publications leading in the fight for temperance have told actual happenings which have occurred in these resorts—not all of them shacks frequented only by the people of the lower classes, but some of them embellished with costly fronts, adorned with pletures by renowned artists (having as their subjects, however, themes which forbid mention.) With the argicles leading the attack upon this source of crime and breeding place for vice have been presented photographs which tell in undisputable language of actual and existing circumstances. It is the saloon where loitering is per-which tell in undisputable language of actual and existing circumstances. It is the saloon where loitering is permitted, where crimes are hatched by criminals of high and low rank in the standards of the criminal profession. It is the saloon where the owners permit women to congregate. It is, too, the saloon which invites the workingman to spend his wages for drink and thereby to bring upon his family suffering and privation. It is against such that the fight is to be waged. It has started early and a well-outlined campaign is to be brought to the point of assault when the brewers meet in their annual convention. The fight is to be taken up against those in the ranks of the brewers and those without that the business of operating saloons may take upon itself more that is not objectionable and commend itself to the public rather than to be regarded as the evil which is now undisputed.

THE BREWERS STORY.

THE BREWERS' STORY.

The Bullock story is as follows: Milwaukee, Wis., May 2.—The stan-dard of the American saloon is to be elevated, the dive and disreputable saelevated, the dive and disreputable sa-leon eradicated, and this by action of the brewers of the nation, according to the plans for the convention of the United States Brewers' association to be held in Milwaukee June 8 to 10. This association includes practically every brewer of consequence in the country and the membership is almost unanimous for the reform of the saloon.

The national campaign for the eradication of the dive is the result of the success of the movement which has been undertaken in a sporadic way in various parts of the country. In Wisconsin, Minnesota, New York and many other states efforts for the eleva-tion of the standard of the saloon have been found to be successful to a marked degree, and those who have backed whis reformation in various states now propose to make the movement national instead of a state campaign only.

This course has resulted from a real-Ization by the brewing companies that the worst enemies of the industry are those in their own ranks who have tol-erated the law-defying and disorderly element in the saloon in the saloon business. For some years past efforts have been made in some localities to rid the saloon business of this element and make the running of a saloon a respectable business, generally recognized as such. The anti-saloon movement has caused this realization that the evils of the trade are not necessarily a part of the trade, but due chiefly to the hangers of the disorderly lawthe hangers-on, the disorderly, law-breaking saloon men.

SUCCESS IN OTHER FIGHTS,

The national movement will be urged as a result of the success of the similar movement in various states. In Massachusetts and Pennsylvania the enacting of wise laws has wiped out the disreputable element, the brewers themselves leading in the securing of the disreputable element, the brewers themselves leading in the securing of proper laws. In some states the laws themselves have stimulated over-competition, which has resulted in a tendency to immoral conduct of business. The brewers realize that organized work must be done to eliminate this element, and through individual efforts have done much to wise out the divest have done much to wipe out the diver have done much to wipe out the dives and disreputable resorts, it has been decided to get all of the nation's brew-eries working together as a unit for this end. The Texas brewers found great success in their efforts, forced the hands of the prosecutors, ridding the state of 2,000 gambling joints and other totals which were overaided in connecstate of 2,000 gambling joints and other joints which were operated in connection with the saloons. The brewers of the board of trade of New York have undertaken to do the same, co-operating with the committee of 14, organized to regulate the Raines law evil, and with the aid of the bonding companies which bond the licenses, and it is expected to put about 150 disorderly places out of business, as a result of inability to secure licenses.

The same course has been adopted in Buffalo, Syracuse, Rochester and other

The same course has been adopted in Buffalo, Syracuse, Rochester and other New York state cities.

The West Virginia brewers have united to force the disreputable resorts out of business by sending a letter to the retailers insisting upon rigid compliance with the laws. The same step has been taken by the New Jersey and Ohlo brewers, as well as by the Minnesota brewers in the west.

In Milwaukee the brewers have taken a similar course. They are prosecuting violaters of the law by insisting upon the revocation of the licenses by the city council. As a result of this movement it is expected that a wholesale house cleaning will take place in every city of consequence in the country.

Japs, Chinese and Greeks to March With Commercial Travelers.

ALIENS TO PARADE.

Salt Lake's growing importance as a osmopolitan center for the people of nany nations is to be further accentuated in the Commercial Travelers' parade scheduled for June 18 during their tion and assimilation, and is therefore the best medicine a nervous person can take.

Besides the floats representing Utah industries, there is to be one representing the Utah Appanesse, another representing the Utah Chinese, and still another representing the Utah Chinese and the Utah Chinese a ribule to the success of the occasion, and each have requested a place in the tent display, float display.

Committees are working on details for sall features of the outing. Fisher Harris of the Commercial club, which is in charge of publicity matters, declared this afternoon that over 2,000 pieces of mail goes out of the Commercial club each day, advertising the outing. It will be attended by over 12,000 people, it is expected and many of them will be merchants who do their buying in this market and live in the surrounding communities.
