NEWS OF THE DAY.

There has been great damage by rain to crops in Canada. The Home Rulers and Orangemen have had a serious riot in Glasgow, Scotland. Wm. Bayle Bernard, the dramatist, is dead. Another hundred thousand in specie has been obtained from the wreck of the Schiller. A revolution has broken out in Kokand, Central Asia. The shoemakers of New York are on strike. Three children, out picking berries, in Canada, have been devoured by bears. The desperado who recently broke jail at Denver, Col., have all but been recaptured or killed. A flood is threatened at Lyons, France. A citizen of Vicksburg, Miss., has won a silver cup in the shooting match at Stuttgart. Several Postmasters have been appointed in Utah Territory. Thirty thousand dollars damage by fire at Iowa Hill, Cal. Railway competition east is causing a reduction of passenger rates. A heavy shock of earthquake at Hollister, Cal. Several persons have been arrested, suspected of being implicated in stealing $47,000 from the U. S. Treasury Department. The steamer York burned to the water's edge, at Massena. Mr. Beecher preached at Twin Mountain House, N. H., yesterday. General Smith, of the New York police force, says the demoralization of that body is increasing, and he alleges that a hope of Union seems to exist between the members of the board for the purpose of defeating any measure calculated to improve the morality and efficiency of the department. Baxter & Co., grain shippers of New York, have failed. For a list of patents issued for mines in Utah Territory, see telegrams. Mr. Hogan, a shoemaker, was struck dead by lightning at Cheyenne, on Saturday. An attempt at assassination was made at Elkhorn, Neb., on the morning of the 7th inst. Decisions of the U. S. Land Office in to-day's telegraphic news. The prospect at Memphis and vicinity is improving, and it is now thought that there will be but little damage from flood. One of the Colliers of the suspended London firm has absconded. Parker, the thieving ex-treasurer of South Carolina, who escaped from jail a few days ago, has been recaptured. The liberals of New York will shortly hold a Hans Christian Andersen memorial meeting. It is said that the Herzegovinian insurgents have gained several successes over the Turks.

THE LEE TRIAL.

On Saturday afternoon, Aug. 7, according to our dispatches from Beaver, the jury in the trial of John D. Lee for murder at Mountain Meadow in 1877, told the court they could not agree on a verdict, thus ending the present trial of Lee. The jury are reported to have stood nine for acquittal and three for conviction, precisely as the jury stood in the late Brooklyn scandal case. The Lee jury were also reported to be composed of eight "Mormons" and four "Gentiles." The prosecution appear to have taken pains to let it be known some time before the trial ended, that they had no expectation or hope of securing a verdict of guilty, and one of the counsel for the prosecution is reported to have had the very bad taste to say as much to the jury, and to charge the failure to the religion of a portion of the jurors, as if it was impossible for them to disagree upon the value of the evidence. We may say this was inexcusable insolence, besides being unwarranted by the facts as reported. If there were nine of the jury for acquittal, then there must have been at least one "Gentile" juror for acquittal. There may have been more. For aught we know, the four of the "Gentile" juror, four of the "Mormon" juror, were the property of the fairness of charging upon the "Mormon" jurors the sole responsibility of the failure to convict, and of virtually charging it even previous to the time when the jury were discharged, or had retired to consider the evidence. Besides, the jurors are the sole judges of the value of the evidence, and what right has any of the counsel, or any other man, to tell the jurors that if they fail to bring in a verdict of a certain kind it will be because of the particular religion of some of the jurors? The jurors were accepted by the court as competent to try the case, and they were sworn to try it on its merits, according to law and evidence. For counsel to tell jurors to their face that they think they will not return a just verdict is insolence of the most barefaced and audacious kind. Although the present trial of Lee is ended, the defendant was not acquitted, the indictment remains, and he is subject to a new trial on the same charge, whenever counsel and court may determine upon instituting the same. The offense with which Lee stands charged was committed nearly eighteen years ago. The Territory at that time was in a state of civil war, the Federal Government, upon the strength of vile misrepresentation, having sent hitherward a large army, supporting a new set of federal officials, to subdue the people of the Territory as a foreign people are subdued, and about the time of the commission of the offense martial law was actually declared. During the subsequent winter the people had enough to do to take care of themselves and prepare to defend themselves and their families and property from hostile aggression. In the Spring of the following year commissioners treated with the Governor and people of the Territory, explained and softened matters, and entered into an agreement for the peaceful entry of the federal officers and army, which accordingly and in a brief time took place. After the installation of the new officers, the ex-governor urged upon the new governor, A. Cummins, the propriety of instituting an investigation of the affair at Mountain Meadow, with connection with which Lee stands charged, and offered to use his influence for an impartial investigation. Judge Cradlebaugh, with a number of troops did go down into toward that part of the Territory, ostensibly with a view of investigating the matter, but no trial took place, nor has any been had in connection with that affair until this present summer. A question that suggests itself very forcibly is Why did not the government officials fully investigate the matter and bring to trial those who were guilty concerned in it? It is a poor excuse to say they could not. They had almost plenary power in their hands, and were backed by a posse of some 4,000 regular troops, excellently officered, and splendidly equipped. The local tribunals were practically stifled. The people desired that a full inquiry be made into the circumstances, and that the guilty parties be brought to justice. Yet virtually nothing was done from then till last year, when indictments were found against certain persons the first of whom has just been tried. This negligence on the part of the federal officers seems inexcusable. Why was the Mountain Meadow tragedy allowed to slumber until 1874, before any indictments were found against any of its participants, and till 1875 before the first of them was tried? Surely there is some great reason for the delay, or great negligence in the U. S. officers whose duty it was to investigate the affair. The only reason that appears is that, so far as any investigation was had, nothing could be found eliminating certain persons, and that the officials, if they could not eliminate those particular persons, did not care about eliminating anybody.

