TALK OF THE TOWN.

Attend your Sunday meetings. The Hopt murder trial is closing,

Go to the Hamill-Dwyer readings to-night.

The Theatre fornaces were started up this morning. The building will be nice and warm this evening.

The telephone poles now being placed, are evidently designed for utility rather than ornament.

Sunday evening meetings in the 10th Ward will, until further notice, be held at 6.30 o'clock, instead of 6.

What business houses intend to close on Tuesday, the birthday of the illustrious Father of his Country?

It is said that Hopt confidently expects a verdict of "guilty," and that this attorneys will move for a new trial.

Elder J. Morgan lectures on "Man". in the 19th Ward on Monday even-ing, at 7 o'clock, under the auspices of the M. L. A.

An address will be delivered in the 6th Ward schoolbouse on Monday evening by Elder C.W.Penrese ander the auspices of the Y. M.M.I. A. To commence at 7.30.

Father Thomas Colborn, of Peter-Father Thomas Colborn, of Peter-son, Morgan County, reached here last night from St. George, where he has been spending the winter. He travelled from the Terminus, 200 miles, yesterday, and starts for home on Monday. He has had a splendid time in "Dixie," and re-turns in good health, 15 lbs. heavier, and with a better hearing than when he left here last fall. He is in his soth year. Soth year.

Gone Home .- The Millennial Star securities. of January 31, has the following:

On Saturday last, Jan. 29th, El-der John Kynaston left Liverpool on the S. S. Abyssinia, of the Guion Line, having been released from his missionary labors to return home on account of ill health.

Elder Kynaston arrived here on May 17, 1880, and was appointed a traveling Elder in the Liverpool Conference, where he has faithfully labored from that time till the pres-ent. His general failing health rendered it wisdom that he should not be detained longer in this cli-mate. He returns with our best wishes for his safe arrival and future Barton, the teacher.