MORE "MORMON" PHOBIC SAVAGERY.

To the Territorial Enterprise of Virginia, Nevada, may perhaps be awarded the palm due to the savagery of newspapers upon the "Mormon" topic, that journal being thoroughly insane just now when anything pertaining to "Mormonism" is broached. The Enterprise professes to think that nothing is more evident than that the "Mormons," at the word of "their prophet and leader, would begin a war of extermination against all Gentiles." Thus assuming that this war of extermination is likely to be the grand business with and towards the "Mormons," the Enterprise sagely concludes that the Federal Government should be first in the field and be up and at it, and that "it is not worth discussing further than is necessary to make clear to our people and our government their duty." Here are some of the things proposed by the savage and sanguinary Enterprise: "One thing is made more apparent by this trial than it has ever been before, and that is that all the rights of citizenship should be taken from Mormons. They are not fit to either help make or execute laws. They cannot, without committing perjury, ever take the oath to defend the Constitution of the United States. "We would not oppress these people, but would put out of their power to commit further infamies. We would have the government make it a penal offense for a man to have more than one wife. This is not oppressive. We would take from them the right to vote or hold office. This is not oppression. "We would, as far as possible, prohibit the landing on our shores of converts to Mormonism. We would give to the Gentiles of Utah the control of affairs, and station soldiers enough there to insure the execution of the laws. Harsh as these measures are, they are remedies which would eventually cure, now we would prescribe for it as an ulcer, which nothing but a heroic practice could ever eradicate." All this is highly edifying, meekly Christian, eminently republican. Allow no more "Mormons" to land in America. To those who are here deny them rights and privileges of citizenship. Give the governmental power over them altogether into the hands of their most bitter, malignant, rabid and unscrupulous enemies, and station an army in Utah to enforce the execution of all laws which those enemies would make. "This is not oppression." It would only be putting it out of the power of the "Mormons" to commit any infamies by putting into the hands of their enemies absolute power to commit all such things upon the "Mormons," and protecting those enemies in this heretic, truly Christian, and truly republican work at the point of the bayonet. Yet, forsooth, there is no oppression in this. Such is the tiger-like logic of the Enterprise. As to the ulcer business and the cutting out of the same, the Little Giant, in his last campaign, tried to make capital on that point, but he made a slight mistake, and it killed him politically.

Great Damage by Rain. OTTAWA, 8.—Heavy rains yesterday broke down and damaged the roads of fields of grain in this vicinity.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN. The Continental—A To Beum Order at A. Secord's Office. LONDON, 8.—The O'Connell centennial was celebrated in the city by a banquet last night at the Cannon Street hotel; a majority of the gentlemen present were Home Rule. Cardinal Manning ordered a Te Deum to be sung this evening in all the churches of the archdiocese in honor of the O'Connell centennial. There was a serious riot in Glasgow yesterday, between Orangemen and Home Rule, during the O'Connell centennial. Five policemen were injured and fifty persons arrested. The rioting was renewed last night. More Specie from the "Schiller." An additional $100,000 in specie has been obtained from the wreck of the Schiller. A Revolution, etc. Dispatches from Central Asia report that a revolution is in progress in Kokand, and that the Khan has fled and his forces have joined the insurgents. The American astronomer, Prof. Watson, arrived at Palermo. Prof. Watson, the American astronomer, has arrived at Naples from Pohn, where he observed the transit of Venus. FRANCE. Water Falling. PARIS, 8.—The waters of the Rhine are falling, and the danger of an inundation is averted. Left for London. The American mariners and their friends left Paris to-night, for London. WEST INDIES. Barbados. HAVANA, 7.—The cargo of a British vessel, pursued in Haytian waters by a Spanish gunboat, has been embargoed by the consul of Spain.

Moscow on Strike. NEW YORK, 9.—The central council of Chicago, or some such shoe-makers, whose strike is now in progress, have made a statement of their position, which is, in substance, as follows: "We determined to discuss any question they please with the employers, to hold an employer to any agreement made with the council and, in case of violation, to at once place his shop on strike, and not to settle the matter till he pays the expense of the strike; though they mean not to be aggressive, they say "We shall resist encroachment, not matter whether it comes from outside foes or inside traitors." Approved. Mayor Wickham received a letter to-day, from the Governor, approving his removal, some months ago, of the corporal, James E. J. Field, South, on a charge preferred by the Mayor, who appointed in his place, to-day, Wm. C. Whitney. Assignee Appointed, etc. Dwight Johnston, president of the Fireman's Fire Insurance Company, has been appointed assignee in the case of Archibald Baxter & Co., a bankrupt grain merchant. A London special says that the weather the past week has been fine and more encouraging to operators for lower prices, and harvest will begin next week, but with all this the accounts of the crops continue unfavorable, and favor holders of stocks of wheat. Prices of all grades are well sustained, and quotations are steady on the basis of $1 shillings per quarter for No. 2 Milwaukee on the spot. Cotton is strong and active, and prices show an upward tendency, but the speculative element is not sanguine. There is little or no change in stock quotations from the closing figures of last week; the inquiry is moderate for American. Another Failure—A Compromise—Anderson Memorial Meeting. Albert L. Dodge, wine and cigar merchant, successor to Chamberlin & Dodge, has made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors without preference; his liabilities are $70,000, assets $20,000. A cable rumor has it that the London and Westminster Bank has compromised with Alex. Collie, and allowed him to escape to the continent, and that the proceedings against his brother William have been discontinued by the bank. The State superintendent of banking has forbidden the savings banks from investing in the 3.5 per cent. bonds in the District of Columbia, as they are held to be neither a State nor a U. S. obligation. The Liberal Club will have a Hans Christian Andersen memorial meeting on Friday evening next; several addresses will be made. A special invitation has been extended to the representatives of the King of Denmark, to all county trismen of Andersen, to attend, and the Danish Consulate in this city is taking steps to assist the observances. An Official Thief Recaptured. CHARLESTON, S. C., 9.—Parker, ex-Treasurer of the State, who escaped from jail last week while awaiting trial for plundering the State while in office, was recaptured in Camden, last night, and will be brought to Columbia in irons. Working to Escape Justice. WASHINGTON, 9.—Ottman, one of the parties implicated in the $47,000 robbery, has employed Richard T. Merrick as counsel, and an effort will be made to have the bail reduced. Ottmann recently made a heavy deposit in a bank, in Alexandria, and officers have gone to seize the money. The employees in the cash room at the Treasury department have been watched in all their movements since the robbery. Ottmann's Package. The president of the German savings bank of Alexandria, where Ottmann has a special deposit, has had an interview with General Spenser and Treasurer Now, and has consented that the officers shall examine the contents of the packages left by Ottmann. Committed. Ottmann appeared, to-day, before Judge Snell, and waived a preliminary examination. The Judge, after hearing the statement of the District Attorney, required bail in ten thousand dollars, in default of which Ottmann was committed. Money Recovered. The sealed package bearing Ottmann's name, which was deposited in the Alexandria Bank, having been opened, was found to contain twenty-nine five hundred dollar bills. The package was taken to Washington. The detectives expect to recover $20,000 more to-day. The Outlook Improving. MEMPHIS, Tenn., 8.—The river at this point continues to rise steadily, and has risen about an inch since six last evening, but notwithstanding this the outlook is more favorable, owing to a decided abatement of the report of the officers of the Memphis and Little Rock Railway, that there is little evidence of flood along the St. Francis, Madison, Arkansas, and in the bottoms between here and that place, which was nearly all submerged in April before the water backed up. The present height, which may be counted for by the fact that all the bays and most of the lake was dry, while the rank vegetation on the bottom retarded the flow of water from the crevasses and much of it was lost by absorption and evaporation; unless the danger from the St. Francis becomes really the danger between here and St. Louis, from that direction, will be small, and confined to a few plantations. CANADA. Great Damage by Rain. OTTAWA, 8.—Heavy rains yesterday broke down and damaged the roads of fields of grain in this vicinity. FOREIGN. GREAT BRITAIN. The Continental—A To Beum Order at A. Secord's Office. LONDON, 8.—The O'Connell centennial was celebrated in the city by a banquet last night at the Cannon Street hotel; a majority of the gentlemen present were Home Rule. Many Arrests. LONDON, 8.—Many fresh arrests were made at Glasgow last night, in consequence of a renewal of the disturbance; several rioters and policemen were injured. The military were held in readiness to prevent further disorder. Dead. The death is announced of Wm. Bayle Bernard, the dramatist, in 1870 in 1870 in Boston, Mass. An Alleged Thief Absconded. The trial of Alex. and William Collie, on a charge of obtaining large sums of money from the London and Westminster Bank on false pretences, was brought to a sudden stop this morning by the announcement that Alex. Collie had absconded; his bail was thereupon estreated and a warrant was issued for his arrest. Messrs. Collier's solicitors and Sergeants Ballew announced the withdrawal from the case. The prosecution declined to proceed against Wm. Collie, in the absence of Alexander, but he was ordered to appear a month hence, and the case was adjourned. Successes by the Insurgents. Slavonian accounts of the Herzegovinian revolution represent that the insurgents have defeated the Turks in several encounters and have wounded Selim Pacha.
